4 At Chester Ask GOP Nomination In Mayoral Race

Little open and organized politicking is preceding Chester's municipal primary election Tuesday in which Republicans have a four-way mayoralty contest and three Council races and Democrats have two Council nomination battles.

However, there has been considerable personal voter contact, meetings of groups of candidates and jockeying for endorsement by various factions.

Major attention is focused upon the four-way GOP bid for the mayoralty nomination with incumbent Ray Collins seeking a second term.

Collins, Crucible Steel Co. employe, is opposed by Harold Dickey, operator of a dry cleaning concern; Harry Abrams, ex-mayor, and Herman Gower, bakery operator and onetime councilman.

John S. Duffy, mayor in 1938-40, is unopposed for the Democrat mayoralty nomination. Alvin Clutter had filed as a Democratic candidate but withdrew.

In the First Ward, Elmer Kell, heating and roofing worker, is unopposed for the GOP nomination. Incumbent Democratic Councilman Charles Kology, Crucible employe, seeks a fourth term against William Tuttle, also a Crucible worker.

Second Ward Republican Councilman Cyril Govey is opposed for a second term by Carl Graham, Homer Laughlin China Co. employe.

The Democrats have two candidates for the Second Ward nomination — Brooks Ash, Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. worker, and Emory Walker, conductor for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In the Third Ward, Donald Hissam seeks a second consecutive term on the GOP ticket against L.W. (Pete) Board, chemist at the Titanium Division of Crucible Steel.

Hissam resigned his post earlier this month when it was learned a property - owning qualification was required of councilman.

Frank DeCapio, another Crucible worker, is the uncontested Democrat candidate for the Third Ward Post.

Harry Davis, New Castle Refractories employe who also resigned earlier this month from the Fourth Ward seat because of the qualification provision, seeks a second term on the Republican ticket. He is opposed by Wayne Hutton, another Titanium Division employe.

Elmer Robinson, Hall China Co. worker and president of the East Liverpool Trades & Labor Council, is unopposed for the Democratic Fourth Ward nomination.

In the Fifth Ward, Percy Willison, a barber and ex-councilman, is unopposed on the GOP slate, and Don Chaney, service station proprietor, is without contest as a Democrat.

Also unopposed on their party tickets are Roy Cashdollar, city clerk - treasurer out for his fourth term as a Republican, and Charles Morris, Chester High School teacher, Democrat, seeking the post.

Administration Leaders Hail President's Tax Bill Victory

Guido Given Argentina's Presidency

Military Leaders Assured Of Power In Running Nation

BULLETIN

BUENOS AIRES, Argentine (AP)—Jose Maria Guido formally assumed the office of president today under the watchful eye and guiding hand of Argentina's military leaders — and amid a few shouts of "Viva Frondizi!" The oath - taking ceremony was the second for the former Senate president.

BUENOS AIRES (AP)— Argentina's military bosses, apparently assured they will have the last word in running the country, gave the go-ahead for Jose Maria Guido to assume the presidency publicly today.

A military communique issued early today ended hours of uncertainty and prospects of a new crisis over whether Guido would actually replace ousted President Arturo Frondizi. The communique said he would be installed in a public ceremony at midday.

Although the communique did not say so, it implied that Guido had agreed to six military demands for a virtual veto over his administration and sharp curbs on the Peronists, Communists and the labor unions.

Guido had been the military's original choice for the presidency, since as Senate president he was next in line of succession under the constitution. But for nine hours after the arrest of Frondizi, his close political ally, Guido balked at assuming the presidency as a figurehead for the military.

Then, apparently without bowing to the military's demands, Guido went before the Supreme Court and was sworn in as president. His sudden action touched off a wave of anger among the military.

The air ministry messaged all its bases that Guido had acted without the knowledge of the commanders in chief. Reports swept the capital that the military might forcibly vacate the presidency for the second time in 24 hours and completely take over the country.

Guido reportedly was called before the military chiefs to explain and told them he decided to act under pressure from his political party, Frondizi's Intransigent Radicals.

Conferences continued late into the night. Guido, a picture of cool confidence, declared he expected to take office on schedule.

Hot Senate Fight Seen On Measure

Passage In House Followed Kennedy Plea At News Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration leaders in Congress hailed today President Kennedy's tax revision bill victory in the House and turned their attention to a Senate fight expected to be just as hot.

An almost straight party-line vote saved the bill in the House Thursday. Passage by a vote of 219 to 196 came a few hours after the President at his news conference made a personal plea for the measure. The House action was considered his biggest triumph of the 1962 session.

Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the Democratic whip, said: "This sets the pattern for the Kennedy program this year. These were Democratic votes."

On final passage, 218 Democrats and a lone Republican, Rep. Richard H. Poff of Virginia, supported the bill, while 162 Republicans and 34 Democrats voted against it.

House Democratic Leaders said privately that when the day began the bill lacked the necessary votes to survive. Up to voting time the leaders worked furiously, buttonholing all Democratic House members.

The key test was a Republican effort to strip the two most important provisions from the measure—$1.2 billion in annual tax cuts to business that buy modern machinery and equipment and a withholding system for interest and dividends.

The administration won this fight with the support of 225 Democrats. Voting to strip the bill were 163 Republicans and 27 Democrats.

The Senate Finance Committee will lose no time in getting down to work on the bill, but floor debate in that branch is many weeks away.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon will be the opening witness as five weeks of public testimony begin next Monday. Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said more than 200 witnesses are listed and the hearings may run even longer.

The committee is sharply split on the bill. Liberals are anxious to strengthen loophole-closing provisions and add many more, while conservatives feel that the bill already goes too far.

Besides the business investment and withholding provisions, the bill as it cleared the House increased taxes on mutual banks and savings and loan associations, on mutual fire and casualty companies, and on cooperatives. It also tightened present regulations on entertainment expenses and on foreign income.

Committees To Join Steel Pact Parley

Good Chance Seen Contract Proposal Will Be Presented

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Key committees of the United Steelworkers Union will join union President David J. McDonald here Saturday, and observers say there is a good chance that a contract proposal will be placed before the union's Wage Policy Committee.

Union law makes contract proposals subject to ratification by that committee.

Top steel negotiators met for seven hours Thursday, went on to an hour and 45-minute night session.

Reports circulated that a steel settlement is near.

After Thursday's day session, chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper told a news conference: "We put in seven solid hours of intense joint discussions on some of the remaining difficult problems. However a considerable amount of work still confronts us."

Cooper refused to confirm or deny reports that the heads of the 11 major steel producers were planning a meeting to consider contract proposals.

Neither side had any further comment after the night session.

City Trucker Wrecks After Tire Blowout

Irondale Motorist Cited In Another Of 3 District Mishaps

An East Liverpool driver escaped injury when his truck crashed after a blowout in one of three traffic accidents investigated Thursday by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol.

Robert A. Calhoun, 53, was driving north on State Route 152 when the left front tire blew, causing the truck to go off the left side of the road and shear a telephone pole a half mile south of Knoxville in Jefferson County.

The patrol said the pole is owned by General Telephone Co. There was minor damage to the city man's vehicle in the mishap at 12:15.

Motorists from Irondale and Steubenville were cited in another wreck Thursday at 3:50 p. m. on Jefferson County Rd. 43, a tenth of a mile north of Steubenville.

The crash involved cars operated by Kenneth Lockhart, 34, of Irondale R. D. 1 and Garnet Nuzum, 44, of Steubenville.

The patrol said both cars were headed south, turning west, when

Charges Due Against 18 In Jury Session

Holdup In East End To Highlight Cases In New Court Term

Armed robbery charges against three Beaver County men arrested after a $400 stickup in East End March 23 will highlight the presentments against 18 individuals in the April session of the Grand Jury scheduled to convene Tuesday morning at Common Pleas Court in Lisbon, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said today.

Albert Leonard Johnson, 29, William E. Gaston, 26, and James Brown, 22, all of Aliquippa, were nabbed in Klondyke by three police minutes after the holdup at Wilson's Golden Dawn Market, 1719 Pennsylvania Ave. They pleaded guilty when bound over to the Grand Jury in Municipal Court Monday.

Other cases originating in East Liverpool or involving local residents are:

William F. Russel, 41, of 417 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, and George Sims Jr., 23, of Irondale R.D. 1, accused of burglary to commit larceny Dec. 15 at the Woodbine Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. plant on W. 4th St. They allegedly stole a quantity of clothing from racks in the driver's pickup room. Both pleaded guilty at arraignment Jan. 17 in Municipal Court.

Daniel Matthews, 19, of East Palestine R.D. 1, accused of passing a fraudulent $25 check Nov. 15 at Loblaw's Market on Dresden Ave. It was drawn on the Union Commercial & Savings Bank of East Palestine. East Liverpool police said he admited cashing 21 other checks for a total of over $700 in six communities in Columbiana and Mahoning Counties.

Robert Wayne Beatty, 23, of the Y. & O. Rd. and Bruce E. Smith, 21, of 200 Carolina Ave., Maplewood, both charged with the Feb. 28 theft of a 1960 station wagon owned by Robert Wycoff, 319 Vine St. Beatty was nabbed by police at a River Rd. roadblock after a high speed chase in which an 18-year-old girl leaped out of the pursued auto at Ralston's Crossing. Beatty implicated Smith, explaining he had driven the Maplewood man to a girl friend's home in Midland in the stolen car and was to have returned for him.

4 Moslems Slain By OAS

Violence Flares Again In Algiers

ALGIERS (AP)—Four Moslems were slain and five wounded today in a new upsurge of terror by European Secret Army Organization gunmen.

The Secret Army Organization is known as the OAS.

The shootings followed a night of plastic bombings, in which six persons were injured and heavy property damage was caused.

Today's terrorism began with shooting of a Moslem. Then a car sped by a group of Moslem passers-by in the suburb of Maison Carree and three were slain by gun fire. A few minutes later another carload of gunmen opened fire on a group of Moslem workers, wounding five, four seriously.

Thursday night 10 mortar shells exploded in the vast gardens of the Palais D'Ete, former residence of French administrators in Algeria. No one was injured.

The violence during the night was directed mainly at Moslems. Five were wounded in an attack on a Moslem housing development. Railway switches were blasted near a suburban station and other charges burst in a downtown intersection.

Government officials disclosed that most of the secret army commandos escaped with their arms last week before barricades were thrown around the working-class suburb of Bab el Oued.

The secret army stronghold in Algiers had been sealed off by 20,000 troops for six days while soldiers searched for suspected terrorists and arms.

A hard core of right-wing fanatics from the suburb—an estimated 500 to 600 armed men—is believed still in hiding in the capital.

Under strict security precautions, Abderrahmane Fares, Algerian president of the new provincial executive regime flew from Paris in a French military plane.

Fares heads the Algerian-dominated 12-man board that will run the North African territory under the French commissioner until the vote for independence is held.

Kennedy Set To Pick High Court Member

2 In Cabinet Figure In As Successor To Justice Whittaker

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was believed today to have practically made up his mind on a Supreme Court appointee to succeed retiring Justice Charles Evans Whittaker. But he kept his own counsel amid a swirl of speculation.

The many names figuring in the guesswork included two Cabinet members — Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff, 51, former governor of Connecticut, and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, 53, of Chicago.

Ribicoff, however, was authoritatively reported today to have told Kennedy he does not want the assignment, preferring to run for the Senate in Connecticut.

Ribicoff once served as a police court judge in Hartford. Goldberg has had no judicial experience, although he has practiced law extensively, especially in the labor field.

In announcing Whittaker's retirement because of physical exhaustion, Kennedy said Thursday he would name a successor shortly. This was taken to mean he had someone in mind, because it takes time to winnow possibilities.

Some lawyers speculated that since Kennedy has an eye to history, he might name a legal luminary such as:

1. Paul Abraham Freund, 54, law professor and legal historian at Harvard, author of "On Understanding the Supreme Court," and other works about the high tribunal.

2. Eugene Victor Rostow, 48, lawyer-economist, dean of the Yale Law School and brother of Walt Whitman Rostow, chairman of the State Department's policy planning council.

Some thought that Kennedy

Quick Spring–Snow May Mix With Rain!

It was either a quick summer or a fast spring — that fine, balmy weather appears at end with colder temperatures and a mixture of rain and snow forecast tonight and Saturday.

The mercury soared to a summer-like 74 here Thursday afternoon and the reading at 6 a.m. today was only 62 but the Ohio weatherman said the temperature will skid to 40 this afternoon. Tonight's low range will be 33 to 39.

The colder spell tonight will bring scattered showers occasionally mixed with snow and there is a chance of occasional light snow or rain tomorrow. A light rain began this morning.

The five-day forecast for Northern Ohio indicates temperatures will average 9 to 12 degrees below normal with no moderation in the cold spell until mid-week. The total precipitation from the rain and snow mixture will be 2 to 4 tenths of an inch through Monday.

$115,000 Cost Seen

State Approves 2-Lane Hammondsville Bridge

The Ohio Department of Highways in Columbus has approved a proposal for construction of a new two-lane bridge across Little Yellow Creek in Hammondsville.

A spokesman at the Division 11 office in New Philadelphia said today the estimated cost of the span on State Route 213 in the Jefferson County village is $115,000, including cost of engineering surveys and right-of-ways.

The New Philadelphia office was authorized in November 1961 to proceed with preliminary surveys and plans by the Columbus office as part of a "deficient bridge program."

The preliminary survey has been completed and the firm of Gannett, Fleming, Corddry & Carpenter of Harrisburg today agreed to begin designing the Hammondsville bridge and six others, including one on Route 172 in Columbiana County.

The firm notified Highway Director Everett S. Preston this morning that it has accepted an invitation to prepare designs for the new bridges.

The proposed bridge for Hammondsville would be one-tenth mile long and 32 feet wide with 20 foot wide approaches.

It would replace the present one-lane bridge built by highway forces in 1953. The present bridge is only 15½ feet wide, hardly enough for two cars to pass in safety.

The Division 11 spokesman said it is hoped that a contract will be awarded for construction of the new Hammondsville bridge sometime in the 1963 fiscal year which extends from July 1 to July 1, 1963.

The Harrisburg firm also agreed to design three others in Jefferson County on Routes 150, 152 and 164, two in Tuscarawas County on U. S. Route 21 and Route 516, and one in Holmes County on Route 76.

Total cost of the seven new

To Eliminate Livestock Pest

U.S. Planning To Hatch 75 Million Flies In Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is hatching plans to produce 75 million flies a week and turn them loose in Texas.

It is also planning to add to the iron, bamboo and other curtains dividing nations a fly curtain between Mexico and the United States.

There are no plans, however, to change the name of that song to "the flies of Texas are upon you," and the program is not intended to stimulate the sale of fly swatters.

What the government has in mind is eliminating a livestock pest—the screwworm fly—that is costing cattlemen about $125 million a year. In its larval stage the fly feeds on the flesh of cattle. It can kill a newborn calf in a week.

The idea is not new. It was used with success a few years ago in Florida. But it has never been tried on such a scale and in country without the natural barriers of ocean and gulf that Florida has.

How do you eliminate flies by producing them at the rate of 75 million a week? Science and sex are the answer.

It seems a male screwworm fly rendered sterile by radiation is just as interested in female screwworm flies as his untreated brothers—and she in him. Flood an infested area with sterile males, let nature take its course, and pretty soon no larva, no flies, and no problem.

The Department of Agriculture, which is already producing 10 million sterile flies a week and losing them on unsuspecting females in Texas, wants $3 million to expand the program at once. Its request was made public today by a House Appropriation subcommittee.

The harsh winter in the Southwest has probably killed a lot of the flies, the department said, and if it moves in now on a big scale the problem will be that much simpler.

This will be no fly-by-night scheme, department witnesses said.

Booher Hearing Reset

LISBON — A hearing for James Richard Booher, 25, scheduled Thursday afternoon, was continued to 6 tonight in County Judge Herbert Arfman's court at East Palestine. He faces a charge of armed robbery in the holdup of Ferguson's roadside market northeast of Columbiana March 21, one of three he admitted in Columbiana County, according to the sheriff's office.

Joan Starr Resigns Post As 'Meter Maid'

Mrs. Joan Starr of W. 3rd St. submitted her resignation as a "Meter Maid" Thursday to Safety-Service Director Robert Owen, timing it to become effective at the end of her vacation April 15.

Mrs. Starr has served as a parking meter attendant since Sept. 16, 1958. In the letter to the director, she said: "Due to present working conditions, I can see no future in city employment. I plan to seek employment elsewhere."

The "Meter Maid" posts pay $1.37 hourly. The appointments are not under Civil Service. The director said he has a standing list of applicants from which he expects to make an appointment shortly.

Charges Due Against 18 In Jury Session

Holdup In East End To Highlight Cases In New Court Term

Armed robbery charges against three Beaver County men arrested after a $400 stickup in East End March 23 will highlight the presentments against 18 individuals in the April session of the Grand Jury scheduled to convene Tuesday morning at Common Pleas Court in Lisbon, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said today.

Albert Leonard Johnson, 29, William E. Gaston, 26, and James Brown, 22, all of Aliquippa, were nabbed in Klondyke by three police minutes after the holdup at Wilson's Golden Dawn Market, 1719 Pennsylvania Ave. They pleaded guilty when bound over to the Grand Jury in Municipal Court Monday.

Other cases originating in East Liverpool or involving local residents are:

William F. Russel, 41, of 417 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, and George Sims Jr., 23, of Irondale R.D. 1, accused of burglary to commit larceny Dec. 15 at the Woodbine Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. plant on W. 4th St. They allegedly stole a quantity of clothing from racks in the driver's pickup room. Both pleaded guilty at arraignment Jan. 17 in Municipal Court.

Fares heads the Algerian-dominated 12-man board that will run the North African territory under the French commissioner until the vote for independence is held.

Kennedy Set To Pick High Court Member

2 In Cabinet Figure In As Successor To Justice Whittaker

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was believed today to have practically made up his mind on a Supreme Court appointee to succeed retiring Justice Charles Evans Whittaker. But he kept his own counsel amid a swirl of speculation.

The many names figuring in the guesswork included two Cabinet members — Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff, 51, former governor of Connecticut, and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, 53, of Chicago.

Ribicoff, however, was authoritatively reported today to have told Kennedy he does not want the assignment, preferring to run for the Senate in Connecticut.

Ribicoff once served as a police court judge in Hartford. Goldberg has had no judicial experience, although he has practiced law extensively, especially in the labor field.

In announcing Whittaker's retirement because of physical exhaustion, Kennedy said Thursday he would name a successor shortly. This was taken to mean he had someone in mind, because it takes time to winnow possibilities.

Some lawyers speculated that since Kennedy has an eye to history, he might name a legal luminary such as:

1. Paul Abraham Freund, 54, law professor and legal historian at Harvard, author of "On Understanding the Supreme Court," and other works about the high tribunal.

2. Eugene Victor Rostow, 48, lawyer-economist, dean of the Yale Law School and brother of Walt Whitman Rostow, chairman of the State Department's policy planning council.

Some thought that Kennedy

Booher Hearing Reset

LISBON — A hearing for James Richard Booher, 25, scheduled Thursday afternoon, was continued to 6 tonight in County Judge Herbert Arfman's court at East Palestine. He faces a charge of armed robbery in the holdup of Ferguson's roadside market northeast of Columbiana March 21, one of three he admitted in Columbiana County, according to the sheriff's office.

State Approves 2-Lane Hammondsville Bridge

The Ohio Department of Highways in Columbus has approved a proposal for construction of a new two-lane bridge across Little Yellow Creek in Hammondsville.

A spokesman at the Division 11 office in New Philadelphia said today the estimated cost of the span on State Route 213 in the Jefferson County village is $115,000, including cost of engineering surveys and right-of-ways.

The New Philadelphia office was authorized in November 1961 to proceed with preliminary surveys and plans by the Columbus office as part of a "deficient bridge program."

The preliminary survey has been completed and the firm of Gannett, Fleming, Corddry & Carpenter of Harrisburg today agreed to begin designing the Hammondsville bridge and six others, including one on Route 172 in Columbiana County.

The firm notified Highway Director Everett S. Preston this morning that it has accepted an invitation to prepare designs for the new bridges.

The proposed bridge for Hammondsville would be one-tenth mile long and 32 feet wide with 20 foot wide approaches.

It would replace the present one-lane bridge built by highway forces in 1953. The present bridge is only 15½ feet wide, hardly enough for two cars to pass in safety.

The Division 11 spokesman said it is hoped that a contract will be awarded for construction of the new Hammondsville bridge sometime in the 1963 fiscal year which extends from July 1 to July 1, 1963.

The Harrisburg firm also agreed to design three others in Jefferson County on Routes 150, 152 and 164, two in Tuscarawas County on U. S. Route 21 and Route 516, and one in Holmes County on Route 76.

To Eliminate Livestock Pest

U.S. Planning To Hatch 75 Million Flies In Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is hatching plans to produce 75 million flies a week and turn them loose in Texas.

It is also planning to add to the iron, bamboo and other curtains dividing nations a fly curtain between Mexico and the United States.

There are no plans, however, to change the name of that song to "the flies of Texas are upon you," and the program is not intended to stimulate the sale of fly swatters.

What the government has in mind is eliminating a livestock pest—the screwworm fly—that is costing cattlemen about $125 million a year. In its larval stage the fly feeds on the flesh of cattle. It can kill a newborn calf in a week.

The idea is not new. It was used with success a few years ago in Florida. But it has never been tried on such a scale and in country without the natural barriers of ocean and gulf that Florida has.

How do you eliminate flies by producing them at the rate of 75 million a week? Science and sex are the answer.

It seems a male screwworm fly rendered sterile by radiation is just as interested in female screwworm flies as his untreated brothers—and she in him. Flood an infested area with sterile males, let nature take its course, and pretty soon no larva, no flies, and no problem.

The Department of Agriculture, which is already producing 10 million sterile flies a week and losing them on unsuspecting females in Texas, wants $3 million to expand the program at once. Its request was made public today by a House Appropriation subcommittee.

The harsh winter in the Southwest has probably killed a lot of the flies, the department said, and if it moves in now on a big scale the problem will be that much simpler.

This will be no fly-by-night scheme, department witnesses said.

Joan Starr Resigns Post As 'Meter Maid'

Mrs. Joan Starr of W. 3rd St. submitted her resignation as a "Meter Maid" Thursday to Safety-Service Director Robert Owen, timing it to become effective at the end of her vacation April 15.

Mrs. Starr has served as a parking meter attendant since Sept. 16, 1958. In the letter to the director, she said: "Due to present working conditions, I can see no future in city employment. I plan to seek employment elsewhere."

The "Meter Maid" posts pay $1.37 hourly. The appointments are not under Civil Service. The director said he has a standing list of applicants from which he expects to make an appointment shortly.

Traffic

Nuzum's car scraped the Irondale man's car. Lockhart was cited for driving an unsafe vehicle, and Nuzum for unsafe operation, the patrol said. Neither was injured.

The patrol investigated another mishap at 1:45 p. m. Thursday at the junction of Route 152 and Route 7 in Empire that involved three tractor-trailer rigs.

A rig driven by Harold A. Varner, 38, of Mifflintown, Pa., was towing another driven by Benjamin Bisbee, 41, of Waterford, Pa. The first rig jackknifed when the driver applied the brakes to avoid striking a coal truck in front that was stopped to make a left turn.

The rig that jackknifed across the road was struck by a southbound rig operated by Gordon R. Livingston, 37, of Mingo Junction, the patrol said.

Varner received possible fractured ribs, and Livingston, possible injuries of the left side and elbow.

Varner was cited on a charge of speeding in excess of conditions and is to appear for a hearing Saturday before Judge Helen M. Huntsman of Toronto.

Boy Given Probation In Motorcycle Theft

A 17-year-old East Liverpool boy arrested with a stolen motorcycle Monday evening by city police was placed on probation Thursday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

He was also fined $25, given a 9 p.m. curfew and forbidden to drive any vehicle for a year.

The 1955 motorcycle is owned by George Summers of Harrison St.

Frank Gibson, 29, of Salem was sentenced to four months in the County Jail for contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old Salem Girl. Gibson had been sentenced to a year but Judge Tobin suspended eight months on good behavior.

Services for Mrs. Laura Bell Wooster of Westfield, N.Y., a native of Hammondsville, will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville.

The Rev. J. D. Poole, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene of Youngstown, will officiate. Burial will be in Hammondsville Cemetery.

Mrs. Wooster died suddenly Wednesday morning at a hospital at Westfield.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. today.

Traffic

Nuzum's car scraped the Irondale man's car. Lockhart was cited for driving an unsafe vehicle, and Nuzum for unsafe operation, the patrol said. Neither was injured.

The patrol investigated another mishap at 1:45 p. m. Thursday at the junction of Route 152 and Route 7 in Empire that involved three tractor-trailer rigs.

A rig driven by Harold A. Varner, 38, of Mifflintown, Pa., was towing another driven by Benjamin Bisbee, 41, of Waterford, Pa. The first rig jackknifed when the driver applied the brakes to avoid striking a coal truck in front that was stopped to make a left turn.

The rig that jackknifed across the road was struck by a southbound rig operated by Gordon R. Livingston, 37, of Mingo Junction, the patrol said.

Varner received possible fractured ribs, and Livingston, possible injuries of the left side and elbow.

Varner was cited on a charge of speeding in excess of conditions and is to appear for a hearing Saturday before Judge Helen M. Huntsman of Toronto.

Boy Given Probation In Motorcycle Theft

A 17-year-old East Liverpool boy arrested with a stolen motorcycle Monday evening by city police was placed on probation Thursday by Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

He was also fined $25, given a 9 p.m. curfew and forbidden to drive any vehicle for a year.

The 1955 motorcycle is owned by George Summers of Harrison St.

Frank Gibson, 29, of Salem was sentenced to four months in the County Jail for contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old Salem Girl. Gibson had been sentenced to a year but Judge Tobin suspended eight months on good behavior.

Potato Growers Set Field Event Aug. 15

LISBON — The Board of Directors of the Columbiana-Mahoning Potato Growers Association Thursday night set the Eastern Ohio Potato Field Day Aug. 15 on the Barth farm on Western Reserve Rd., south of Poland.

Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture, said E. C. Wittmeyer, extension horticulturist at Ohio State University, met with the board and the program for the field day was discussed. Another meeting will be held by the directors to complete the final program.

3 Cubs Graduate Into Scout Unit At Wellsville Ceremony

Alan Jarvis, Bruce Wellington and Richard Whiteman of Cub Pack 20 of Wellsville were graduated into Boy Scout Troop 20 in a ceremony Tuesday night in the Covenant Presbyterian Church social rooms. Some 75 cubs, parents and guests attended.

John Smith, cubmaster, conducted the ceremony for the cubs and their parents and escorted them across the bridge from cubbing into scouting. They are 11 and completed Webelos requirements.

The cubs were escorted to the stage by Bruce's brother, Jeff, who also is a Cub Scout, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis were escorted by Jeff Welch and Mrs. Robert Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Whiteman were escorted by Jack Grimm.

Jack and Jeff gave them the cub farewell and welcomed them into scouting. Smith introduced the new scouts and parents to Charles Stone, scoutmaster of Troop 20. Stone then welcomed the new scouts and parents and Steve Barlow of the Hawk Patrol accepted the three into his patrol.

Dr. William McCutcheon, committeeman, was master of ceremonies, introducing each den and its skit on the theme of the month, "Islands of the World." He also provided movies as the entertainment. The opening ceremony was led by Den 2. Awards were presented for the wolf rank and the gold arrow to Lee Crook and Steve Barlow received a den chief's shoulder cord.

The attendance banner was won by Den 6 with the most cubs and parents attending. The closing ceremony was presented by the den chief and new scouts. The pack committee will meet at the church Monday at 7:30 p. m. for a charter review. The pack is sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood.

Georgetown Church Class Begins Plans On Guest Night

The Friendship Class met at the Georgetown Methodist Church Monday evening and made plans for "Guest Night" April 23.

Guests will be members of the WSCS, the Fellowship Class and teachers of the Church School and the Rev. David Dayen, minister.

The refreshment committee for the April meeting will include Mrs. William Durst, Mrs. John Nash and Mrs. Harry Schmidt.

A ways and means committee was appointed for future programs and all entertainment. Members are Mrs. Durst, Mrs. William Stewart and Mrs. Bernard Stewart.

Men of the class volunteered to clean the church yard. Mrs. Schmidt, president, led devotions and conducted business. There was group singing with Mrs. John Nash, class teacher, pianist.

Hosts and hostesses for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brandon and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Durham.

LISBON — The Mid - County Republican Club will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the Village Hall.

Mrs. Vida Davies, president, said Allen J. Dalrymple of Wellsville, candidate for state senator, will speak and Mrs. Gloria McElroy of Wellsville, candidate for county auditor, and William H. Weir of Salem, commissioner candidate, will be introduced.

Atty. Donald Lewis of Lisbon will present a biographical sketch of John Ballard, Republican candidate for U. S. senator. Atty. Lewis is a close friend and former classmate of Ballard.

Commissioners Buy Paint For Road Lines

County commissioners Thursday awarded a contract to Tricon Distributors of Cincinnati to furnish white and yellow paint for relining highways.

The firm will supply white traffic paint for $1.71 a gallon and yellow paint for $1.83. The commissioners acted on bids received before the deadline Monday noon. There were six bids on white paint and seven on yellow paint.

The commissioners also let a contract to the Glidden Co. of Cleveland to furnish 200 gallons of white wood and metal paint on its low bid of $2.87 a gallon. There were three other bids.

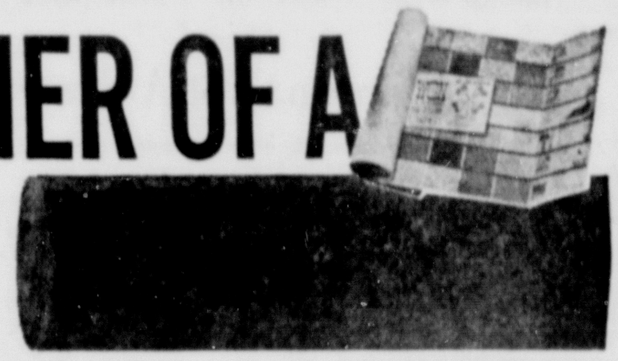

Commissioners discussed summer road programs with trustees of Wayne, Madison and St. Clair Township. Next meeting is Monday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Steel Story Has A Moral

Both sides in the steel negotiations are so anxious to make it appear they are being firm about the federal government's intervention that the public has the idea the government's mind is only half made up.

The truth is the government's mind is completely made up. The steel story in 1962, when it's told, will reveal something never told before. It will be a story with a moral.

The moral is that the politicians who get blamed for everything that goes wrong are not going to wait for things to go wrong in labor relations after what happened to the national economy during and after the 1959 steel strike.

That needless and senseless paralysis of steel production may very well have been the cause of Richard Nixon's defeat in the 1960 presidential election. It triggered a slump that caused widespread dissatisfaction.

MR. NIXON'S opponent in the election missed no chances to rub in the fact the country had been slow in recovering from its 1959 setback. It was no surprise, in the light of what had happened, to learn last year that President Kennedy had no intention of letting his administration be the goat for another steel strike. He intended to put the government at the bargaining table.

He had the former legal counsel of United Steel workers in his Cabinet as secretary of labor. He had the up-to-date record of what had happened to labor contracts under a hands-off policy in Washington. Mr. Kennedy began a year ago to preach that the federal government has an obligation to participate in labor negotiations, to remind both sides of their responsibility and to warn both sides against inflationary settlements.

Whether or not federal intervention will work and whether or not there will be a non-inflationary steel settlement is still iffy. This is an experiment, not a proved practice.

But there's nothing iffy about the reason for the experiment. A Democratic administration whose attitude toward labor is influenced strongly by a former labor lawyer has taken the hard-bitten attitude that blackjacking employers for everything that can be pounded out of them, on pain of economic paralysis if they show resistance, is no way to run an industrial society.

THIS IDEA IS not easy to accept. Until the 1959 steel strike, which was whimsical, suicidally long and economically devastating, the prevailing idea was to keep hands off negotiations between managers of enterprise and managers of union. It was assumed that both would act in good faith and in good sense to settle their differences, with minimum long-term damage to the economy.

After the 1959 steel strike, the hands-off doctrine didn't seem plausible any longer. The federal government had to intervene to get the steel industry back to work. As long as the national interest was going to be at stake eventually, it seemed only reasonable to admit it was at stake from the outset.

Free collective bargaining "ain't what it used to be."

Thinking back over some 20 years of experience with what it turned out to be under Presidents Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower and now Kennedy, we aren't sure it ever was what future generations will be told it "used to be."

It may not be better in the future, but after 1959 it's clear the people who were to come together in the Kennedy administration decided it couldn't very well be worse if the government became the third party to every important negotiation.

More Than Words

Improved spelling apparently is not the only benefit being derived from the various bees which are being held throughout the county.

Along with a broadened word base, the youngsters are developing poise and stage manners which should prove of value later in life.

When one attends a spelling bee, it becomes evident in a hurry that more than the "Twist" and other forms of entertainment are occupying the minds of the younger set.

A Credo, Not A System

As was to have been expected, overthrow of the Frondizi government in Argentina is being pointed to as evidence of a breakdown in popular rule. While his administration was still two years away from the end of its term, President Arturo Frondizi was plucked out of his office by the military because too many followers of Juan Peron were voted into power. Democracy, therefore, has failed.

In other words, Argentine militarists do not intend to put up with Peronism again even if it means turning their back on the Argentine version of "democracy." There is nothing about the system of voting and government half as important to them as the stability and security of Argentina. They don't believe in democracy.

This is true, generally, of many conscientious militarists in unsettled countries. The military dictatorships they set up are proof of their patriotism. They are genuinely devoted to their countries and will not stand by to witness the destruction of everything they hold dear when military intervention would save the day.

In countries where popular government is a credo, not a system, military intervention becomes another thing entirely—a repudiation, not a rescue. If military men ever moved in because they didn't like the outcome of an election in the United States they would be going against everything that patriots cherish.

They would not be saving something but destroying something.

Overthrow of the Frondizi government in Argentina has destroyed nothing. An Argentine government holds power at the pleasure of militarists who exercise the right to replace politicians. In the United States politicians have the right to replace militarists. That's the difference.

Fire Season

Extreme caution is in order with the grass fire season on hand and the lifting of the burning ban here for 17 days.

The danger is intensified by the dryness of fields and woods.

Those who find it necessary to build fires should take every precaution to see that they don't get out of control. It's better to be careful than sorry.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

If married folks don't quarrel there is something wrong with them. Failure to battle proves they are neglecting a natural source of happiness. So says psychiatrist at annual convention in Los Angeles. He lays it on line this way: "Such fights are a natural activity, healthy in marital and love relationships. They are good therapy."

This can increase the fury of hassles in millions of homes and be a blow to world peace. Couples who have fought themselves out, settled for a draw decision and called a truce, thinking combat was bad for them, are probably already battling again after hearing it is essential therapy in relieving taut nerves and quick tempers.

Mortimer Topblower tried it out in his own home but didn't do well. He and the wife hadn't fought in years.

"Why are we sitting around peacefully in only fair health when we need the joy of therapeutic relief, punch by punch and insult by insult?" he demanded.

"Gwan home to your mother, you pacifist!" It shocked the wife so much she took an eight-count.

But the missus, game in the punches and packing a good wallop, got up and nailed him. They clinched. The wife, a good believer in therapy, butted and drew blood.

Mortimer who is a sucker for psychiatric theories, used the rabbit punch. It was one of the best battles of the year. Both collapsed in neutral corners.

Mrs. Mortimer left to see her lawyer. Mortimer wrote her saying, "It's all therapy. I'm just trying to make our home happy and prove we are a normal ever-loving couple."

The wife declared, "I shall train for another fight at once. But not with my husband. With the first psychiatrist I see."

PRESIDENT KENNEDY and Ike met on a golf course the other day. No Democratic policy on golf was decided on. Important question is whether golfers should be included to unemployment figures. Odd Facts

The lac, a tiny parasitic insect found on certain types of plum trees in India, Burma, and Siam, is the source of all shellac. It lives on limbs and twigs, secreting lac resin, which is scraped off and made into shellac. While science knows quite a bit of the chemical composition of lac, it cannot reproduce it synthetically.

Although botanically speaking, the tomato is a fruit, the U. S. Supreme Court passed a decision that, since the tomato is grown in kitchen gardens and eaten generally as part of the body of a meal, and since it is sold as a vegetable, it should be considered a vegetable so far as commerce and general use are concerned.

President Denies 'Timid' Charge

By Victor Riesel

One afternoon some weeks ago a small group of men in John F. Kennedy's White House "apartment" held a $600 million conversation—knocked down from $2 billion.

Victor Riesel

They were the top executives of the nation's labor movement. On Friday, March 9, their leader George Meany had telephoned the President for an appointment. He said fine, come over Monday afternoon.

Shortly after they arrived and had run through the amiable amenities, John Kennedy said he did not think it quite fair for them to call him and his administration "overly timid" — which they had done a few weeks earlier. One of the union chiefs I must drape in unaccustomed anonymity, grinned and respectfully asked:

"Would you prefer if we said that you were not bold enough?"

Laughter. Some of it not so hearty, but all very friendly.

SOMEWHERE along the line the President said he did not think there would be a "Kennedy depression." This was a sensitive moment. It had been reported that Mr. Labor, George Meany, had charged that this land was already in a "Kennedy depression."

At that time the famed Kennedy smile was among the missing. Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg, at the President's side, then explained that Mr Meany had simply never invoked such a phrase. Mr. Goldberg, peacemaker pro tem, said that Meany actually had said that labor wanted to head off what might become known as a "Kennedy depression."

This was their mission in the White House that afternoon, they said. Walter Reuther, a statistician on the hoof or soft chair when needs be, said: "Mr. President, things are bad in Detroit. There is 9 per cent unemployment," Reuther added, "and the figure will rise to more than 11 per cent in two months." The President listened.

Then steel leader Dave McDonald said that the nation's steel production now is at 85 per cent of capacity. Which is fine, he remarked, but this high production is being whipped out by 125,000 fewer men than in previous years.

THERE WERE other figures reported, especially by the AFL-CIO quiet spoken, intensely erudite chief of research, Stanley Ruttenberg.

It was all very gemutlich but there was no doubt that the seven-man labor delegation had come to complain.

They said in effect that the $2 billion "trigger" program, which the President wants as a standby so he can pump money into the economy if times go bad, is fine.

But the labor men said it is being prepared for the next depression. The President appeared quizzical.

The labor leaders said the land has never come out of the 1960 recession. They said the '60 recession had not really come out of the 1958 recession and that '58 had not fully come out of early dips. They want the $2 billion to be released now for vast public works.

They had wanted to sit down with him on such a project since the preinauguration days of December, '60.

For an hour and 15 minutes they said that the President was overestimating the current recovery.

THEY POINTED OUT there now are some 4½ million jobless and some two million working part time. They want a vast capital construction program right now.

They fear if it does not come, then the jobless figure will sprout into 5, 6, perhaps 7 million as the national work force grows.

They want a program which will pump money into the economy through local projects already on the drawing boards in many a community — like a fire house or a court house. Pump priming which could be turned on and off easily when needs be.

The President up to that moment had intended to let this "recession" roll into what he believed to be automatic recovery. He was not going to spend additional hundreds of millions now. But he reversed himself.

When the meeting ended he walked out with Goldberg. The others remained for a bit. Suddenly John Kennedy popped his head back into the doorway.

"Remember Stanley," said he to Ruttenberg, "don't forget to send me those figures."

Exactly two weeks later, JFK revealed what he had done with those statistics. Mr. President asked for a crash $600 million pump priming public works program.

A Cheer For The Court

By David Lawrence

Narrows Field On 'Political Questions'

One feels like giving a cheer for the Supreme Court of the United States for its temerity in cracking, even slightly, a precedent of nearly 100 years on which it has hitherto based a refusal to decide case after case involving so-called "political questions."

David Lawrence

The Supreme Court, for example, has declined to pass upon the validity of the method used by Congress to compel a so-called ratification of the 14th Amendment. Yet this amendment is the original basis of the whole civil rights controversy and of the several executive orders promulgated from time to time by the President.

The court has steadfastly maintained that the way the 14th Amendment got into the Constitution, whether legal or illegal, was a "political question."

Historians are all agreed that the legislatures of the Southern states had been accepted as legally constituted when, after the Civil War was over, they duly ratified the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery.

Later these states were ruled by Congress not to be members of the Union, however, when the same legislatures rejected the 14th Amendment.

This inconsistency has never been justified from a constitutional viewpoint.

When the states of the South failed to ratify the 14th Amendment, Congress refused to seat in either the House or the Senate the chosen representatives of those states. A law then was passed by Congress, known as the Reconstruction Act, which demanded that, unless these states adopted the 14th Amendment, they could not recover their representative in the Congress or become members of the Union.

President Andrew Johnson vetoed the bill, declaring it unconstitutional. He cited the expressed viewpoint of President Abraham Lincoln that the southern states had never legally left the Union and that there was no legal right of secession.

Congress ignored all this and enacted the law anyway over the presidential veto. Military rule was imposed on the South, and new state legislatures were "elected" and new legislative sessions were convened. One by one, the southern states were coerced into accepting the 14th Amendment.

Lawyers and historians who for decades past have examined the facts have been aware that the action was plainly illegal. When Secretary of State Seward — an outstanding lawyer — hesitated to proclaim the 14th Amendment as legally ratified and publicly said so in July 1868, he was directed the next day by a joint resolution of Congress to promulgate it anyhow as duly ratified. He had no choice but to comply.

SHORTLY THEREAFTER, citizens sought to persuade the Supreme Court that they had been denied the benefits of a republican form of government guaranteed to the states by the Constitution and that their rights had been taken from them.

The efforts were fruitless. The Supreme Court merely said, in effect, that the method by which the 14th Amendment was ratified was a "political question," and that it, therefore, wouldn't take any case involving this particular point.

In subsequent years, the court assumed theoretically that the ratification had been legal and decided many cases arising under the 14th Amendment itself. There's no record anywhere that the Supreme Court ever has actually said that the method of ratification used for the 14th Amendment was constitutional.

Justice Brennan, in rendering on Monday of this week the majority opinion in the case involving the rights of citizens to a fair apportionment for representation in the state legislatures, speaks of the problem of "political questions" as follows:

"We come, finally to the ultimate inquiry whether our precedents as to what constitutes a nonjusticiable 'political question' bring the case before us under the umbrella of that doctrine. . . .

"The question here is the consistency of state action with the federal Constitution. We have no question decided, or to be decided, by a political branch of government coequal with this court."

THERE CERTAINLY IS, with reference to the ratification of the 14th Amendment, a question of the consistency of "state action" taken under duress. For, otherwise, if Congress is immune from judicial restraint, it could, by means of the alibi known as "political questions," someday by a majority vote abolish the 50 states and set up 6 or 12 regional authorities. Would there be no way of assailing this in the courts, because the Supreme Court could rule that this involved a "political question" by a coequal branch of the government and hence beyond the court's jurisdiction?

So, while the break in the clouds at this time is perhaps slight, the fact is that the Supreme Court has begun to narrow the field of what it regards as a political question.

This may eventually mean that the validity of the ratification of the 14th Amendment will itself be ruled upon and the amendment be declared to have been illegally and fraudulently inserted in the Constitution.

The ratification of a new 14th Amendment is needed really to validate its doctrines.

The whole controversy points up the fact that a constitutional amendment would seem to be needed also to empower the Supreme Court to decide whether amendments have been legally ratified.

If this isn't done, Congress could some day arbitrarily unseat those members who did not go along with the majority and get a two-thirds vote in that manner, and rely on the Supreme Court to rule that it was just a "political question."

Farewell, Sport!

By Truman Twill

Before everybody's thoughts turn to more important things than Jack Paar, who is taking himself off one of the hottest spots in show business, I'd like to make an observation.

I apologize for it in advance.

I don't apologize to Paar, though, nor do I want to shoot Paar. I have found him interesting, because he has been the storm center of an experiment in personality exposure that had no precedent and isn't likely to be repeated.

What fascinates me is not what people found out about Paar in his visits to late-at-night viewers. On the rare occasions when I thought I could stay up late enough to watch the first part of his show I found him just so-so interesting.

But that's what I found to be interesting — that a so-so personality could produce so much mileage.

I always wondered while watching and listening to Paar how many people would dare to expose their personalities so relentlessly and so often. The guy did it so effortlessly it seemed to be fun, though we must take his word for it that it wore him down to a nubbin.

As to the merit of the man as an entertainer, you have to say this:

He had to have something to keep so many people coming back for more, especially in view of the fact his show was designed to infuriate and frustrate those who watched it. If they hadn't been bored so stiff they were on the verge of shattered sanity anyway, they would have thrown an ashtray through the picture tube.

Who could have done better, all things considered? Who's going to do as well, all things considered?

Jack Paar was almost everything his severest critics said he was and almost nothing his warmest admirers said he was. It is no accident that this was true.

As far as I know, no other human being in history ever did it before, and it's my considered judgment that no other human being is likely to do it again.

That is to chatter away hour after hour without a script, projecting a personality into millions of homes under every conceivable set of circumstances and coming back again the next night. When it is considered that the only other really big talky-talk personality in show business, Arthur Godfrey, wore his welcome thin a long time ago and Jack Paar is still a saleable property, the trick can be appreciated.

As far as I'm concerned, the only thing Jack Paar ever did that I found to be remarkable was to be remarkably durable. But for that kind of money, I'd hang in there too. Come to think of it, I was writing this silly piece while Jack Paar was still a soldier boy — and not for anything close to that kind of money.

Hail and farewell, sport.

Steel Story Has A Moral

Both sides in the steel negotiations are so anxious to make it appear they are being firm about the federal government's intervention that the public has the idea the government's mind is only half made up.

The truth is the government's mind is completely made up. The steel story in 1962, when it's told, will reveal something never told before. It will be a story with a moral.

The moral is that the politicians who get blamed for everything that goes wrong are not going to wait for things to go wrong in labor relations after what happened to the national economy during and after the 1959 steel strike.

That needless and senseless paralysis of steel production may very well have been the cause of Richard Nixon's defeat in the 1960 presidential election. It triggered a slump that caused widespread dissatisfaction.

MR. NIXON'S opponent in the election missed no chances to rub in the fact the country had been slow in recovering from its 1959 setback. It was no surprise, in the light of what had happened, to learn last year that President Kennedy had no intention of letting his administration be the goat for another steel strike. He intended to put the government at the bargaining table.

He had the former legal counsel of United Steel workers in his Cabinet as secretary of labor. He had the up-to-date record of what had happened to labor contracts under a hands-off policy in Washington. Mr. Kennedy began a year ago to preach that the federal government has an obligation to participate in labor negotiations, to remind both sides of their responsibility and to warn both sides against inflationary settlements.

Whether or not federal intervention will work and whether or not there will be a non-inflationary steel settlement is still iffy. This is an experiment, not a proved practice.

But there's nothing iffy about the reason for the experiment. A Democratic administration whose attitude toward labor is influenced strongly by a former labor lawyer has taken the hard-bitten attitude that blackjacking employers for everything that can be pounded out of them, on pain of economic paralysis if they show resistance, is no way to run an industrial society.

THIS IDEA IS not easy to accept. Until the 1959 steel strike, which was whimsical, suicidally long and economically devastating, the prevailing idea was to keep hands off negotiations between managers of enterprise and managers of union. It was assumed that both would act in good faith and in good sense to settle their differences, with minimum long-term damage to the economy.

After the 1959 steel strike, the hands-off doctrine didn't seem plausible any longer. The federal government had to intervene to get the steel industry back to work. As long as the national interest was going to be at stake eventually, it seemed only reasonable to admit it was at stake from the outset.

Free collective bargaining "ain't what it used to be."

Thinking back over some 20 years of experience with what it turned out to be under Presidents Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower and now Kennedy, we aren't sure it ever was what future generations will be told it "used to be."

It may not be better in the future, but after 1959 it's clear the people who were to come together in the Kennedy administration decided it couldn't very well be worse if the government became the third party to every important negotiation.

More Than Words

Improved spelling apparently is not the only benefit being derived from the various bees which are being held throughout the county.

Along with a broadened word base, the youngsters are developing poise and stage manners which should prove of value later in life.

When one attends a spelling bee, it becomes evident in a hurry that more than the "Twist" and other forms of entertainment are occupying the minds of the younger set.

A Credo, Not A System

As was to have been expected, overthrow of the Frondizi government in Argentina is being pointed to as evidence of a breakdown in popular rule. While his administration was still two years away from the end of its term, President Arturo Frondizi was plucked out of his office by the military because too many followers of Juan Peron were voted into power. Democracy, therefore, has failed.

In other words, Argentine militarists do not intend to put up with Peronism again even if it means turning their back on the Argentine version of "democracy." There is nothing about the system of voting and government half as important to them as the stability and security of Argentina. They don't believe in democracy.

This is true, generally, of many conscientious militarists in unsettled countries. The military dictatorships they set up are proof of their patriotism. They are genuinely devoted to their countries and will not stand by to witness the destruction of everything they hold dear when military intervention would save the day.

In countries where popular government is a credo, not a system, military intervention becomes another thing entirely—a repudiation, not a rescue. If military men ever moved in because they didn't like the outcome of an election in the United States they would be going against everything that patriots cherish.

They would not be saving something but destroying something.

Overthrow of the Frondizi government in Argentina has destroyed nothing. An Argentine government holds power at the pleasure of militarists who exercise the right to replace politicians. In the United States politicians have the right to replace militarists. That's the difference.

Fire Season

Extreme caution is in order with the grass fire season on hand and the lifting of the burning ban here for 17 days.

The danger is intensified by the dryness of fields and woods.

Those who find it necessary to build fires should take every precaution to see that they don't get out of control. It's better to be careful than sorry.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

If married folks don't quarrel there is something wrong with them. Failure to battle proves they are neglecting a natural source of happiness. So says psychiatrist at annual convention in Los Angeles. He lays it on line this way: "Such fights are a natural activity, healthy in marital and love relationships. They are good therapy."

This can increase the fury of hassles in millions of homes and be a blow to world peace. Couples who have fought themselves out, settled for a draw decision and called a truce, thinking combat was bad for them, are probably already battling again after hearing it is essential therapy in relieving taut nerves and quick tempers.

Mortimer Topblower tried it out in his own home but didn't do well. He and the wife hadn't fought in years.

"Why are we sitting around peacefully in only fair health when we need the joy of therapeutic relief, punch by punch and insult by insult?" he demanded.

"Gwan home to your mother, you pacifist!" It shocked the wife so much she took an eight-count.

But the missus, game in the punches and packing a good wallop, got up and nailed him. They clinched. The wife, a good believer in therapy, butted and drew blood.

Mortimer who is a sucker for psychiatric theories, used the rabbit punch. It was one of the best battles of the year. Both collapsed in neutral corners.

Mrs. Mortimer left to see her lawyer. Mortimer wrote her saying, "It's all therapy. I'm just trying to make our home happy and prove we are a normal ever-loving couple."

The wife declared, "I shall train for another fight at once. But not with my husband. With the first psychiatrist I see."

Odd Facts

The lac, a tiny parasitic insect found on certain types of plum trees in India, Burma, and Siam, is the source of all shellac. It lives on limbs and twigs, secreting lac resin, which is scraped off and made into shellac. While science knows quite a bit of the chemical composition of lac, it cannot reproduce it synthetically.

Although botanically speaking, the tomato is a fruit, the U. S. Supreme Court passed a decision that, since the tomato is grown in kitchen gardens and eaten generally as part of the body of a meal, and since it is sold as a vegetable, it should be considered a vegetable so far as commerce and general use are concerned.

President Denies 'Timid' Charge

By Victor Riesel

One afternoon some weeks ago a small group of men in John F. Kennedy's White House "apartment" held a $600 million conversation—knocked down from $2 billion.

Victor Riesel

They were the top executives of the nation's labor movement. On Friday, March 9, their leader George Meany had telephoned the President for an appointment. He said fine, come over Monday afternoon.

Shortly after they arrived and had run through the amiable amenities, John Kennedy said he did not think it quite fair for them to call him and his administration "overly timid" — which they had done a few weeks earlier. One of the union chiefs I must drape in unaccustomed anonymity, grinned and respectfully asked:

"Would you prefer if we said that you were not bold enough?"

Laughter. Some of it not so hearty, but all very friendly.

SOMEWHERE along the line the President said he did not think there would be a "Kennedy depression." This was a sensitive moment. It had been reported that Mr. Labor, George Meany, had charged that this land was already in a "Kennedy depression."

At that time the famed Kennedy smile was among the missing. Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg, at the President's side, then explained that Mr Meany had simply never invoked such a phrase. Mr. Goldberg, peacemaker pro tem, said that Meany actually had said that labor wanted to head off what might become known as a "Kennedy depression."

This was their mission in the White House that afternoon, they said. Walter Reuther, a statistician on the hoof or soft chair when needs be, said: "Mr. President, things are bad in Detroit. There is 9 per cent unemployment," Reuther added, "and the figure will rise to more than 11 per cent in two months." The President listened.

Then steel leader Dave McDonald said that the nation's steel production now is at 85 per cent of capacity. Which is fine, he remarked, but this high production is being whipped out by 125,000 fewer men than in previous years.

THERE WERE other figures reported, especially by the AFL-CIO quiet spoken, intensely erudite chief of research, Stanley Ruttenberg.

It was all very gemutlich but there was no doubt that the seven-man labor delegation had come to complain.

They said in effect that the $2 billion "trigger" program, which the President wants as a standby so he can pump money into the economy if times go bad, is fine.

But the labor men said it is being prepared for the next depression. The President appeared quizzical.

The labor leaders said the land has never come out of the 1960 recession. They said the '60 recession had not really come out of the 1958 recession and that '58 had not fully come out of early dips. They want the $2 billion to be released now for vast public works.

They had wanted to sit down with him on such a project since the preinauguration days of December, '60.

For an hour and 15 minutes they said that the President was overestimating the current recovery.

THEY POINTED OUT there now are some 4½ million jobless and some two million working part time. They want a vast capital construction program right now.

They fear if it does not come, then the jobless figure will sprout into 5, 6, perhaps 7 million as the national work force grows.

They want a program which will pump money into the economy through local projects already on the drawing boards in many a community — like a fire house or a court house. Pump priming which could be turned on and off easily when needs be.

The President up to that moment had intended to let this "recession" roll into what he believed to be automatic recovery. He was not going to spend additional hundreds of millions now. But he reversed himself.

When the meeting ended he walked out with Goldberg. The others remained for a bit. Suddenly John Kennedy popped his head back into the doorway.

"Remember Stanley," said he to Ruttenberg, "don't forget to send me those figures."

Exactly two weeks later, JFK revealed what he had done with those statistics. Mr. President asked for a crash $600 million pump priming public works program.

A Cheer For The Court

By David Lawrence

Narrows Field On 'Political Questions'

One feels like giving a cheer for the Supreme Court of the United States for its temerity in cracking, even slightly, a precedent of nearly 100 years on which it has hitherto based a refusal to decide case after case involving so-called "political questions."

David Lawrence

The Supreme Court, for example, has declined to pass upon the validity of the method used by Congress to compel a so-called ratification of the 14th Amendment. Yet this amendment is the original basis of the whole civil rights controversy and of the several executive orders promulgated from time to time by the President.

The court has steadfastly maintained that the way the 14th Amendment got into the Constitution, whether legal or illegal, was a "political question."

Historians are all agreed that the legislatures of the Southern states had been accepted as legally constituted when, after the Civil War was over, they duly ratified the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery.

Later these states were ruled by Congress not to be members of the Union, however, when the same legislatures rejected the 14th Amendment.

This inconsistency has never been justified from a constitutional viewpoint.

When the states of the South failed to ratify the 14th Amendment, Congress refused to seat in either the House or the Senate the chosen representatives of those states. A law then was passed by Congress, known as the Reconstruction Act, which demanded that, unless these states adopted the 14th Amendment, they could not recover their representative in the Congress or become members of the Union.

President Andrew Johnson vetoed the bill, declaring it unconstitutional. He cited the expressed viewpoint of President Abraham Lincoln that the southern states had never legally left the Union and that there was no legal right of secession.

Congress ignored all this and enacted the law anyway over the presidential veto. Military rule was imposed on the South, and new state legislatures were "elected" and new legislative sessions were convened. One by one, the southern states were coerced into accepting the 14th Amendment.

Lawyers and historians who for decades past have examined the facts have been aware that the action was plainly illegal. When Secretary of State Seward — an outstanding lawyer — hesitated to proclaim the 14th Amendment as legally ratified and publicly said so in July 1868, he was directed the next day by a joint resolution of Congress to promulgate it anyhow as duly ratified. He had no choice but to comply.

SHORTLY THEREAFTER, citizens sought to persuade the Supreme Court that they had been denied the benefits of a republican form of government guaranteed to the states by the Constitution and that their rights had been taken from them.

The efforts were fruitless. The Supreme Court merely said, in effect, that the method by which the 14th Amendment was ratified was a "political question," and that it, therefore, wouldn't take any case involving this particular point.

In subsequent years, the court assumed theoretically that the ratification had been legal and decided many cases arising under the 14th Amendment itself. There's no record anywhere that the Supreme Court ever has actually said that the method of ratification used for the 14th Amendment was constitutional.

Justice Brennan, in rendering on Monday of this week the majority opinion in the case involving the rights of citizens to a fair apportionment for representation in the state legislatures, speaks of the problem of "political questions" as follows:

"We come, finally to the ultimate inquiry whether our precedents as to what constitutes a nonjusticiable 'political question' bring the case before us under the umbrella of that doctrine. . . .

"The question here is the consistency of state action with the federal Constitution. We have no question decided, or to be decided, by a political branch of government coequal with this court."

THERE CERTAINLY IS, with reference to the ratification of the 14th Amendment, a question of the consistency of "state action" taken under duress. For, otherwise, if Congress is immune from judicial restraint, it could, by means of the alibi known as "political questions," someday by a majority vote abolish the 50 states and set up 6 or 12 regional authorities. Would there be no way of assailing this in the courts, because the Supreme Court could rule that this involved a "political question" by a coequal branch of the government and hence beyond the court's jurisdiction?

So, while the break in the clouds at this time is perhaps slight, the fact is that the Supreme Court has begun to narrow the field of what it regards as a political question.

This may eventually mean that the validity of the ratification of the 14th Amendment will itself be ruled upon and the amendment be declared to have been illegally and fraudulently inserted in the Constitution.

The ratification of a new 14th Amendment is needed really to validate its doctrines.

The whole controversy points up the fact that a constitutional amendment would seem to be needed also to empower the Supreme Court to decide whether amendments have been legally ratified.

If this isn't done, Congress could some day arbitrarily unseat those members who did not go along with the majority and get a two-thirds vote in that manner, and rely on the Supreme Court to rule that it was just a "political question."

Farewell, Sport!

By Truman Twill

Before everybody's thoughts turn to more important things than Jack Paar, who is taking himself off one of the hottest spots in show business, I'd like to make an observation.

I apologize for it in advance.

I don't apologize to Paar, though, nor do I want to shoot Paar. I have found him interesting, because he has been the storm center of an experiment in personality exposure that had no precedent and isn't likely to be repeated.

What fascinates me is not what people found out about Paar in his visits to late-at-night viewers. On the rare occasions when I thought I could stay up late enough to watch the first part of his show I found him just so-so interesting.

But that's what I found to be interesting — that a so-so personality could produce so much mileage.

I always wondered while watching and listening to Paar how many people would dare to expose their personalities so relentlessly and so often. The guy did it so effortlessly it seemed to be fun, though we must take his word for it that it wore him down to a nubbin.

Polio Vaccine Views Cited By Public Health Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service made public Thursday its recommendations on use of polio vaccines — both the needle-injection and oral types— during 1962.

The recommendations said proper application of the vaccines "should accelerate the decline in poliomyelitis and could lead to early elimination of the disease."

The announcement by Surgeon General Luther L. Terry came two days after the licensing of the Type III oral polio vaccine, the last of the series of oral vaccines for protection against all types of polio.

Four priorities were spelled out, but Terry emphasized "The decision on which vaccine to use rests with individual physicians and health officers." The priorities:

1.—Vaccination programs in areas threatened with epidemics. Supplies of oral vaccine for use in the study of methods for controlling epidemics are maintained by the service's Communicable Disease Center and these are expected to be adequate to meet this priority need.

The oral vaccine was described as especially valuable in combating an epidemic because it quickly gives some protection against spread of the disease.

2.—Routine immunization of infants, beginning at six weeks of age and completed in one year.

3.—Programs to reach all preschool children not yet fully immunized, choosing either to complete the schedule of Salk vaccine injections or to initiate a full course of the oral vaccines.

4.—Other unimmunized groups, including older population groups and particularly young adults and parents of small children.

Democrats Praise Rep. Lantz For Ohio House Leadership

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrats heaped praise on Rep. James A. Lantz, D-Fairfield, at a dinner Thursday night for his party leadership in the Ohio House.

An estimated 350 turned out for the $10-a-plate affair in the Deshler-Hilton here. One source said 760 tickets were sold. Proceeds will go to a fund for Lantz's campaign for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in the May primary.

George Hook of Georgetown, a member of the 1959 House in which Lantz served as speaker, predicted that Lantz "will be governor of this state one day". Democrats dominated that session of the legislature.

Other speakers criticized the 1961 Republican-controlled General Assembly for asserted failure to meet the needs of the state. Lantz was minority floor leader in the last session.

Rep. Wray Bevens, D-Pike, the main speaker, lauded Lantz as the man who "gave the people of Ohio a program of pay as you go."

"The people of Ohio are fortunate to have men of the caliber of (Gov.) Michael V. DiSalle and James Lantz," said Bevens, a former commerce director.

A speaking engagement in South Salem prevented DiSalle from attending the testimonial dinner.

Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said the issue in this year's campaign will be "whether the people want to move Ohio forward."

"In 1958 we had the right-to-work issue in our favor," Coleman said. "In 1960, the opposition had bigotry. We will have neither this year."

Lantz accepted the plaudits by asserting that the 1959 legislature "faced its responsibilities courageously."

"We faced a situation not of our own making," he said. "We had a decision to make and we made it."

He apparently referred to tax increases exceeding $200 million enacted by the 1959 session at DiSalle's behest.

Lantz also recalled other accomplishments. He cited passage of the first Fair Employment Practices Law, increases in benefits for jobless and for injured workmen, and boosts in allowances for schools and teachers' salaries.

"And yet this tax program cost each Ohioan less than five cents a day," Lantz said.

$2.3 Million Cost For Treating Patients

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Treatment of patients at Ohio's 40 outpatient psychiatric clinics cost $2,367,286 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1961, the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction reports.

The clinics, located in 27 counties, treated 12,774 patients from the state's 88 counties.

The annual clinic statistical report, made public Thursday by Dr. Robert A. Haines, department director, shows the state's share of the cost of treatment was $1,309,807. City and county governments contributed $58,641, the federal government $248,747 and community chests and private donations another $614,013.

Ohio Controlling Board Refuses Funds Transfer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Controlling Board has refused to transfer funds for the addition of a sixth story to a contemplated five-story Bureau of Unemployment building here.

By a vote of 4-1, the board turned a proposal to spend $636,541, tagged for BUC buildings in other cities, on a new Columbus building in addition to the $5.1 million already available.

BUC Administrator Donald B. Leach and Public Works Director T. J. Kauer said the extra money was needed for a sixth floor to handle space needs of the bureau now located opposite Ft. Hayes here. They said architects would be asked to see if a sixth floor could be added with the funds available.

The new BUC building will be constructed as a wing south of the present State Office Building fronting the Scioto River in downtown Columbus. Another wing is planned on the north side for the highway department.

Kauer said there was no further action on plans for new BUC buildings in Mansfield and three other cities but they would be studied further. The board at its previous meeting deferred action on fund transfers for those structures.

33 B&O Freight Cars Derailed At Wheeling

WHEELING (AP) — Thirty-three cars of a Baltimore & Ohio freight train derailed here this morning scattering coal and slag over a wide area.

No one was reported injured in the accident which occurred at Clayton, a Wheeling suburb, however, trainmen said the mishap was the worst in Ohio Valley history.

Train crews from Pittsburgh were headed for the scene to clear the wreckage. Officials estimated it would take more than 36 hours to clear the tracks.

Cause of the mishap was undetermined.

Ground-Breaking Set For Medical Center

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Ground will be broken Saturday for the first park-type medical center in the state.

Called Doctors' Park, the $300,000 development will be located on U.S. 23, south of Marion.

Plans call for three professional medical buildings with offices for 10 physicans, pharmacy and laboratory facilities.

Owned by a corporation of eight Marion physicians, the center will be part of an executive development being built on the site of a former golf course.

Polio Vaccine Views Cited By Public Health Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service made public Thursday its recommendations on use of polio vaccines — both the needle-injection and oral types— during 1962.

The recommendations said proper application of the vaccines "should accelerate the decline in poliomyelitis and could lead to early elimination of the disease."

The announcement by Surgeon General Luther L. Terry came two days after the licensing of the Type III oral polio vaccine, the last of the series of oral vaccines for protection against all types of polio.

Four priorities were spelled out, but Terry emphasized "The decision on which vaccine to use rests with individual physicians and health officers." The priorities:

1.—Vaccination programs in areas threatened with epidemics. Supplies of oral vaccine for use in the study of methods for controlling epidemics are maintained by the service's Communicable Disease Center and these are expected to be adequate to meet this priority need.

The oral vaccine was described as especially valuable in combating an epidemic because it quickly gives some protection against spread of the disease.

2.—Routine immunization of infants, beginning at six weeks of age and completed in one year.

3.—Programs to reach all preschool children not yet fully immunized, choosing either to complete the schedule of Salk vaccine injections or to initiate a full course of the oral vaccines.

4.—Other unimmunized groups, including older population groups and particularly young adults and parents of small children.

Democrats Praise Rep. Lantz For Ohio House Leadership

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrats heaped praise on Rep. James A. Lantz, D-Fairfield, at a dinner Thursday night for his party leadership in the Ohio House.

An estimated 350 turned out for the $10-a-plate affair in the Deshler-Hilton here. One source said 760 tickets were sold. Proceeds will go to a fund for Lantz's campaign for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in the May primary.

George Hook of Georgetown, a member of the 1959 House in which Lantz served as speaker, predicted that Lantz "will be governor of this state one day". Democrats dominated that session of the legislature.

Other speakers criticized the 1961 Republican-controlled General Assembly for asserted failure to meet the needs of the state. Lantz was minority floor leader in the last session.

Rep. Wray Bevens, D-Pike, the main speaker, lauded Lantz as the man who "gave the people of Ohio a program of pay as you go."

"The people of Ohio are fortunate to have men of the caliber of (Gov.) Michael V. DiSalle and James Lantz," said Bevens, a former commerce director.

A speaking engagement in South Salem prevented DiSalle from attending the testimonial dinner.

Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said the issue in this year's campaign will be "whether the people want to move Ohio forward."

"In 1958 we had the right-to-work issue in our favor," Coleman said. "In 1960, the opposition had bigotry. We will have neither this year."

Lantz accepted the plaudits by asserting that the 1959 legislature "faced its responsibilities courageously."

"We faced a situation not of our own making," he said. "We had a decision to make and we made it."

He apparently referred to tax increases exceeding $200 million enacted by the 1959 session at DiSalle's behest.

Lantz also recalled other accomplishments. He cited passage of the first Fair Employment Practices Law, increases in benefits for jobless and for injured workmen, and boosts in allowances for schools and teachers' salaries.

"And yet this tax program cost each Ohioan less than five cents a day," Lantz said.

$2.3 Million Cost For Treating Patients

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Treatment of patients at Ohio's 40 outpatient psychiatric clinics cost $2,367,286 during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1961, the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction reports.

The clinics, located in 27 counties, treated 12,774 patients from the state's 88 counties.

The annual clinic statistical report, made public Thursday by Dr. Robert A. Haines, department director, shows the state's share of the cost of treatment was $1,309,807. City and county governments contributed $58,641, the federal government $248,747 and community chests and private donations another $614,013.

Ohio Controlling Board Refuses Funds Transfer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Controlling Board has refused to transfer funds for the addition of a sixth story to a contemplated five-story Bureau of Unemployment building here.

By a vote of 4-1, the board turned a proposal to spend $636,541, tagged for BUC buildings in other cities, on a new Columbus building in addition to the $5.1 million already available.

BUC Administrator Donald B. Leach and Public Works Director T. J. Kauer said the extra money was needed for a sixth floor to handle space needs of the bureau now located opposite Ft. Hayes here. They said architects would be asked to see if a sixth floor could be added with the funds available.

The new BUC building will be constructed as a wing south of the present State Office Building fronting the Scioto River in downtown Columbus. Another wing is planned on the north side for the highway department.

Kauer said there was no further action on plans for new BUC buildings in Mansfield and three other cities but they would be studied further. The board at its previous meeting deferred action on fund transfers for those structures.

33 B&O Freight Cars Derailed At Wheeling

WHEELING (AP) — Thirty-three cars of a Baltimore & Ohio freight train derailed here this morning scattering coal and slag over a wide area.

No one was reported injured in the accident which occurred at Clayton, a Wheeling suburb, however, trainmen said the mishap was the worst in Ohio Valley history.

Train crews from Pittsburgh were headed for the scene to clear the wreckage. Officials estimated it would take more than 36 hours to clear the tracks.

Cause of the mishap was undetermined.

Ground-Breaking Set For Medical Center

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Ground will be broken Saturday for the first park-type medical center in the state.

Called Doctors' Park, the $300,000 development will be located on U.S. 23, south of Marion.

Plans call for three professional medical buildings with offices for 10 physicans, pharmacy and laboratory facilities.

Owned by a corporation of eight Marion physicians, the center will be part of an executive development being built on the site of a former golf course.

Woman Cited For Avoiding Patrol Check

An East End woman was pursued and cited by the State Highway Patrol Thursday night after she turned onto a side road in an apparent effort to avoid a traffic check on the Y. & O. Rd. near Glenmoor, the patrol reported.

Mrs. Sandra L. Copestick, 425 Mulberry St., is due for a Municipal Court hearing Tuesday at 9 a. m. on a charge of operating an auto without a license.

The patrol reported officers were conducting a routine traffic check on the Y. & O. Rd. about 5:45 p. m. when they saw an approaching car make an abrupt turn onto a side road as though attempting to avoid the block. Officers trailed the auto, halted it on the Campground Rd. and found that Mrs. Copestick has no operator's permit, they said.

Mrs. Copestick's husband was in the car, but his permit has been suspended under the Ohio Financial Responsibility Law, the patrol reported.

Also due for a hearing Tuesday at 9 a. m. is Andrew W. Lynn of Wellsville, cited at 5:20 p. m. yesterday on Route 30 by the patrol on a charge of reckless driving by passing without the assured clear distance.

Meanwhile, Richard Kountz, 22, of the In-City Motel, Wellsville, was fined $20 and costs today by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he pleaded guilty to driving 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. He was cited last Saturday on Route 7.

The judge set a hearing at 9 a. m. April 6 for Peter Rom of Youngstown, charged with reckless operation following a traffic mishap March 12 on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super - road." Rom's case was continued after he entered a "no contest" plea at arraignment today.

New Parish Group Elects

Officers were elected at a meeting of the Larger Parish Council of the newly-organized Carroll County Larger Parish of the Steubenville Presbytery Thursday evening at the Carrollton United Presbyterian Church.

The meeting was under the supervision of the national missions committee of the Presbytery, of which the Rev. James McCollam, pastor of the Salineville church, is chairman.

The officers include Wilmer Fife of the Dellroy church, moderator; the Rev. Harry Holfelder, pastor of the Carrollton church, vice moderator; Shane George of the Scroggsfield church, treasurer, and James Smiley of the Mechanicstown church, clerk.

The new moderator appointed a finance and budget committee, pulpit and an executive committee.

The new parish is expected to become effective by mid-summer if the Presbytery approves at its meeting April 24 at the Carrollton church.

The Rev. George Jenkins of Carrollton, general presbyter, and the Rev. Robert Thompson of Bloomingdale, moderator, of the Presbytery were present.

New Story Hour For Children To Start Wednesday

The Carnegie Public Library in East Liverpool concludes its fifth season of story hours for boys and girls too young to attend school and Mrs. Hilda McEwen, children's librarian, said a new series will start Wednesday.

The programs for the youngsters will be held weekly through May 9.

Due to the popularity of the story programs two sessions have been held in recent years, morning and afternoon. This practice will be continued this spring with morning sessions at 10 and afternoon programs starting at 2.

Mrs. Ann Triguba is returning as the song and game leader. Mrs. Triguba promises an interesting chalk talk for the first program based on the book, "The Boy Who Drew Birds."

Children 3 to 6 are welcome at the program, but parents are requested to register their youngsters. This may be done by phoning or visiting the library in advance, Mrs. McEwen said.

4-Car Garage And 2 Autos Lost In Blaze

EAST PALESTINE — A four-car garage and two autos were destroyed and a boat and motor damaged in a $1,200 blaze Thursday afternoon at the home of James Jones, 205 Alice St.

Fire Chief Glenn Libert said the fire in the garage was ignited by children playing with matches. The cars were a 1957 and a 1952, he said.

Firemen extinguished a grass fire in Neely Manor about 4:30 p. m. after it threatened a home at one time. Firemen were also summoned to a minor grass fire on W. North Ave. late yesterday morning.

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher of Newark, Ohio, has the distinction of having traveled with Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy. Mrs. Fisher was one of five first class travelers aboard the airliner which the First Lady and her party boarded Thursday in London.

Crew Begins Spring Street Cleaning Job

The municipal government's official first sign of spring, as punctual as the robin, appeared in downtown East Liverpool Thursday — street department crews scooping up the winter's accumulation of dirt near curbs and washing away the residue with fire hoses.

A crew moved along the curbsides, using shovels to scrape up the accumulation of ashes and dirt that built up during the winter. Another crew followed, dragging a fire hose to flush the last traces of the dirt into sewers.

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen said the work began in the downtown area where ashes normally are not used in large quantities during a snowfall. In that way, the cleaned streets will not be littered again, even if there is a late spring snowfall, he pointed out.

Meanwhile, the street department's mechanized sweeper has broken down four times in the course of spring street cleaning and it probably is beyond economical repair, the director said.

The major broken part are conveyor chains which move waste into a storage hopper, the director said.

The sweeper, which has broken down frequently in recent years, was acquired in 1954 for approximately $10,000.

Inspection Held For Cub Scouts

Inspection of Fred Yonz, assistant commissioner of the Cherokee District, featured the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 31 at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Wednesday evening.

Richard Crowder, cubmaster, and Don Hoyt, assistant, were in charge of the meeting.

Ken Laughlin, institutional representative, discussed responsibilities of committeemen and den mothers.

Bill Hoyt received the Webelos certificate and badge and his mother was presented a Webelos pin.

Curtiss Burchet was welcomed as a new member and received his bobcat pin.

Mike Rolley and Terry Hoyt received gold and silver arrows under bear and Mike Karcher a denner stripe.

The meeting opened with the flag ceremony and closed with the cubs forming a living circle in prayer led by Crowder and Hoyt.

50 Attend Glenmoor Firemen's Meeting

Fifty attended a public meeting of Glenmoor volunteer firemen Thursday night at the station when Patrolman Donas Johnson of the Lisbon Highway Patrol screened a movie, "Signal 30."

The patrolman also gave a safety talk, and a question-and-answer period followed. Later, firemen had dinner.

A schedule was arranged for monthly fire training, Chief Harry Reckner reported. Firemen's training nights will be the first and third Wednesdays and the second and fourth Thursdays at 7 p.m.

Reckner said a meeting will be held soon in order that firemen may see another traffic safety film, "Mechanized Death."

Don Parsons, assistant chief, will have charge of training on placement and care of equipment on trucks at Wednesday night's session.

Woman Hurt Saving Purse

A plucky widow was injured Thursday night shortly before 10 when she put up a successful battle against a youth who attempted to snatch her purse as she entered her home, police reported.

Mrs. LaVerne Cornell, 150 Pennsylvania Ave., suffered abrasions of the knee and hand when she was hurled to the ground in the struggle with the would-be thief, officers said. While fighting off the thief, she screamed for help and the approach of a woman passerby frightened the youth into flight, officers said.

Mrs. Cornell said she was returning to her home about 9:50 after a trip to a store to purchase a loaf of bread. As she opened her purse for a key to unlock the door of her home, a youth grabbed her pocketbook from behind, she said.

Mrs. Cornell said her calls for help attracted a woman passerby, who came to her aid. The youth let go of the pocketbook and fled empty-handed on Sugar St. toward E. 4th St.

Patroolmen Paul Blevins and K. H. Mooney investigated the attempted theft after it was reported to Patrolman Paul Burson, desk officer.

Littell Will Head Civic Association

William A. Littell, a former president of the South Beaver County Civic Association, was elected as its president at an annual meeting Thursday evening at the Shippingport Community Building.

He succeeds Charles D. Barker, who was elected a trustee. Others elected were H. J. DeRolf, vice president; Ann McCoy, treasurer; Lois Lutton, secretary, and Lawrence Christy, Joseph Cotter, Carl Lutton, James Miller and James Russell, trustees.

Assemblymen Charles D. Stone and Beryl Klein, Democratic candidates for new terms in the May 15 primary, discussed various legislative matters and answered questions.

The association is now holding a drive for new members for the coming year.

Refreshments were served. Next meeting is April 26.

Tavern At Wellsville Entered By Burglars

Burglars obtained an undetermined amount of beer, cash and merchandise sometime Thursday night or early today from a Wellsville tavern, police reported.

Burglars gained entry to the P. & P. Tavern on Main St. by forcing the lock on the front door.

Police said the loss consisted of a large supply of beer and merchandise, including razor blades and chewing gum, although the cash lost was small.

The tavern is owned by P. A. Downard and Mrs. Pearl Downard. Police are continuing an investigation.

Sheriff Foils Jail Break Bid In Van Wert

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff W. L. Clay of Van Wert County said he broke up an attempted break from the county jail early today after some prisoners had filed through one iron bar and steel mesh screens of a cell block.

The sheriff said he returned from investigating an accident and noted some unusual activity in a cell block after peering through a barred window.

Inside, he said, he took some tools, including four saw blades, a screw driver and a pair of cutters from William Burt Conrad, 35, of Richmond, Ind., being held for trial April 3 on charges of armed robbery, attempted kidnaping and auto theft. The sheriff said one window bar and one mesh screen had been cut, and another part of a second steel mesh screen worked on in the escape attempt.

He said he would file charges of attempted jail break against Conrad, and two other men, James Flynn, 22, of Columbia City, Ind., and James Dudley, 24, of Grover Hill.

Flynn is held for grand jury action on a fraudulent check charge, and Dudley is held as a parole violator. The sheriff said Dudley had been a trusty, and had walked away from the jail Wednesday, only to be captured in Wilmington Wednesday night. Sheriff Clay said Dudley admitted giving the tools to Conrad.

Conrad was arrested Dec. 31 in the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Meyers of near Van Wert, the attempted kidnaping of Mrs. Meyers, and the theft of the Meyers automobile.

Frost that cake as soon as it is cool. If you let it stand overlong without being covered, it will probably get too dry.

Bridge Worker Killed

BEAVER FALLS — Charles W. Freithofer, 38, of Pittsburgh was killed about 1:10 p.m. Thursday when a boom broke while lifting a 10-ton girder at the site of the new bridge over the Ohio River beween Beaver Falls and Eastvale. Mr. Freithofer, a pile driver for the Layne Drilling Co. of Pittsburgh, was dead on arrival at Providence Hospital.

New Parish Group Elects

Officers were elected at a meeting of the Larger Parish Council of the newly-organized Carroll County Larger Parish of the Steubenville Presbytery Thursday evening at the Carrollton United Presbyterian Church.

The meeting was under the supervision of the national missions committee of the Presbytery, of which the Rev. James McCollam, pastor of the Salineville church, is chairman.

The officers include Wilmer Fife of the Dellroy church, moderator; the Rev. Harry Holfelder, pastor of the Carrollton church, vice moderator; Shane George of the Scroggsfield church, treasurer, and James Smiley of the Mechanicstown church, clerk.

The new moderator appointed a finance and budget committee, pulpit and an executive committee.

The new parish is expected to become effective by mid-summer if the Presbytery approves at its meeting April 24 at the Carrollton church.

The Rev. George Jenkins of Carrollton, general presbyter, and the Rev. Robert Thompson of Bloomingdale, moderator, of the Presbytery were present.

New Story Hour For Children To Start Wednesday

The Carnegie Public Library in East Liverpool concludes its fifth season of story hours for boys and girls too young to attend school and Mrs. Hilda McEwen, children's librarian, said a new series will start Wednesday.

The programs for the youngsters will be held weekly through May 9.

Due to the popularity of the story programs two sessions have been held in recent years, morning and afternoon. This practice will be continued this spring with morning sessions at 10 and afternoon programs starting at 2.

Mrs. Ann Triguba is returning as the song and game leader. Mrs. Triguba promises an interesting chalk talk for the first program based on the book, "The Boy Who Drew Birds."

Children 3 to 6 are welcome at the program, but parents are requested to register their youngsters. This may be done by phoning or visiting the library in advance, Mrs. McEwen said.

4-Car Garage And 2 Autos Lost In Blaze

EAST PALESTINE — A four-car garage and two autos were destroyed and a boat and motor damaged in a $1,200 blaze Thursday afternoon at the home of James Jones, 205 Alice St.

Fire Chief Glenn Libert said the fire in the garage was ignited by children playing with matches. The cars were a 1957 and a 1952, he said.

Firemen extinguished a grass fire in Neely Manor about 4:30 p. m. after it threatened a home at one time. Firemen were also summoned to a minor grass fire on W. North Ave. late yesterday morning.

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher of Newark, Ohio, has the distinction of having traveled with Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy. Mrs. Fisher was one of five first class travelers aboard the airliner which the First Lady and her party boarded Thursday in London.

Crew Begins Spring Street Cleaning Job

The municipal government's official first sign of spring, as punctual as the robin, appeared in downtown East Liverpool Thursday — street department crews scooping up the winter's accumulation of dirt near curbs and washing away the residue with fire hoses.

A crew moved along the curbsides, using shovels to scrape up the accumulation of ashes and dirt that built up during the winter. Another crew followed, dragging a fire hose to flush the last traces of the dirt into sewers.

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen said the work began in the downtown area where ashes normally are not used in large quantities during a snowfall. In that way, the cleaned streets will not be littered again, even if there is a late spring snowfall, he pointed out.

Meanwhile, the street department's mechanized sweeper has broken down four times in the course of spring street cleaning and it probably is beyond economical repair, the director said.

The major broken part are conveyor chains which move waste into a storage hopper, the director said.

The sweeper, which has broken down frequently in recent years, was acquired in 1954 for approximately $10,000.

Inspection Held For Cub Scouts

Inspection of Fred Yonz, assistant commissioner of the Cherokee District, featured the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 31 at the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Wednesday evening.

Richard Crowder, cubmaster, and Don Hoyt, assistant, were in charge of the meeting.

Ken Laughlin, institutional representative, discussed responsibilities of committeemen and den mothers.

Bill Hoyt received the Webelos certificate and badge and his mother was presented a Webelos pin.

Curtiss Burchet was welcomed as a new member and received his bobcat pin.

Mike Rolley and Terry Hoyt received gold and silver arrows under bear and Mike Karcher a denner stripe.

The meeting opened with the flag ceremony and closed with the cubs forming a living circle in prayer led by Crowder and Hoyt.

50 Attend Glenmoor Firemen's Meeting

Fifty attended a public meeting of Glenmoor volunteer firemen Thursday night at the station when Patrolman Donas Johnson of the Lisbon Highway Patrol screened a movie, "Signal 30."

The patrolman also gave a safety talk, and a question-and-answer period followed. Later, firemen had dinner.

A schedule was arranged for monthly fire training, Chief Harry Reckner reported. Firemen's training nights will be the first and third Wednesdays and the second and fourth Thursdays at 7 p.m.

Reckner said a meeting will be held soon in order that firemen may see another traffic safety film, "Mechanized Death."

Don Parsons, assistant-chief, will have charge of training on placement and care of equipment on trucks at Wednesday night's session.

Woman Hurt Saving Purse

A plucky widow was injured Thursday night shortly before 10 when she put up a successful battle against a youth who attempted to snatch her purse as she entered her home, police reported.

Mrs. LaVerne Cornell, 150 Pennsylvania Ave., suffered abrasions of the knee and hand when she was hurled to the ground in the struggle with the would-be thief, officers said. While fighting off the thief, she screamed for help and the approach of a woman passerby frightened the youth into flight, officers said.

Mrs. Cornell said she was returning to her home about 9:50 after a trip to a store to purchase a loaf of bread. As she opened her purse for a key to unlock the door of her home, a youth grabbed her pocketbook from behind, she said.

Mrs. Cornell said her calls for help attracted a woman passerby, who came to her aid. The youth let go of the pocketbook and fled empty-handed on Sugar St. toward E. 4th St.

Patroolmen Paul Blevins and K. H. Mooney investigated the attempted theft after it was reported to Patrolman Paul Burson, desk officer.

Littell Will Head Civic Association

William A. Littell, a former president of the South Beaver County Civic Association, was elected as its president at an annual meeting Thursday evening at the Shippingport Community Building.

He succeeds Charles D. Barker, who was elected a trustee. Others elected were H. J. DeRolf, vice president; Ann McCoy, treasurer; Lois Lutton, secretary, and Lawrence Christy, Joseph Cotter, Carl Lutton, James Miller and James Russell, trustees.

Assemblymen Charles D. Stone and Beryl Klein, Democratic candidates for new terms in the May 15 primary, discussed various legislative matters and answered questions.

The association is now holding a drive for new members for the coming year.

Refreshments were served. Next meeting is April 26.

Tavern At Wellsville Entered By Burglars

Burglars obtained an undetermined amount of beer, cash and merchandise sometime Thursday night or early today from a Wellsville tavern, police reported.

Burglars gained entry to the P. & P. Tavern on Main St. by forcing the lock on the front door.

Police said the loss consisted of a large supply of beer and merchandise, including razor blades and chewing gum, although the cash lost was small.

The tavern is owned by P. A. Downard and Mrs. Pearl Downard. Police are continuing an investigation.

Sheriff Foils Jail Break Bid In Van Wert

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff W. L. Clay of Van Wert County said he broke up an attempted break from the county jail early today after some prisoners had filed through one iron bar and steel mesh screens of a cell block.

The sheriff said he returned from investigating an accident and noted some unusual activity in a cell block after peering through a barred window.

Inside, he said, he took some tools, including four saw blades, a screw driver and a pair of cutters from William Burt Conrad, 35, of Richmond, Ind., being held for trial April 3 on charges of armed robbery, attempted kidnaping and auto theft. The sheriff said one window bar and one mesh screen had been cut, and another part of a second steel mesh screen worked on in the escape attempt.

He said he would file charges of attempted jail break against Conrad, and two other men, James Flynn, 22, of Columbia City, Ind., and James Dudley, 24, of Grover Hill.

Flynn is held for grand jury action on a fraudulent check charge, and Dudley is held as a parole violator. The sheriff said Dudley had been a trusty, and had walked away from the jail Wednesday, only to be captured in Wilmington Wednesday night. Sheriff Clay said Dudley admitted giving the tools to Conrad.

Conrad was arrested Dec. 31 in the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Meyers of near Van Wert, the attempted kidnaping of Mrs. Meyers, and the theft of the Meyers automobile.

City Church, Weirton Home Chosen For Architect Award

Architects for the Trinity United Presbyterian Church on Maine Blvd., and a Weirton residence will receive awards Sunday for "outstanding examples of distinguished achievement in architecture."

Lewis Kesling, director of the Art Workshop of Weirton, Steubenville and New Cumberland, said the awards will be given during the first open competitive art show Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Swaney Gallaery of Contemporary Art at the Swaney Memorial Library in New Cumberland.

The show will be open to the public and 95 exhibits may be viewed. Tea will be served by the New Cumberland Young Women's Club and the gallery will remain open until 5.

Designers of the new Trinity church and the residence of Atty. Carl Frankovitch of Weirton were cited by the Art Workshop for outstanding achievement in architecture.

J. Nessley Porter, East Liverpool architect, who designed the home of Atty. Frankovitch and collaborated on the design of the Trinity church, and Tony Seletti, Weirton contractor who built the Frankovitch home, will receive plaques.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor, and Mr. and Mrs. Frankovitch will also receive plaques. Photographs of both the exterior and interior of the prize-winning structures will be on display Sunday.

More than 145 pieces of painting and sculpture by artists from Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia were entered in the show. Because of limited hanging space, the work submitted was screened by Aaronel DeRoy Gruber, Pittsburgh artist, and 95 selected for public viewing.

Tom Anas of Weirton was awarded the outstanding achievement in creative painting prize for his painting of "Tidewater."

The prize for outstanding achievement in sculpture was awarded Ruth Stern of Steubenville for her work, "Sublimity."

Winners of prizes from the local area in the sculpture division included Clyde Ross of New Cumberland, first, for "Wounded Warrior;" Michael Swarta of Weirton, second, for "Tree of Life," and Harry Ameredes of Weirton, fourth, "Old Man With Beard."

10 Locals Listed For 2nd Meeting On Merger Plan

Ten locals of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters will discuss a proposal for merging into a single union at a meeting Saturday morning at 10 at the old IBOP Building on W. 6th St.

It will be the second discussion on amalgamation for seven of the locals, while three others will send representatives for the first time, the IBOP said.

The merger was discussed previously by Locals 9, kilnmen; 17, kilndrawers; 18, dippers; 94, warehousewomen; 130, kilnfiremen, helpers and trackmen; 138, bisque warehousemen, and 141, oddmen and laborers.

Attending for the first time will be representatives of Locals 148, porcelain workers; 172, maintenance men, and 195, glost warehousewomen and kilndrawers.

The first meeting on the merger plan was held March 17. IBOP headquarters said Locals 148, 172 and 195 were overlooked when invitations were mailed for the first meeting, but have been asked to send representatives to the session Saturday.

Violin Figure Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Dr. Sidney J. Tretick, 39, a violin maker and professor of violin at Ball State Teachers College, died Thursday. Tretick, a native of Baltimore, Md., was concert master of the Muncie, Ind., symphony Orchestra and had been soloist with symphonies of Baltimore, Denver, Los Angeles, Phoenix and Mexico City.

Latta Criticizes Farm Chief On Dairy Price Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The issue of fixing dairy price supports for the 1962 marketing year has been passed to Congress in an attempt to head off criticism of the administration, an Ohio congressman says.

The congressman, Rep. Delbert L. Latta, a Republican from Bowling Green, said dairy price supports would be reduced automatically from 83 to 75 per cent of parity if administrative action is not taken by April, less than two days hence.

Latta said Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman has the authority to keep supports at the 83 per cent level and has used the authority in the past.

"It seems strange to me," Latta said, "that Secretary Freeman should now suddenly decide that he lacks the authority that he used in 1961, and that Secretary Benson used in 1956, to maintain dairy price supports above 75 per cent of parity."

The representative from Bowling Green accused Freeman of asking Congress to take him "off the hook" until after the November elections so the administration could avoid adverse criticism from the consuming public.

Weirton Steel's Vacation Pay To Hit New Record

WEIRTON (AP — Weirton Steel Co. employes will receive a total of $8,453,757 in their pay envelopes between April 5 and 12, the highest of the year.

President C. G. Tournay said today the total includes a record vacation pay of $5,651,097 on April 5 for all departments.

Employes of the Steubenville tin mill and strip steel departments also will get their regular pay totaling $1,260,100 April 5. Employes of the sheet mill and steel works departments will get $1,542,560 regular pay April 12.

The vacation pay is provided in the labor agreement between Weirton Steel and the Independent Steel Workers Union. It is base on a 48-hour week. The scale of credits applied to determine the amount ranges from 48 hours for one year of service to 168 hours for 25 or more years.

2 In Hancock Schools Will Attend Sessions

Paul Jackson and E. Russell Slack of the Hancock County school system will attend the 15th annual West Virginia Driver and Safety Education meeting this weekend at Jacksons Mill.

Jackson is driver education instructor for Chester and Newell High Schools, and Slack is principal of Newell. Chester Grossi of Weirton, former teacher at Weir High School, will also attend to present a report on last year's activities when he served as president. He resigned his teaching duties in August.

Dr. Norman Key of Washington, executive secretary of the National Education Association Commission on Safety Education, will be one of the featured speakers. Some 200 from all over the state are expected to attend.

Elkton Group Meets With Lisbon Hostess

Robert Copestick led the boys in the scoutmaster's benediction.

Refreshments were served by Girl Scout Troop 56, including Pam Cline, Cherry A. Ewing, Connie Henry, Sherry Howell, Cindy McCullough and Pamela Thrasher. The girls will receive an achievement toward their merit badges.

11 Council Aspirants Confer With Auditor

Eleven of Chester's 15 Council candidates met with Richard Whited of the West Virginia Auditor's office Thursday night at the City Hall for a discussion on duties and budget organization.

Whited had invited the prospective councilmen to the briefing on fiscal matters in municipal governmen.

He said he had completed an audit of the city's and the water works' books and found them in good order. He commended Earl Wilson, water works clerk, and City Clerk-Treasurer Ray Cashdollar.

Toledo U. Works Out Plan To Get Ordnance Depot

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A plan has been worked out whereby the University of Toledo, faced with a growing student body, can acquire facilities of the Rossford Ordnance Depot.

The depot, which is being shut down in a defense department cutback, is valued at $21 million. If the plan approved tentatively by university trustees Thursday is carried out, the facilities can be acquired at little cost to the university.

Under an arrangement with the federal government, the price for the 882-acre property and buildings would be $3.2 for the university. This cost would be cut to $1.921 million by a grant of $1.3 million from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Under the plan, 472 acres would be leased or sold by the university for industrial development, and proceeds of this transaction would be used to cover the university's share of the purchase price.

11 Council Aspirants Confer With Auditor

Eleven of Chester's 15 Council candidates met with Richard Whited of the West Virginia Auditor's office Thursday night at the City Hall for a discussion on duties and budget organization.

Whited had invited the prospective councilmen to the briefing on fiscal matters in municipal government.

He said he had completed an audit of the city's and the water works' books and found them in good order. He commended Earl Wilson, water works clerk, and City Clerk-Treasurer Ray Cashdollar.

The Viceroy butterfly, a tasty morsel for birds, is colored so much like the unsavory Monarch that birds usually ignore it.

Toledo U. Works Out Plan To Get Ordnance Depot

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A plan has been worked out whereby the University of Toledo, faced with a growing student body, can acquire facilities of the Rossford Ordnance Depot.

The depot, which is being shut down in a defense department cutback, is valued at $21 million. If the plan approved tentatively by university trustees Thursday is carried out, the facilities can be acquired at little cost to the university.

Under an arrangement with the federal government, the price for the 882-acre property and buildings would be $3.2 for the university. This cost would be cut to $1.921 million by a grant of $1.3 million from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Under the plan, 472 acres would be leased or sold by the university for industrial development, and proceeds of this transaction would be used to cover the university's share of the purchase price.

Small fry usually enjoy old-fashioned "goldenrod" eggs. To prepare, add slivered whites from hard-cooked eggs to a medium well seasoned cream sauce and spoon over toast. Rub the hard-cooked eggs through a sieve as a topping.

Mayors Offer Pledge To Battle Pollution

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mayors of Kent, Stow, Munroe Falls and Silver Lake will join with Cuyahoga Falls in a federation to help battle pollution of the Cuyahoga River.

The mayors pledged support in the pollution battle Thursday night by saying they will form river reclamation commissions.

Boyce Methodist WSCS Will Organize New Circles

Plans to form new circles in May were outlined at the meeting of the WSCS of the Boyce Methodist Church Tuesday night at the Boyce Auditorium.

Mrs. Elmer Ralston, president, conducted business. Mrs. Francis Sadler read the minutes and Mrs. George Poole the financial report.

Mrs. Clara Thorn, chairman, Mrs. Ethel Armstrong, Mrs. Chester Channels, Mrs. Robert Hammond and Mrs. Joseph Hall were named to the nominating committee.

Notes of thanks were read from Frank Shawl Jr., Calvin H. Smith and Roy Morgan, who are in the service. Two members from the World Friendship Girls will be sent to the Mt. Union School of Missions June 24-28.

The Steubenville District meeting is April 26 at Wintersville and the speaker will be B. V. Mitchell, president of the North-East Ohio Conference. There were 72 shut-in and sick calls reported.

Roll call was: Dorothea Memorial, nine; Mary Martha, four, Mary Esther, six, and Naomi Ruth, six. Mrs. Elda Ralston of Ravenna was a guest.

Mrs. Joseph Russell conducted devotions on "The Width of the Cross." She read Scripture from Matt. 27 and Mrs. Harry Jackson offered prayer. The group sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

Mrs. Hammond arranged the worship center. A purple satin cloth covered the table highlighted with an open Bible, cross and arrangements of dogwood and orchid tapers.

Mrs. Stanley Kidder, program chairman, used the topic, "Women's Changing Status." She discussed the article, "The Great Physician Still Is Healing."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. William Golba Jr., Mrs. Channels, Mrs. Lyle Foster and Mrs. Allen Dawson of the Mary Esther Circle. The buffet table was decorated with spring flowers and lighted tapers. Mrs. Poole gave the blessing.

Next meeting is April 24. Mrs. William Bennett and Mrs. Ronald Rearic will have devotions and the program. The Mary Martha Circle is hostess unit.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am only in this country three years so please excuse the way I express myself.

I married my husband on the other side and came here to live. He was a wonderful person then and I thought I would have a good life with him. I left behind parents, family, friends, a fine position and many things dear to me.

Now I have a small child and everything is different. My husband is often drunk and unpleasant to me. I know he has been unfaithful because when he drinks too much he boasts about his successes with other women.

My parents would send me money to return home if they knew what my life was like and how unhappy I am. I hesitate to write to them because my husband loves our child very much and if I leave this country he probably never will see the boy again.

Please give me your advice. I am very upset and unhappy.—FOREIGN WIFE.

Dear Wife: You need the help of a clergyman or a respected third party who can sit down with your husband and explain to him how close he is to losing the most precious thing in his life.

If he does not respond to this approach, go ahead and write to your folks. It may take this drastic measure to get your husband to straighten around and be a man.

Three-Time Loser

Dear Ann: What kind of racket are you running, anyway? How serious does a problem have to be before you will put it in the paper?

I had three serious problems last month. I even signed one "Going To Kill Myself" but you wouldn't print it. You have printed lots of nutty problems in the last three weeks. Most of them were nowhere near as important as mine.

Why do you ask readers for names and addresses? Do you keep their letters on file for some reason? What do you do with the letters people write to you? Why don't you print all the letters so people can get the kind of service you say you are trying to give them?

This letter probably will land in the wastebasket with the others because it's not crazy enough to print.—ON TO YOU.

Dear On: How would you like to read 750 letters and answer in the paper every day? Well, neither would anyone else. And what newspaper could print such a load?

I don't ask people for names and addresses. I do tell them to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if they want a personal reply. All letters are destroyed after they have been read, and answered, if a reply is requested. Why don't you relax?

Cruel Joker

Dear Ann: I am a middle-aged widow who is trying to keep in the swim of things and not lose touch with my friends. I have a pleasant home, adequate finances and I entertain often.

Recently I had a small dinner party. I invited a divorced man who has taken me out a few times. He asked if he could bring his own date. I said yes.

To my embarrassment he brought a brash, loud-mouthed, ungirdled woman who turned out to be his newly hired housekeeper. She got dead drunk and spoiled the party for everyone.

I like the man and suspect that perhaps this was his idea of a gag. I'm no snob, but I don't want to be put in this position again. Should I say something?—E.L.M.

Dear E.L.M.: If your friend brought this woman "as a gag" it was a cruel thing to do to her and it was unfair to you.

By all means say something—like "No" when he asks you out again. And knock him off your guest list, Toots. He sounds flakey to me.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

John Reed King To Be Guest Of Women's Group

John Reed King, associated in Pittsburgh television and radio, will be the guest speaker for the 25th anniversary celebration and Guest Night observance of the East Liverpool Women's Club Tuesday at 8 o'clock at the Country Club.

He will give behind-the-scenes commentary on live and filmed television programs. In national broadcasting for many years, King joined KDKA-TV last August as host of a morning audience participation show, "Man-At-Large," now "The John Reed King Show." He is also a newscaster for KDKA radio.

Many quiz and game shows in radio and TV were inaugurated by King, who also pursued a news and sports career with the special events department of CBS. He directed 60 "Death Valley Day" and 24 "Sky King" TV shows before his association with KDKA.

Miss Sunnie Jennings, women's commentator for KDKA, was to be the speaker but is unable to appear.

Mrs. Robert Beatty, president, will welcome the guests. Mrs. Burton Kerr will give vocal selections. Mrs. Richard C. Mayers of the program committee will introduce the guests.

Mrs. William Cooper, chairman, Mrs. Joseph M. Wells Jr., Mrs. Robert M. Dunlap and Mrs. Harry McHenry comprise the social committee.

Mental Health Group To Receive Citation

The Beaver County Mental Health Society said Dr. Jack Wolford of the Western Psychiatric Institute will be the speaker at the fourth annual volunteer recognition ceremony at Dixmont State Hospital Thursday at 8 p. m. at which the society will receive a citation.

He will talk on "Psychiatry in the Community." The program will include several numbers by the patient-chorus.

The Beaver County society and others will be honored.

New blue and gold state hospital volunteer pins will be awarded to volunteers as well as those who have completed the orientation course and one year's service since January 1961.

Dystrophy Fund Totals $5,824

LISBON — Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin reported today a total of $5,824.29 was collected in the 1961 muscular dystrophy fund drive in November in Columbiana County. Area collections were:

East Liverpool, $2,861.30; Salem, $1,052.18; Columbiana, $649.04; Lisbon, $494; East Palestine, $438; Hanoverton, $165; Negley, $46.05; Rogers and New Waterford areas, $61.72; and Wellsville $57.

Expenses to run the campaign were $33.86, including postage and mailing.

To date the county has five known patients. The chapter has purchased a bed lift for James Posey of East Liverpool, and paid for wheelchair repairs for Margaret Morris.

A county boy was recently admitted to a clinic in Cleveland for a biopsy.

The aim of the chapter is to continue to service the needs of all known patients in the county, Judge Tobin said.

Russell F. Cantanese of Cleveland, District Director, reported the drive totals to Judge Tobin, and thanked him for the county's help.

R. L. Tedford, 64, Industry Figure, Dies

CINCINNATI (AP) — Rollo L. Tedford, who parlayed his hobby of making quartz crystals for old-time radios into a defense industry, died Thursday at Christ Hospital.

Tedford, 64, became interested in radio while serving in the Navy during World War I. After his return he set up an amateur station in his basement and as a hobby made crystals for other amateurs.

In 1941 he left Crosley Broadcasting Co., where he worked as a radio engineer, and set up the Tedford Crystal Laboratories, Inc. in nearby Cheviot.

The firm gave employment to 80 to 120 persons and Tedford moved it to Cincinnati 15 years ago.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Charles A. Miller Funeral Home.

Slides On School Design Screened

Slide pictures of new ideas for school building components were screened by Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect, at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Beatty said more public money is spent on schools and education in the United States than on any other government function except national defense.

He screened slides of sketches of modern school facilities as faculty lounges, integrated telephone areas, drinking fountain niches, administration offices, cafeterias, storage areas, libraries and other ideas.

Also shown were pictures of modern schools in Paris, London and Amsterdam which he visited. About 43 attended the meeting. William Mayers was program chairman.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am only in this country three years so please excuse the way I express myself.

I married my husband on the other side and came here to live. He was a wonderful person then and I thought I would have a good life with him. I left behind parents, family, friends, a fine position and many things dear to me.

Now I have a small child and everything is different. My husband is often drunk and unpleasant to me. I know he has been unfaithful because when he drinks too much he boasts about his successes with other women.

My parents would send me money to return home if they knew what my life was like and how unhappy I am. I hesitate to write to them because my husband loves our child very much and if I leave this country he probably never will see the boy again.

Please give me your advice. I am very upset and unhappy.—FOREIGN WIFE.

Dear Wife: You need the help of a clergyman or a respected third party who can sit down with your husband and explain to him how close he is to losing the most precious thing in his life.

If he does not respond to this approach, go ahead and write to your folks. It may take this drastic measure to get your husband to straighten around and be a man.

Three-Time Loser

Dear Ann: What kind of racket are you running, anyway? How serious does a problem have to be before you will put it in the paper?

I had three serious problems last month. I even signed one "Going To Kill Myself" but you wouldn't print it. You have printed lots of nutty problems in the last three weeks. Most of them were nowhere near as important as mine.

Why do you ask readers for names and addresses? Do you keep their letters on file for some reason? What do you do with the letters people write to you? Why don't you print all the letters so people can get the kind of service you say you are trying to give them?

This letter probably will land in the wastebasket with the others because it's not crazy enough to print.—ON TO YOU.

Dear On: How would you like to read 750 letters and answer in the paper every day? Well, neither would anyone else. And what newspaper could print such a load?

I don't ask people for names and addresses. I do tell them to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if they want a personal reply. All letters are destroyed after they have been read, and answered, if a reply is requested. Why don't you relax?

Cruel Joker

Dear Ann: I am a middle-aged widow who is trying to keep in the swim of things and not lose touch with my friends. I have a pleasant home, adequate finances and I entertain often.

Recently I had a small dinner party. I invited a divorced man who has taken me out a few times. He asked if he could bring his own date. I said yes.

To my embarrassment he brought a brash, loud-mouthed, ungirdled woman who turned out to be his newly hired housekeeper. She got dead drunk and spoiled the party for everyone.

I like the man and suspect that perhaps this was his idea of a gag. I'm no snob, but I don't want to be put in this position again. Should I say something?—E.L.M.

Dear E.L.M.: If your friend brought this woman "as a gag" it was a cruel thing to do to her and it was unfair to you.

By all means say something—like "No" when he asks you out again. And knock him off your guest list, Toots. He sounds flakey to me.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Would Want Husband With Her

Jackie Says Her Journey Fascinating And Valuable

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) -- Mrs. John F. Kennedy says her journey through the storied lands of India and Pakistan was fascinating and valuable—but she'd rather go abroad with her husband next time.

President Kennedy, proud and beaming, welcomed the First Lady home Thursday night from her 16,000-mile, semi-official tour. When the family plane, "Caroline," taxied to a halt at Washington National Airport, Kennedy hurried up the ramp to greet his wife inside.

A few minutes later, the smiling First Lady emerged. An airport crowd of about 200 applauded as Mrs. Kennedy, wearing a black suit, walked down the stairs. The President followed, hat in hand.

As she winged homeward from London aboard a commercial jet airliner, Mrs. Kennedy said the kindness shown her abroad "was because I was the wife of the President — so the people were showing this affection for him and he should have been there to receive it."

The 20-day tour took Mrs. Kennedy to Rome, for an audience with Pope John XXIII; through India, where she viewed the Taj Mahal by day and moonlight and cruised the Ganges River to the holy Hindu city of Banares; to Pakistan, where she saw the fabled Khyber Pass and was given a thoroughbred horse named Sardar; and London, where she had lunch with Queen Elizabeth.

It was, Mrs. Kennedy said, "The most fascinating experience imaginable." But she said it didn't seem natural to make such a trip without the President. And she added she belongs at home with her family.

Smiling broadly, the President and his lady drove back to the White House for Mrs. Kennedy's reunion with the children, 4-year-old Caroline and John Jr., 16 months.

Mrs. Kennedy made her homecoming statement aboard the flight from London to New York, where the Caroline was waiting to take her to Washington. A reporter asked: "Would you like to make a trip like this again?" And Mrs. Kennedy gave a written reply.

"I would not have missed one second of it," she said. "However, it feels unnatural for me to go on such a long semiofficial trip without my husband. I have missed my family and have no desire to be a public personality on my own."

Mrs. Kennedy, who made the tour with her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, said, "We will never forget all the people who were so kind to us, but our husbands were the kindest of all for letting us go."

Court

might name a Negro to the Supreme Court for the first time, but others felt he would wait until later before taking this historic step.

In case he decides to take it now, a name prominently mentioned is William Henry Hastie, 57, former governor of the Virgin Islands and since 1947 judge of the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, with headquarters at Philadelphia.

As for Ribicoff, he is reported to have told friends he does not expect to get a Supreme Court appointment at this time. Anyway, he is an all but declared candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination from Connecticut, and might find it difficult to change pace now.

Goldberg has so impressed Kennedy with his work on labor-management disputes, and otherwise, that the President might want to keep him in the Cabinet.

The capital is watching to see how the forthcoming appointment affects the so-called conservative-liberal division of the Supreme Court. Individual members at times shift from one bloc to another. But so far as any such division can be figured out in loose designations, Whittaker tended to vote with the more conservative bloc—often composed also of Justices Frankfurter, Tom C. Clark, John M. Harlan and Potter Stewart.

Generally identified in most cases with the more liberal bloc are four of the nine justices—Chief Justice Earl Warren, William O. Douglas, Hugo L. Black and William J. Brennan Jr.

The gram is the unit of weight in the metric system.

JEWELL BOWMAN
Beaver Local Senior Winner.

Jewell Bowman Second Recipient Of Scholarships

Miss Jewell Bowman, Beaver Local High School senior, has been awarded the second annual Beaver Local Y-Teen Adult Group's $200 scholarship, it was announced at a meeting of the group Wednesday.

Miss Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowman of Route 7 near Brookside, will enroll next fall as a student in the Presbyterian-University Hospital School of Nursing at Pittsburgh. The scholarship is presented to the outstanding member of the Y-Teens.

She is currently worship chairman of the Y-Teens, to which she has belonged for four years.

Grand Jury

Both pleaded guilty at arraignment here.

Ronald Clark, 19, of 441 1st Ave., accused of the Oct. 25 theft of a 1951 four-door sedan from the used car lot of M. & A. Motors on Pennsylvania Ave. He was arrested Jan. 19. Police said he went to Detroit after the alleged theft. He pleaded not guilty at arraignment.

Carl Wayne Rockwood, 18, of 215 Thompson Ave., charged with the Dec. 27 theft of a car owned by Hugh M. Thorne of Thompson Ave. and a burglary in March 1961 at Alex's Carry-Out Store on Jackson St., in which cash, beer, wine and cookies were stolen. He entered not guilty pleas to both charges at arraignment Feb. 1 in Municipal Court. A 17-year-old was referred to Juvenile Court in the same auto theft case.

Calvin Edward Cramer, 20, of 876 Baxter St., and Jack Andrew Davis, 32, of 470 Francis St., both accused of a burglary Feb. 26 at the DAV Hall at West Point. They are accused of taking an undetermined amount of money and six bottles of whisky. County Judge Herbert Arfman of East Palestine held them to the Grand Jury after they were arrested by the sheriff's office.

Other charges due presentment to the jury are:

John D. Carter, 34, of 529 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, accused of attempting to extort money in January from Donald Brewer, also of Wellsville. Chief John Hephner of Wellsville alleged Carter attempted to obtain money on a threat he would implicate Brewer falsely in a theft of sewer pipe from the Peerless Clay Co. at Empire.

John M. Bagley, 19, and Charles Holanchick, 19, both of Salem, accused of robbing Darrell Rowlands in Salem early the morning of March 5.

Donald Hooper, 32, of Box 18, Hammondsville, accused of nonsupport of minor children.

Ward L. Greasel of Lisbon, charged with assault and battery on Frank Chestnut last Oct. 1.

The prosecutor said he may present several more cases before the Grand Jury's session is completed. One other possible presentment is the case of Peter Mamuzich, 49 Midland Ave., Midland, held to the Grand Jury Wednesday on a charge he fled the City Jail here March 23 while being held as a parole violator.

The April court term will open officially at noon Monday with a dinner meeting of the Columbiana County Bar Association at the First Presbyterian Church in Lisbon, followed by a business session at the Courthouse.

The bar association is expected to elect a new president to succeed Atty. Jason H. Brookes of East Liverpool, who died suddenly of a heart attack a few weeks ago.

The 15-member panel will be chosen Tuesday morning from a venire of 50 which has instructions to report. The Grand Jury will be sworn in by Judge Joel H. Sharp, who will conduct criminal trials at the April term.

The panel's first official duty will be to inspect the County Jail, probably in the forenoon. The jury will return after lunch to begin hearing witnesses.

Brokaw said the Grand Jury session should conclude by Thursday afternoon or Friday at the latest.

The average American family numbers 3.68 persons.

The April court term will open officially at noon Monday with a dinner meeting of the Columbiana County Bar Association at the First Presbyterian Church in Lisbon, followed by a business session at the Courthouse.

The bar association is expected to elect a new president to succeed Atty. Jason H. Brookes of East Liverpool, who died suddenly of a heart attack a few weeks ago.

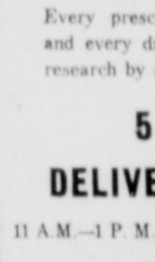

The 15-member panel will be chosen Tuesday morning from a venire of 50 which has instructions to report. The Grand Jury will be sworn in by Judge Joel H. Sharp, who will conduct criminal trials at the April term.

The panel's first official duty will be to inspect the County Jail, probably in the forenoon. The jury will return after lunch to begin hearing witnesses.

Brokaw said the Grand Jury session should conclude by Thursday afternoon or Friday at the latest.

The average American family numbers 3.88 persons.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Kismet, Kismet All The Way

In a play called "Sheepey," W. Somerset Maugham recounted that old wheezer about the fellow in Bagdad who rubbed elbows with Death in the market place. Startled — and who can blame him?—he took to his horse, headed for Samarra and safety.

Alan Gill

The clincher, you remember, had death saying: "I was astonished to see him in Bagdad, for I had an appointment with him tonight in Samarra."

Man's efforts to duck out of that appointment in Samarra have engaged the imaginations of writers since the Book of Genesis, on through Euripides to Mr. Maugham, John O'Hara and Oliver Teryz.

IN THE TELEVISION world last week, we saw the very same Mr. Treyz, former president of ABC-TV, keep his rendezvous with destiny. The soothsayers had been saying all along that it was written in Oliver Treyz's stars that he would be thrown to the wolves; and last week, sure enough, he was.

Last week, too, there was the "Golden Showcase" presentation of Jacques Deval's drama, "Tonight in Samarkand," which was kismet, kismet all the way.

The tale this time was wrapped up in circus garb and portentous language. Death showed up, not in the market place, but in the crystal ball of Sourab the magician. Destiny was to do away with its tots by crowding them all aboard the S. S. Hollandia and sending them down with the ship.

KNOWING ALL THIS, the tots —Monsieur Sourab, his lion-taming pussycat of a girl friend, Nerician, and the indomitable Inspector Massoubre of the Surete—did their very darndest to miss the sailing of the Hollandia on March 24, the fatal day.

As March 24 came and went, their spirits rose. But kismet closed in a few days later and away went Sourab, Nericia, the Inspector, and that sumbol of doom, the Bishop of St. Lo, to certain death.

Death herself, in black cape, entered the picture to administer the final irony. Sure, she said, today may be April 6 according to the Western calendar, but by the Greek calendar it's March 24, so there!

Death, presumably, speaks like George Givot, feeds on shish kebab, and whistles "Never on Sunday."

JAMES MASON played the role of Sourab with a towel wrapped around his head. And despite the moustache, I couldn't help thinking—all the way through—of a dowdy matron drying her hair.

The poor fellow, who generally can make florid dialogue sound like the real thing, couldn't hack his way through this lush vegetation. But his cohorts—Janice Rule, Martin Gabel, Betsy von Furstenberg—had it even tougher.

"Magician, beware," one of them had to say. "He is about to be devious."

And: "Magician, you're a fool. One way or another, I get what I want."

"What is written," said Mr. Gabel, regretting it, "is written. There are those who doubt fate, disdain it. Each in his own way journeys to Samarkand."

I asked the sensible, charitable, pretty girl who watched the show with me what she thought of it.

"Well," she said, "I thought it would be way out, but it wasn't. It was way back."

-:-

TURNING to the demise of Oliver Treyz, I have but two observations to make:

1. If Mr. Treyz was not exactly the John the Baptist of the boom-boom and bloodletting school of American television, at least he was closely associated with its all-out assault upon the ABC network, and it's a good thing he's going.

2. That episode on "Bus Stop" which is recalled so often in Mr. Treyz's presence did not represent the nadir of TV taste. Heck, there's been worse. Secretly, I rather admire Mr. Treyz for going along with it in the face of so much opposition and I wish everybody would stop talking about it.

I suggest that the next person to utter the words "Fabian" or "Bus Stop" get a pie in the face.

Commissioners Cited In $525,000 Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suit for $525,000 has been filed in U. S. District Court against three Tuscarawas County commissioners, a home owner, a truck driver and two trucking firms.

The suit stemmed from an accident at the intersection of Ohio 37 and U.S. 36 in Tuscarawas County Sept. 8, 1961. Thomas J. Lyons Jr., 44, of Pittsburgh and his wife, Delores, 41, died of skull fractures and burns from hot asphalt after colliding with an asphalt truck.

Administrators for the Lyons' estate filed the suit Thursday against Ernest E. Ross, a property owner whose trees allegedly hid a stop sign; commissioners Jacob Demmermuth, Joseph Cappell and Delmar Baer for permitting construction without posting warning signs; driver Peter P. Pangrazio of Dennison, and Edgar Sping, Inc., New Philadelphia, and C. F. Reploglex Co., Inc., of Circleville, trucking firms.

The long, thin cigars known as "stogies" got their name because they were designed for the needs of the Conestoga, Pa., wagon drivers who wanted a large, inexpensive cigar.

Alabama Due To Vote May 1 On Vital Issue

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Alabama, facing continued federal intervention, votes May 1 on a constitutional amendment with a far-reaching effect on voter registration procedure.

It was submitted to the voters by the legislature in the wake of Justice Department suits charging discrimination against prospective Negro voters in three counties, and indications of court action elsewhere.

The proposed amendment would create a state board with sold authority to write the questionnaires which applicants must answer before they can get on the voting list. The board would grade the papers, with no racial identification.

The present questionnaire, unchanged in a decade except for the order of the questions, was prepared by the State Supreme Court. Voter registration boards in the counties check the answers and determine whether the applicant is qualified to vote.

Curiously, the threat of further court action is being used as an argument both for and against ratification of the amendment.

Sponsors contend the change in the state's organic law is necessary to give the county boards more uniform and higher standards and a choice of questionnaires to keep prospective voters from memorizing them, and to protect registrars from damage suits.

If the state board grades the questionnaires with no knowledge of race, they reason, there can be no question of discrimination; consequently, county boards would be less liable for personal damage.

Opponents say they are fearful that the amendment would give the federal courts a legal foot-in-the-door to put all 67 county registration boards in Alabama under injunction at one time. They base that contention on the fact that county boards would depend on the new state agency for their questionnaires.

Comedian Jack Paar, 43, Bows Out As MC Of Show

NEW YORK (AP)— Jack Paar has abdicated the "Tonight" show —a nocturnal television kingdom over which he reigned for almost five years.

Paar bowed out Thursday night as master of ceremonies of the National Broadcasting Co. late night show in a 90-minute appearance that brought tears to his eyes three times.

Both Kennedy and Nixon had appeared on earlier Paar shows.

Paar said he was leaving the show because the pressure of putting together the one hour and 45-minute program nightly was wearing him down.

He is scheduled to appear in a weekly, one-hour, early evening series on the same network starting in the fall.

The final show, almost like a capsule of all his shows over the years, contained ample doses of humor, and an attack on two newspaper columnists and a national magazine.

Sandwiched in between were runs of taped interviews of a score of personalities bidding him farewell.

It was to the news media controversies and hassles with even Congress that many attribute Paar's phenomenal rise from a little-known entertainer to a reported $200,000-a-year star.

Paar, who had failures and moderate successes in other radio and television shows, took over the faltering "Tonight" program in July 1957. He built the show to what some reports said was an annual advertising gross income of $15.5 million.

Two years ago Paar left the show in a huff because some of the material had been deleted from his taped show before it was presented on the network.

He returned a few weeks later, and began dropping hints that he was planning to quit.

Johnny Carson, who now runs a daytime show for the American Broadcasting Co., has been assigned to take Paar's place starting Oct. 8.

Agreement Reached On 2-Year Contract

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Agreement has been reached on a two-year contract between the Bricklayers Union and the Buckeye Contractors Association, covering an eight-county area of Northern Ohio.

A small wage increase is included in the contract, but no details of the agreement were disclosed. General contractors covered by the contract include all in Sandusky, Erie, Huron, Ottawa, Hancock and Seneca counties and parts of Wood and Wyandot counties.

DiSalle Raps Control Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle sharply criticized the State Controlling Board for the way it trimmed a Department of Education request for funds to purchase educational films.

DiSalle called the action a "dangerous misuse of power and authority" and said the board had set itself up as a censor for films.

The department asked $9,300, much of it for replacing worn out films. The Controlling Board cut the grant to $7,810.

DiSalle told newsmen Thursday:

"I am not questioning the board's right to reduce or deny the request, but it took the list and carefully pencilled out certain films. That puts the board in the position of determining what children may have in the way of education and what may be excluded. This is a function of the state and local boards of education.

"This is censorship and an assumed function dangerous to education in Ohio. I hope it was only a misjudgement in that they (the board members) did not realize the seriousness of their action.

"This is absolutely an invasion of responsibility of an autonomous branch of government. The controlling board is just carrying control too far."

DiSalle said the only vote against the cut was cast by his representative on the board, John Stanley. Other members are Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Senate Finance Chairman William H. Deddens of Cincinnati and House Finance Chairman Ralph Fisher of Wooster.

Motion Overruled, Man Gets Life Term

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A motion for a new trial was overruled Thursday and advertisig executive John H. Nylan, 52, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of his wife. Nylan was convicted March 14 in the Dec. 19 shooting of his wife, Susan.

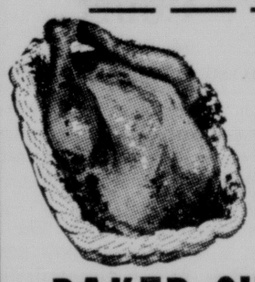

He is to be taken to the state reformatory near Lagrange and will be eligible for parole in eight years. However, defense attorneys said the conviction will be taken to a court of appeals.

TURNING to the demise of Oliver Treyz, I have but two observations to make:

1. If Mr. Treyz was not exactly the John the Baptist of the boom-boom and bloodletting school of American television, at least he was closely associated with its all-out assault upon the ABC network, and it's a good thing he's going.

2. That episode on "Bus Stop" which is recalled so often in Mr. Treyz's presence did not represent the nadir of TV taste. Heck, there's been worse. Secretly, I rather admire Mr. Treyz for going along with it in the face of so much opposition and I wish everybody would stop talking about it.

I suggest that the next person to utter the words "Fabian" or "Bus Stop" get a pie in the face.

Commissioners Cited In $525,000 Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—A suit for $525,000 has been filed in U. S. District Court against three Tuscarawas County commissioners, a home owner, a truck driver and two trucking firms.

The suit stemmed from an accident at the intersection of Ohio 37 and U.S. 36 in Tuscarawas County Sept. 8, 1961. Thomas J. Lyons Jr., 44, of Pittsburgh and his wife, Delores, 41, died of skull fractures and burns from hot asphalt after colliding with an asphalt truck.

Administrators for the Lyons' estate filed the suit Thursday against Ernest E. Ross, a property owner whose trees allegedly hid a stop sign; commissioners Jacob Demmermuth, Joseph Cappell and Delmar Baer for permitting construction without posting warning signs; driver Peter P. Pangrazio of Dennison, and Edgar Sping, Inc., New Philadelphia, and C. F. Reploglex Co., Inc., of Circleville, trucking firms.

The long, thin cigars known as "stogies" got their name because they were designed for the needs of the Conestoga, Pa., wagon drivers who wanted a large, inexpensive cigar.

Alabama Due To Vote May 1 On Vital Issue

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Alabama, facing continued federal intervention, votes May 1 on a constitutional amendment with a far-reaching effect on voter registration procedure.

It was submitted to the voters by the legislature in the wake of Justice Department suits charging discrimination against prospective Negro voters in three counties, and indications of court action elsewhere.

The proposed amendment would create a state board with sold authority to write the questionnaires which applicants must answer before they can get on the voting list. The board would grade the papers, with no racial identification.

The present questionnaire, unchanged in a decade except for the order of the questions, was prepared by the State Supreme Court. Voter registration boards in the counties check the answers and determine whether the applicant is qualified to vote.

Curiously, the threat of further court action is being used as an argument both for and against ratification of the amendment.

Sponsors contend the change in the state's organic law is necessary to give the county boards more uniform and higher standards and a choice of questionnaires to keep prospective voters from memorizing them, and to protect registrars from damage suits.

If the state board grades the questionnaires with no knowledge of race, they reason, there can be no question of discrimination; consequently, county boards would be less liable for personal damage.

Opponents say they are fearful that the amendment would give the federal courts a legal foot-in-the-door to put all 67 county registration boards in Alabama under injunction at one time. They base that contention on the fact that county boards would depend on the new state agency for their questionnaires.

Comedian Jack Paar, 43, Bows Out As MC Of Show

NEW YORK (AP)— Jack Paar has abdicated the "Tonight" show —a nocturnal television kingdom over which he reigned for almost five years.

Paar bowed out Thursday night as master of ceremonies of the National Broadcasting Co. late night show in a 90-minute appearance that brought tears to his eyes three times.

The comedian, 43, left the show with words of praise from Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, luminaries of the entertainment world.

Both Kennedy and Nixon had appeared on earlier Paar shows.

Paar said he was leaving the show because the pressure of putting together the one hour and 45-minute program nightly was wearing him down.

He is scheduled to appear in a weekly, one-hour, early evening series on the same network starting in the fall.

The final show, almost like a capsule of all his shows over the years, contained ample doses of humor, and an attack on two newspaper columnists and a national magazine.

Sandwiched in between were runs of taped interviews of a score of personalities bidding him farewell.

It was to the news media controversies and hassles with even Congress that many attribute Paar's phenomenal rise from a little-known entertainer to a reported $200,000-a-year star.

Paar, who had failures and moderate successes in other radio and television shows, took over the faltering "Tonight" program in July 1957. He built the show to what some reports said was an annual advertising gross income of $15.5 million.

Two years ago Paar left the show in a huff because some of the material had been deleted from his taped show before it was presented on the network.

He returned a few weeks later, and began dropping hints that he was planning to quit.

Johnny Carson, who now runs a daytime show for the American Broadcasting Co., has been assigned to take Paar's place starting Oct. 8.

DiSalle Raps Control Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle sharply criticized the State Controlling Board for the way it trimmed a Department of Education request for funds to purchase educational films.

DiSalle called the action a "dangerous misuse of power and authority" and said the board had set itself up as a censor for films.

The department asked $9,300, much of it for replacing worn out films. The Controlling Board cut the grant to $7,810.

DiSalle told newsmen Thursday:

"I am not questioning the board's right to reduce or deny the request, but it took the list and carefully pencilled out certain films. That puts the board in the position of determining what children may have in the way of education and what may be excluded. This is a function of the state and local boards of education.

"This is censorship and an assumed function dangerous to education in Ohio. I hope it was only a misjudgement in that they (the board members) did not realize the seriousness of their action.

"This is absolutely an invasion of responsibility of an autonomous branch of government. The controlling board is just carrying control too far."

DiSalle said the only vote against the cut was cast by his representative on the board, John Stanley. Other members are Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Senate Finance Chairman William H. Deddens of Cincinnati and House Finance Chairman Ralph Fisher of Wooster.

Agreement Reached On 2-Year Contract

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Agreement has been reached on a two-year contract between the Bricklayers Union and the Buckeye Contractors Association, covering an eight-county area of Northern Ohio.

A small wage increase is included in the contract, but no details of the agreement were disclosed. General contractors covered by the contract include all in Sandusky, Erie, Huron, Ottawa, Hancock and Seneca counties and parts of Wood and Wyandot counties.

Motion Overruled, Man Gets Life Term

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A motion for a new trial was overruled Thursday and advertisig executive John H. Nylan, 52, was sentenced to life in prison for the murder of his wife. Nylan was convicted March 14 in the Dec. 19 shooting of his wife, Susan.

He is to be taken to the state reformatory near Lagrange and will be eligible for parole in eight years. However, defense attorneys said the conviction will be taken to a court of appeals.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Teen-Ager Dusts Off A Dream

Overweight teens and pre-teens! How do you feel about a right good challenge? A 16-year-old has suddenly decided that if an 8-year-old can change her food habits and banish the bulges, then a sixteener certainly should stop being a banana split personality. It's quiet a letter this young lady has written to declare her intentions.

Ida Jean Kain

"I just finished reading your letter from the 8-year-old calorie-counting sweetheart. I feel about two inches high. Perhaps my story will explain.

"I am 16 years old and have always had a problem with my weight. It seemed like I was always dieting and never losing. So, to satisfy my failing ego, I simply gave up, told myself I didn't care, and tried to live around my growing bulges.

"AFTER READING that challenging letter I've realized that you can't push a problem aside and pretend it doesn't exist. My health has been steadily growing worse — I think my 50 excess pounds are to blame.

"Yes, thanks to a child half my age, I've faced my problem and with time and sincere effort I hope to eliminate this 'food hangover'. I'd appreciate it very much if you could send me a copy of your 'Teen-age Challenge' and 'Calorie Chart' . . and wish me luck."

To get on the happy road to healthy weight, check in with your family doctor. A clean bill of health will give you peace of mind.

Underneath that 50-pound padding you have a honey of a figure. And you're just the girl to dig for that buried treasure. This time you will succeed. Why? Because you want to.

You realize now that over-eating will never make up for what you are missing in fun and dates. This can be the challenge that changes your life from one of frustration to one of triumph. You are willing to take the responsibility for what you eat, so you are in the driver's seat.

About the diet: It isn't really a diet — it is right eating. Honey, all you need to do is to stop stuffing! After years of catering to false appetite, you'll feel hungry at first. But you can lick this in a couple of weeks. And after that, dieting gets easier.

KEEP YOUR goal in mind and you won't lack for will power. Imagination is a strong ally of the will. Vividly imagine how much fun it will be to live without bulges. Get excited!

Each night as you slip into dreamland, tell yourself that tomorrow will be another wonderful day in which you will aim happily toward that dream figure.

Send a stamped, self-addressed long, envelope for "Teen - Age Challenge" and "Slim Hips In A Hurry. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Parents Can Help Child Write Neatly

If you saw a collection of regularly written papers by children from fourth to sixth grade of almost any school, among them would be some papers untidy and not very legible. Usually the girls' papers would be neater than the boys'. If you found among these papers one by your son, you might be discouraged at its untidiness. Already his teacher may have written or talked to you of his poor handwriting. You may wish he had learned at school to write better. Yet you can do something about it at home. Induce this child to write a few words on lined paper under a good model-line of script. Urge him to write slowly and carefully. Make this a daily practice.

Dr. Garry Meyers

WHEN HE MUST prepare at home written work for school, emphasize neatness. It might help if you marked off with faint pencil lines the margin limits.

If he is doing number work you might mark off for him, with faint, pencilled lines, the blocks in which he could write the numbers. Show him how to write the numbers so as to be in line up and down.

If he writes some of the nine digits poorly, guide him at practice in making them better.

As I recall my grade school experience, any page of number work of mine always looked untidy until one day a teacher whom I admired paused to show me how to write numbers more neatly.

Let us hope your child does not have any written assignments too great for him to be able to do neatly. If, after he has prepared his written work for school, reasonable time is available, persuade, even require, him to do it again more neatly, if it is untidy and illegible.

—:—

WITH CONSTANT vigilance and your patient guidance, you might thus help your child to improve greatly in neatness and legibility.

The main problem is to induce him to write slowly and carefully. He'll incline to hurry.

You might be able to prevail on your child to put a sample of his returned written work between the leaves of an old magazine, dating each sample.

If he so filed a sample once a week, he could see, on later inspection, how much he had improved in neatness and legibility. I have seen some teachers interest children in doing this and with good effect.

Some children very poor at handwriting are high-strung and excitable, called "nervous" by their parents. They may improve if calmed down. A medical check may be desirable.

My bulletins, "Your Child and His Handwriting" and "The Nervous Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Midland Issues Tax Statements Due By Monday

Midland borough tax statements are being mailed and property owners should receive them by Monday when the tax office reopens until Nov. 1, Rudolph Presutti, tax collector, said.

The tax duplicate this year amounts to $243,611.96 and is based on 13 mills.

Those who pay taxes during April and May will receive a 2 per cent discount, Presutti said. Taxes collected during June and July will be at face value. Beginning Aug. 1, 5 per cent penalty will be added, he said.

School district taxes will not be collected until after July 1 since that tax duplicate and budget are adopted after those of the borough.

Payments may be made at the tax office at 744 Midland Ave. until Nov. 1. Daily hours will be 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Taxes may also be paid at Presutti's home at 565 Virginia Ave. or residents may call him and he will pick up payment.

Uniform Inspection Held For Scout Troop

Boy Scout Troop 34 of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church met Tuesday for a preliminary uniform inspection by Lester Hissom, scoutmaster.

Plans were discussed for a one-day outing Saturday in the Pancake area.

Next meeting will be Tuesday when members will go to Thompson Park for instruction on camp cooking.

On April 10 there will be an inspection for charter review by scout officials, and a flag will be presented during ceremonies by American Legion Post 374.

Bartender Arrested For Unlawful Flight

BALTIMORE (AP) — A bartender from St. Clairsville, Ohio, has been arrested by the FBI and charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in his home state on a burglary count.

Edward J. Powers, special agent in charge of the FBI's Baltimore office, said the defendant, Nick Koprivich, was working as a bar tender in a downtown Baltimore hotel when apprehended Thursday.

Koprivich, who had lived here since June of last year, has been placed in the custody of the U.S. marshal pending arrival of a warrant from Ohio.

An arraignment hearing has not been scheduled.

Ohio National Guard Unit To Hear Colonel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lt. Col. William E. Mayer, Army psychiatrist who recently told a Senate Preparedness Subcommittee that U.S. servicemen are not as good as they were a few years ago, is to address the Ohio National Guard Association here Saturday.

About 600 officers and their wives are expected at the association's annual conference which opens tonight.

Convicted Of Murder

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sykes Chaney, 32, convicted Wednesday of second - degree murder, will have to wait until Monday to be sentenced. Common Pleas Court Judge Ralph B. Teen-Ager Dusts Off A Dream

Overweight teens and pre-teens! How do you feel about a right good challenge? A 16-year-old has suddenly decided that if an 8-year-old can change her food habits and banish the bulges, then a sixteener certainly should stop being a banana split personality. It's quiet a letter this young lady has written to declare her intentions.

Ida Jean Kain

"I just finished reading your letter from the 8-year-old calorie-counting sweetheart. I feel about two inches high. Perhaps my story will explain.

"I am 16 years old and have always had a problem with my weight. It seemed like I was always dieting and never losing. So, to satisfy my failing ego, I simply gave up, told myself I didn't care, and tried to live around my growing bulges.

"AFTER READING that challenging letter I've realized that you can't push a problem aside and pretend it doesn't exist. My health has been steadily growing worse — I think my 50 excess pounds are to blame.

"Yes, thanks to a child half my age, I've faced my problem and with time and sincere effort I hope to eliminate this 'food hangover'. I'd appreciate it very much if you could send me a copy of your 'Teen-age Challenge' and 'Calorie Chart' . . and wish me luck."

To get on the happy road to healthy weight, check in with your family doctor. A clean bill of health will give you peace of mind.

Underneath that 50-pound padding you have a honey of a figure. And you're just the girl to dig for that buried treasure. This time you will succeed. Why? Because you want to.

You realize now that over-eating will never make up for what you are missing in fun and dates. This can be the challenge that changes your life from one of frustration to one of triumph. You are willing to take the responsibility for what you eat, so you are in the driver's seat.

About the diet: It isn't really a diet — it is right eating. Honey, all you need to do is to stop stuffing! After years of catering to false appetite, you'll feel hungry at first. But you can lick this in a couple of weeks. And after that, dieting gets easier.

KEEP YOUR goal in mind and you won't lack for will power. Imagination is a strong ally of the will. Vividly imagine how much fun it will be to live without bulges. Get excited!

Each night as you slip into dreamland, tell yourself that tomorrow will be another wonderful day in which you will aim happily toward that dream figure.

Send a stamped, self-addressed long, envelope for "Teen - Age Challenge" and "Slim Hips In A Hurry. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Midland Issues Tax Statements Due By Monday

Midland borough tax statements are being mailed and property owners should receive them by Monday when the tax office reopens until Nov. 1, Rudolph Presutti, tax collector, said.

The tax duplicate this year amounts to $243,611.96 and is based on 13 mills.

Those who pay taxes during April and May will receive a 2 per cent discount, Presutti said. Taxes collected during June and July will be at face value. Beginning Aug. 1, 5 per cent penalty will be added, he said.

School district taxes will not be collected until after July 1 since that tax duplicate and budget are adopted after those of the borough.

Payments may be made at the tax office at 744 Midland Ave. until Nov. 1. Daily hours will be 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Taxes may also be paid at Presutti's home at 565 Virginia Ave. or residents may call him and he will pick up payment.

Uniform Inspection Held For Scout Troop

Boy Scout Troop 34 of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church met Tuesday for a preliminary uniform inspection by Lester Hissom, scoutmaster.

Plans were discussed for a one-day outing Saturday in the Pancake area.

Next meeting will be Tuesday when members will go to Thompson Park for instruction on camp cooking.

On April 10 there will be an inspection for charter review by scout officials, and a flag will be presented during ceremonies by American Legion Post 374.

Bartender Arrested For Unlawful Flight

BALTIMORE (AP) — A bartender from St. Clairsville, Ohio, has been arrested by the FBI and charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in his home state on a burglary count.

Edward J. Powers, special agent in charge of the FBI's Baltimore office, said the defendant, Nick Koprivich, was working as a bar tender in a downtown Baltimore hotel when apprehended Thursday.

Koprivich, who had lived here since June of last year, has been placed in the custody of the U.S. marshal pending arrival of a warrant from Ohio.

An arraignment hearing has not been scheduled.

Ohio National Guard Unit To Hear Colonel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lt. Col. William E. Mayer, Army psychiatrist who recently told a Senate Preparedness Subcommittee that U.S. servicemen are not as good as they were a few years ago, is to address the Ohio National Guard Association here Saturday.

About 600 officers and their wives are expected at the association's annual conference which opens tonight.

Convicted Of Murder

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sykes Chaney, 32, convicted Wednesday of second - degree murder, will have to wait until Monday to be sentenced. Common Pleas Court Judge Ralph B. Kohnen granted the delay Thursday after Chaney's attorney said he had uncovered new evidence in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Isabelle M. Terry, 38, Nov. 10.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Parents Can Help Child Write Neatly

If you saw a collection of regularly written papers by children from fourth to sixth grade of almost any school, among them would be some papers untidy and not very legible. Usually the girls' papers would be neater than the boys'. If you found among these papers one by your son, you might be discouraged at its untidiness. Already his teacher may have written or talked to you of his poor handwriting. You may wish he had learned at school to write better. Yet you can do something about it at home. Induce this child to write a few words on lined paper under a good model-line of script. Urge him to write slowly and carefully. Make this a daily practice.

WHEN HE MUST prepare at home written work for school, emphasize neatness. It might help if you marked off with faint pencil lines the margin limits.

If he is doing number work you might mark off for him, with faint, pencilled lines, the blocks in which he could write the numbers. Show him how to write the numbers so as to be in line up and down.

If he writes some of the nine digits poorly, guide him at practice in making them better.

As I recall my grade school experience, any page of number work of mine always looked untidy until one day a teacher whom I admired paused to show me how to write numbers more neatly.

Let us hope your child does not have any written assignments too great for him to be able to do neatly. If, after he has prepared his written work for school, reasonable time is available, persuade, even require, him to do it again more neatly, if it is untidy and illegible.

—:—

WITH CONSTANT vigilance and your patient guidance, you might thus help your child to improve greatly in neatness and legibility.

The main problem is to induce him to write slowly and carefully. He'll incline to hurry.

You might be able to prevail on your child to put a sample of his returned written work between the leaves of an old magazine, dating each sample.

If he so filed a sample once a week, he could see, on later inspection, how much he had improved in neatness and legibility. I have seen some teachers interest children in doing this and with good effect.

Some children very poor at handwriting are high-strung and excitable, called "nervous" by their parents. They may improve if calmed down. A medical check may be desirable.

My bulletins, "Your Child and His Handwriting" and "The Nervous Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

The Sports Bench

By BOB DUFFY
Sports Editor

Dodgers Look Tough In NL . . .

It's that time of year when a young man's fancy turns to baseball.

To refresh your memory, we picked the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Baltimore Orioles to win pennants in their respective leagues last year. How far wrong can one be?

We're not letting sentiment run away with our feelings this season. As long as Pittsburgh is pinning its pennant hopes on Vernon Law, we can't go along with the Pirates this time.

They haven't made many changes in three years and Law still stands as a big question mark. We feel Joe Gibbon will be the big winner at Pittsburgh in 1962, although he has taken his lumps some in spring training games.

We don't look for Pittsburgh to finish any higher than fifth this year.

Our choice in the National League is the Los Angeles Dodgers. It's hard to understand why they didn't win it last year.

As for the Pirates, Dick Groat has slowed down at shortstop, where he experienced his worst season in 1961. The heavy load of the infield chores rests on Bill Mazeroski. "Billy The Kid" will operate between Groat, who has lost a step or two at shortstop, and Dick Stuart at first base, who can't go very far to his right to stop ground balls.

So Mazeroski has to cover the ground of two men going to his left and right in a hurry. Maybe this is why Mazeroski had such a bad season in 1961, the load might have been too heavy.

Our suggestion here is to give Ducky Schofield some starting work at shortstop.

In the outfield, we feel that Bob Skinner should have been traded long ago.

Maybe Donn Clendennon can help the outfield situation. He's starting off on the right foot.

Stick With The Yankees . . .

IN THE American League, someone always reminds us that "you're crazy if you don't pick the Yankees." So we are picking the Yankees this year, but expect the Detroit Tigers to be right on their necks.

The Cleveland Indians should show some marked improvement if they can get their pitchers out of the Army in time to be of help. General Manager Gabe Paul built a winner at Cincinnati before he left and he'll be working to do the same thing at Cleveland.

Following are our selections for the 1962 season:

	NATIONAL LEAGUE	AMERICAN LEAGUE
1.	Los Angeles	New York
2.	San Francisco	Detroit
3.	Milwaukee	Cleveland
4.	Cincinnati	Baltimore
5.	Pittsburgh	Minnesota
6.	St. Louis	Chicago
7.	New York	Washington
8.	Chicago	Boston
9.	Houston	Los Angeles
10.	Philadelphia	Kansas City

Allen Collects 3 Doubles . . .

ROOKIE Bernie Allen continued his pursuit of the second base job with the Minnesota Twins when he slammed three doubles in Minnesota's 7-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers Thursday at Lakeland, Fla.

Allen hit his third double in the ninth inning and scored the run which broke a 4-4 tie as the Twins went on to score three markers in the last inning.

Bernie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thurm Allen, and his brother, Thurman, have been in Florida this week watching the exhibition games of the Twins.

Ageless Archie To Meet Argentine Boxer Tonight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Argentina's Alejandro Lavorante, who may be on his way to the top, and Archie Moore, who has already been there, meet in a 10-round heavyweight battle tonight.

More than 12,000 fans are expected to attend the non-televised match and contribute to a gate of around $100,000.

There are no immediate title aspects to the engagement, although a championship scrap might develop from it. But it is an intriguing attraction.

Here is old Archie, from San Diego, who is at least 45 and very likely closer to 50, waging war in the ring for the 216th time.

He insists he wants to put away the young Latin giant, who is ranked fourth in the heavyweight division, and make a new bid himself in this class.

Moore's other, and obviously more realistic, plan is to get by Lavorante and then defend what is left of his world light heavyweight championship in a match with NBA middleweight titleholder Gene Fullmer.

Lavorante, 25, who is 6-feet-4—five inches taller than Archie—feels he will gain international stature if he whips California's ancient mongoose.

Lavorante, who figures to have about a 15-pound advantage, has had but 22 matches. He's won 19 and 15 of them were by knockouts.

Moore gets a guarantee of $35,000 from the co-promoters, Cal Eaton and George Parnassus, while Alex gets 25 per cent of the net.

Major Bout Set Tonight In AAU Event At Cincy

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP) — The luck of the draw and a skimpy heavyweight entry list have set up a major bout for tonight in the 1962 national AAU boxing tournament, a full 24 hours before the finals.

It will pit 6-foot-7 Jim Beattie of St. Paul against Wyce Westbrook of Cincinnati.

The 19-year-old Beattie whipped Westbrook in the quarter finals of the recent Golden Gloves. Westbrook has been coming close to an AAU title but never has made it. In the last three years he has been a finalist, a semi-finalist and a quarter-finalist.

He normally weights 190 and Beattie tips the scales at 230.

A total of 75 bouts were run off Thursday afternoon and night. Two other boxers won their way into the second round by default.

There was only one result that could be classed as a major upset. That came in the final bout of the night when James Isabella of Philadelphia won a decision from Garry Brown of Denver in the 156-pound class. Brown was a Chicago Tournament of Champions winner.

Such prime contenders for titles as George Foster of Cincinnati at 132 pounds; Bennie Briscoe of Philadelphia, 147; John Joiner of Cincinnati, 125; Steve Freeman of Houston, Texas, 125; Billy Joiner of Cincinnati, 158; Richard Sue of Portland, Ore., 119; Rory O'Shea of Chicago, 147; Roy McMillan of Toledo, 156 and Bennie Black of Chicago, a heavyweight, moved into the second round without too much difficulty.

Michigan State has beaten Notre Dame in football in nine of its last 10 tries.

Browns In 3-For-3 Shuffle

Plum Traded To Detroit, Ninowski Balks At Deal

By JERRY GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions have traded for the offensive help they desperately needed. And the Cleveland Browns have gotten the running quarterback they wanted to supplement the bulldozing of Jimmy Brown and Ernie Davis — or have they?

The two National Football League powers of the 1950s pulled a three-for-three swap Thursday. But quarterback Jim Ninowski, who returns to the Browns after two seasons with Detroit, has thrown a monkey wrench into the whole thing.

"I have no intention of going to Cleveland," said Ninowski. "I'll quit football if I have to."

If Ninowski doesn't change his mind, the deal could be called off.

The Lions, whose offense was impotent last season when they finished second in the Western Division, received quarterback Milt Plum, hard-running Tom Watkins and linebacker Dave Lloyd. The Browns received defensive end Bill Glass and running back Hopalong Cassady along with Ninowski.

MILT PLUM
Will Quarterback Lions.

JIM NINOWSKI
Refuses to Join Browns.

"The deal is conditional on all six reporting as I understand it," said Arthur B. Modell, the Browns' board chairman.

But Coach George Wilson of the Lions insisted the trade couldn't be canceled.

"It's a deal," said Wilson, who figures he's solved the Lions' long quarterback problem with the acquisition of Plum. "As far as we're concerned, Ninowski's the property of Cleveland."

Plum has been the top passer in the NFL the last two years. But the ex-Penn State quarterback recently has been critical of Coach Paul Brown's habit of calling all the Cleveland plays from the bench.

No Change In Kid Paret; Mother To Arrive In NY

NEW YORK (AP) — Former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret remained in a moderate coma, his condition still critical, today while his mother prepared to fly here from Cuba to be at his bedside.

Arrangements were completed Thursday night in Havana for Paret's mother, Mrs. Maxima Crespo, to fly to Miami sometime today. Mrs. Crespo, who speaks no English, said she had no funds to continue on to New York but was confident she would get here.

"My place is beside my son," she said, after bitterly denouncing boxing as "a question of animals" and complaining that Paret's manager, Manny Alfaro, did not notify her of her son's condition until Monday — two days after he was savagely beaten in a title bout with Emile Griffith.

Mrs. Crespo said she believed her son would recover. "I have delivered (my hopes) to the great power of God," she said.

Thursday night's hospital bulletin said, "There has been no change in the condition of Paret throughout the day. He continues in moderate coma. He is being maintained under hypotermia. His general systemnic condition remains good."

500 Winner Foyt Won Purses Worth $171,760

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A. J. Foyt Jr., the handsome young man in the flying autos, was well paid for winning his second straight big car championship last year.

The United States Auto Club completed its tally of 1961 race statistics today and reported the 27-year-old Houston driver won purses totaling a record $171,760.

He drove three different kinds of race cars — championship, sprint and midget — in almost 50 races. His only mishap was getting a black eye from a flying stone in an August race at Langhorne, Pa.

Foyt picked up $153,168 on the championship circuit, $13,595 in sprints and $4,997 in the midgets.

Although Foyt probably got to keep only 45 to 50 per cent when he was driving somebody else's car, as he did most of the time, he had his own vehicle in the sprints.

In addition to taking the Indianapolis 500 at a record speed, Foyt won championship races at Langhorn; Duquoin, Ill., and the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Eddie Sachs, Boyertown, Pa., had the second-high total of USAC purses with $80,064.

Bright's Meet Baron's, Shaffer's Vs. Amo's In Jaycee Play

The battle lines were drawn Thursday night as the field in the Wellsville Jaycee Tournament was whittled down to four semi-finalists.

George Bright's Real Estate of East Liverpool, Amo's Esso of Rochester, Shaffer Trucking of Wellsville and Baron's Cafe of Steubenville are left to battle for the championship.

Tonight in the opener at 8 Bright's clashes with defending champion Baron's while the second game finds Shaffer's meeting Amo's. The two winners will meet for the title Saturday night at 8:30 preceded by a consolation game at 7 p.m.

Baron's didn't have much trouble moving to the semi-finals with an 87-62 victory over Burton's Sohio of Hammondsville. John Blanda flipped in 23 points and four other teammates hit the double figures as Burton's was knocked from the running.

Baron's held a 40-33 lead at halftime and put the game on ice after three periods with a 59-43 advantage. Big Don Spires, Stanton Local's great scorer this past season, led the losers with 18.

The best single-game scoring performance of the tournament so far was turned in by Tom Shaffer, an outstanding cager from Alliance who wore the colors of Bright's in leading the Real Estate five to an 89-69 over Miner's Tavern.

Shaffer scored 40 points, all from the field as he poured in 20 field goals. Bright's trailed at halftime, 42-37, but took a 57-53 lead after three quarters before spurting in the final period.

Miner's Tavern, sporting Salem and United High talent, was paced by another Schaffer, Jerry Schaffer of United who tossed in 24 points.

Freed's went into an overtime battle with Shaffer Trucking before bowing out of contention. The score at the end of regulation time was 72-72 but Shaffer's wound up on top, 87-80.

Harvey Hunt, a standout at Kent State this past season, fired in 24 points while his teammate Harry Reynolds hit for the same total.

Herb Lake's 24 points topped Freed's who lost a tough decision.

Obitts Co. of Elyria came from 14 points behind at halftime to give Amo's a scare before the Rochester entry came out on top, 66-64.

Dick Witherite of Geneva Varsity paced the winning Amo's combine with 23 points. Tsipis scored 19 for the losers.

Jim Ferrier Heads Azalea Field By One

By KEN ALYTA

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — Old campaigner Jim Ferrier, 47, recaptured the putting wizardry of his balmier days and nursed a one-stroke lead going into today's second round of the Azalea Open Golf Tournament.

Ferrier, back on the tour for about a year after six years as a Hollywood, Calif., club pro, put together nines of 35-32, with the aid of seven birdies, to lead his four nearest rivals in the field of 135 Thursday.

Big Jim's 67, five under par for the 6,700-yard Cape Fear Country Club course, put him one ahead of Gary Player, the youthful South African who defends his Masters title at Augusta, Ga., next week; Jay Herbert, stylist from Miami, Fla.; Dave Hill of Denver and Tom Nieporte of Locust Valley, N.Y.

The Sports Bench

Dodgers Look Tough In NL . . .

It's that time of year when a young man's fancy turns to baseball.

To refresh your memory, we picked the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Baltimore Orioles to win pennants in their respective leagues last year. How far wrong can one be?

We're not letting sentiment run away with our feelings this season. As long as Pittsburgh is pinning its pennant hopes on Vernon Law, we can't go along with the Pirates this time.

They haven't made many changes in three years and Law still stands as a big question mark. We feel Joe Gibbon will be the big winner at Pittsburgh in 1962, although he has taken his lumps some in spring training games.

We don't look for Pittsburgh to finish any higher than fifth this year.

Our choice in the National League is the Los Angeles Dodgers. It's hard to understand why they didn't win it last year.

As for the Pirates, Dick Groat has slowed down at shortstop, where he experienced his worst season in 1961. The heavy load of the infield chores rests on Bill Mazeroski. "Billy The Kid" will operate between Groat, who has lost a step or two at shortstop, and Dick Stuart at first base, who can't go very far to his right to stop ground balls.

So Mazeroski has to cover the ground of two men going to his left and right in a hurry. Maybe this is why Mazeroski had such a bad season in 1961, the load might have been too heavy.

Our suggestion here is to give Ducky Schofield some starting work at shortstop.

In the outfield, we feel that Bob Skinner should have been traded long ago.

Maybe Donn Clendennon can help the outfield situation. He's starting off on the right foot.

Stick With The Yankees . . .

IN THE American League, someone always reminds us that "you're crazy if you don't pick the Yankees." So we are picking the Yankees this year, but expect the Detroit Tigers to be right on their necks.

The Cleveland Indians should show some marked improvement if they can get their pitchers out of the Army in time to be of help. General Manager Gabe Paul built a winner at Cincinnati before he left and he'll be working to do the same thing at Cleveland.

Following are our selections for the 1962 season:

NATIONAL LEAGUE	AMERICAN LEAGUE
1. Los Angeles	New York
2. San Francisco	Detroit
3. Milwaukee	Cleveland
4. Cincinnati	Baltimore
5. Pittsburgh	Minnesota
6. St. Louis	Chicago
7. New York	Washington
8. Chicago	Boston
9. Houston	Los Angeles
10. Philadelphia	Kansas City

Allen Collects 3 Doubles . . .

ROOKIE Bernie Allen continued his pursuit of the second base job with the Minnesota Twins when he slammed three doubles in Minnesota's 7-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers Thursday at Lakeland, Fla.

Allen hit his third double in the ninth inning and scored the run which broke a 4-4 tie as the Twins went on to score three markers in the last inning.

Bernie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thurm Allen, and his brother, Thurman, have been in Florida this week watching the exhibition games of the Twins.

Ageless Archie To Meet Argentine Boxer Tonight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Argentina's Alejandro Lavorante, who may be on his way to the top, and Archie Moore, who has already been there, meet in a 10-round heavyweight battle tonight.

More than 12,000 fans are expected to attend the non-televised match and contribute to a gate of around $100,000.

There are no immediate title aspects to the engagement, although a championship scrap might develop from it. But it is an intriguing attraction.

Here is old Archie, from San Diego, who is at least 45 and very likely closer to 50, waging war in the ring for the 216th time.

He insists he wants to put away the young Latin giant, who is ranked fourth in the heavyweight division, and make a new bid himself in this class.

Moore's other, and obviously more realistic, plan is to get by Lavorante and then defend what is left of his world light heavyweight championship in a match with NBA middleweight titleholder Gene Fullmer.

Lavorante, 25, who is 6-feet-4—five inches taller than Archie—feels he will gain international stature if he whips California's ancient mongoose.

Lavorante, who figures to have about a 15-pound advantage, has had but 22 matches. He's won 19 and 15 of them were by knockouts.

Moore gets a guarantee of $35,000 from the co-promoters, Cal Eaton and George Parnassus, while Alex gets 25 per cent of the net.

Major Bout Set Tonight In AAU Event At Cincy

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP) — The luck of the draw and a skimpy heavyweight entry list have set up a major bout for tonight in the 1962 national AAU boxing tournament, a full 24 hours before the finals.

It will pit 6-foot-7 Jim Beattie of St. Paul against Wyce Westbrook of Cincinnati.

The 19-year-old Beattie whipped Westbrook in the quarter finals of the recent Golden Gloves. Westbrook has been coming close to an AAU title but never has made it. In the last three years he has been a finalist, a semi-finalist and a quarter-finalist.

He normally weights 190 and Beattie tips the scales at 230.

A total of 75 bouts were run off Thursday afternoon and night. Two other boxers won their way into the second round by default.

There was only one result that could be classed as a major upset. That came in the final bout of the night when James Isabella of Philadelphia won a decision from Garry Brown of Denver in the 156-pound class. Brown was a Chicago Tournament of Champions winner.

Such prime contenders for titles as George Foster of Cincinnati at 132 pounds; Bennie Briscoe of Philadelphia, 147; John Joiner of Cincinnati, 125; Steve Freeman of Houston, Texas, 125; Billy Joiner of Cincinnati, 158; Richard Sue of Portland, Ore., 119; Rory O'Shea of Chicago, 147; Roy McMillan of Toledo, 156 and Bennie Black of Chicago, a heavyweight, moved into the second round without too much difficulty.

Michigan State has beaten Notre Dame in football in nine of its last 10 tries.

Browns In 3-For-3 Shuffle

Plum Traded To Detroit, Ninowski Balks At Deal

By JERRY GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions have traded for the offensive help they desperately needed. And the Cleveland Browns have gotten the running quarterback they wanted to supplement the bulldozing of Jimmy Brown and Ernie Davis — or have they?

The two National Football League powers of the 1950s pulled a three-for-three swap Thursday. But quarterback Jim Ninowski, who returns to the Browns after two seasons with Detroit, has thrown a monkey wrench into the whole thing.

"I have no intention of going to Cleveland," said Ninowski. "I'll quit football if I have to."

If Ninowski doesn't change his mind, the deal could be called off.

The Lions, whose offense was impotent last season when they finished second in the Western Division, received quarterback Milt Plum, hard-running Tom Watkins and linebacker Dave Lloyd. The Browns received defensive end Bill Glass and running back Hopalong Cassady along with Ninowski.

MILT PLUM

JIM NINOWSKI
Refuses to Join Browns.

"The deal is conditional on all six reporting as I understand it," said Arthur B. Modell, the Browns' board chairman.

But Coach George Wilson of the Lions insisted the trade couldn't be canceled.

"It's a deal," said Wilson, who figures he's solved the Lions' long quarterback problem with the acquisition of Plum. "As far as we're concerned, Ninowski's the property of Cleveland."

Plum has been the top passer in the NFL the last two years. But the ex-Penn State quarterback recently has been critical of Coach Paul Brown's habit of calling all the Cleveland plays from the bench.

No Change In Kid Paret; Mother To Arrive In NY

NEW YORK (AP) — Former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret remained in a moderate coma, his condition still critical, today while his mother prepared to fly here from Cuba to be at his bedside.

Arrangements were completed Thursday night in Havana for Paret's mother, Mrs. Maxima Crespo, to fly to Miami sometime today. Mrs. Crespo, who speaks no English, said she had no funds to continue on to New York but was confident she would get here.

"My place is beside my son," she said, after bitterly denouncing boxing as "a question of animals" and complaining that Paret's manager, Manny Alfaro, did not notify her of her son's condition until Monday — two days after he was savagely beaten in a title bout with Emile Griffith.

Mrs. Crespo said she believed her son would recover. "I have delivered (my hopes) to the great power of God," she said.

Thursday night's hospital bulletin said, "There has been no change in the condition of Paret throughout the day. He continues in moderate coma. He is being maintained under hypotermia. His general systemnic condition remains good."

500 Winner Foyt Won Purses Worth $171,760

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A. J. Foyt Jr., the handsome young man in the flying autos, was well paid for winning his second straight big car championship last year.

The United States Auto Club completed its tally of 1961 race statistics today and reported the 27-year-old Houston driver won purses totaling a record $171,760.

He drove three different kinds of race cars — championship, sprint and midget — in almost 50 races. His only mishap was getting a black eye from a flying stone in an August race at Langhorne, Pa.

Foyt picked up $153,168 on the championship circuit, $13,595 in sprints and $4,997 in the midgets.

Although Foyt probably got to keep only 45 to 50 per cent when he was driving somebody else's car, as he did most of the time, he had his own vehicle in the sprints.

In addition to taking the Indianapolis 500 at a record speed, Foyt won championship races at Langhorn; Duquoin, Ill., and the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Eddie Sachs, Boyertown, Pa., had the second-high total of USAC purses with $80,064.

Bright's Meet Baron's, Shaffer's Vs. Amo's In Jaycee Play

The battle lines were drawn Thursday night as the field in the Wellsville Jaycee Tournament was whittled down to four semi-finalists.

George Bright's Real Estate of East Liverpool, Amo's Esso of Rochester, Shaffer Trucking of Wellsville and Baron's Cafe of Steubenville are left to battle for the championship.

Tonight in the opener at 8 Bright's clashes with defending champion Baron's while the second game finds Shaffer's meeting Amo's. The two winners will meet for the title Saturday night at 8:30 preceded by a consolation game at 7 p.m.

Baron's didn't have much trouble moving to the semi-finals with an 87-62 victory over Burton's Sohio of Hammondsville. John Blanda flipped in 23 points and four other teammates hit the double figures as Burton's was knocked from the running.

Baron's held a 40-33 lead at halftime and put the game on ice after three periods with a 59-43 advantage. Big Don Spires, Stanton Local's great scorer this past season, led the losers with 18.

The best single-game scoring performance of the tournament so far was turned in by Tom Shaffer, an outstanding cager from Alliance who wore the colors of Bright's in leading the Real Estate five to an 89-69 over Miner's Tavern.

Shaffer scored 40 points, all from the field as he poured in 20 field goals. Bright's trailed at halftime, 42-37, but took a 57-53 lead after three quarters before spurting in the final period.

Miner's Tavern, sporting Salem and United High talent, was paced by another Schaffer, Jerry Schaffer of United who tossed in 24 points.

Freed's went into an overtime battle with Shaffer Trucking before bowing out of contention. The score at the end of regulation time was 72-72 but Shaffer's wound up on top, 87-80.

Harvey Hunt, a standout at Kent State this past season, fired in 24 points while his teammate Harry Reynolds hit for the same total.

Herb Lake's 24 points topped Freed's who lost a tough decision.

Obitts Co. of Elyria came from 14 points behind at halftime to give Amo's a scare before the Rochester entry came out on top, 66-64.

Dick Witherite of Geneva Varsity paced the winning Amo's combine with 23 points. Tsipis scored 19 for the losers.

Yates To Captain Bearcat Squad

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's NCAA basketball champions have picked as next year's floor captain Tony Yates, an arch type of their coaches' emphasis on defensive tactics.

Yates, of Cincinnati, and senior Paul Hogue picked up most of the awards at the annual dinner for the team Thursday night.

Coach Ed Jucker, whose two years as Cincinnati's head coach have brought the NCAA championship at each season's end, saluted Yates as "one of the greatest defensive players."

Yates took the award for standout defensive player, Hogue, 6-foot-9 star scorer and rebounder for the Bearcats, was chosen most valuable player for the season and took a trophy as retiring team captain.

Tom Sizer of Middletown, chosen Cincinnati's most improved player, had a note of praise for Ohio State's All-America, Jerry Lucas, Sizer's old teammate on the Middletown High School state champion team.

He said, "Jerry Lucas is a dear friend of mine, a tremendous basketball player and I respect him 100 per cent."

In addition to other trophies and hardware, the team was given an award by the Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor Walton Bachrach passed out to team members trophies in the form of a number "1" a foot high to show their NCAA basketball victory.

Cincinnati beat Ohio State 71-59 last Saturday at Louisville for the title. Last year, Cincinnati won 70-65 in overtime, taking the championship from Ohio State.

Pvt. Barber Holds Key To Orioles' Chances

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The key to the Baltimore Orioles' pennant chances in the 1962 baseball campaign could rest in the hand of Steve Barber—to Uncle Sam just a private, but to American League hitters "the pitcher they least like to hit against."

The unqualified praise for Barber, 23, a left-hander who was the Orioles' top winner last year with 18 victories, comes from the observations of Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees. Barber has made every effort to make it stick this spring.

On furlough, Barber took the mound for the second time Thursday and allowed St. Louis only two scratch infield singles in a six-inning stint, striking out two while walking none in the Orioles' 7-2 exhibition victory at Miami.

It was the second outstanding performance for Barber, now in only his third season in the big leagues. He checked Detroit on a bad-hop single in a three-inning outing a week ago and has allowed just one earned run in nine innings.

Barber will be sprung from his Army post to pitch for the Orioles on weekends during the regular season.

In other Florida games, Cincinnati walloped Philadelphia 15-6 at Clearwater, Minnesota beat Detroit 7-4 at Lakeland, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Yankees 5-4 in 10 innings at Vero Beach, Milwaukee defeated the New York Mets 6-2 at St. Petersburg, Chicago's White Sox walloped Pittsburg 11-5 at Sarasota and Kansas City bopped Washington 6-1 at West Palm Beach.

Boston whipped San Francisco 4-2 at Scottsdale, Ariz.; the Chicato Cubs nipped Houston 7-5 at Mesa, Ariz., and the Los Angeles Angels knocked off Cleveland 7-4 at Palm Springs, Calif., with favorite fan former President Dwight D. Eisenhower looking on.

Three-run homers by Gordon Coleman and Jerry Lynch powered the Reds to their win over the Phils, who got a three-run circuit shot from Roy Sievers.

The Dodgers won it in the 10th when Lee Walls doubled home Wally Moon with the deciding run after the Yankees had lost an early lead built on Mickey Mantle's two-run homer and John Blanchard's two RBI. The Braves snapped a 1-1 tie in the sixth to clip the Mets as rookie Mack Jones knocked in Eddie Mathews with a triple.

The Chicago White Sox pounded the Pirates' Bob Friend for seven hits and eight runs in the first inning for all the runs they needed. Dale Long hit his seventh homer for the Senators, but that was all they got against the A's as Jerry Walker, Dan Pfister and Dave Wickersham combined to fashion a seven-hitter.

The Red Sox beat the Giants with Frank Malzone accounting for three RBI with a homer and two singles. Outfielder George Altman stroked three singles and added a two-run homer, his sixth this spring, that brought in the Cubs' winning runs in the sixth inning against the Colts.

Detroit Ends Lakers Sweep

DETROIT (AP)—Three benchwarmers provided the Detroit Pistons with a reprieve in their National Basketball Association Western Division final playoff series with the Los Angeles Lakers.

Johnny Egan, Bob Ferry and Willie Jones brought the Pistons to life Thursday night and they finally nipped the Lakers 118-117.

But the Lakers still enjoy a 3-1 lead in the best-of-7 series and will have the home court advantage for the fifth game Saturday night.

Egan, Ferry and Jones—each enjoying a hot streak that kept the Pistons in front from the first quarter on—totaled 57 points.

The Eastern Division finals, with the Boston Celtics holding a 2-1 lead over the Philadelphia Warriors, also will resume Saturday. The televised afternoon game will be at Philadelphia.

Grand National Course Soft For Saturday's Race

LIVERPOOL, England (AP)—Sleet and rain have churned the Aintree circuit into a perilously soft course that could take a heavy toll of the runners in Saturday's Grand National, toughest steeplechase race in the country.

Thirty-three horses are scheduled to charge off in the race (starting at 9:45 a.m. EST) over a 4-mile, 856-yard distance.

But unless the ground hardens again before then a small percentage of these are expected to complete the grueling course—long and over tough barriers.

Favorite after Thursday night's call-over was Nicolaus Silver — last year's winner—at 13-2, with Frenchman's Cove at 7-1, Marryman at 17-2 and Springbok at 14-1 closest behind.

Former Dodger Catcher Plunges To Death At 72

NEW YORK (AP) — Funeral services were being arranged today for Otto Miller, twice a World Series catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who plunged to his death Thursday from the window of a hospital.

The body of Miller, 72, was found on the sidewalk beneath the fourth floor window of the Brooklyn Ear and Eye Hospital, where he had undergone eye surgery Tuesday.

Police said a screen had been removed from the window.

Miller, born in Minden, Neb., caught for the Dodgers from 1910-1923 and was the regular catcher for the club in the World Series of 1916 and 1920. He became a coach after his retirement, leaving when Casey Stengel was dismissed as manager in 1936.

Two sons and his widow survive.

Carter's Bowling Draws Big Crowd

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The Don Carter Gloves bowlers of St. Louis, leaders in the classic team division of the American Bowling Congress tournament, are like the baseball Yankees. They draw the big crowds.

Attendance figures covering the first 40 days of the 69-day event, released today, showed the St. Louisans, who dominated their sport for seven years as the Budweisers, drew successive crowds of 3,916 and 4,231 for their two appearances this week.

They have been the best attraction at Veteran's Memorial Auditorium. The team, featuring Don Carter and Dick Weber, took first place with 3052 and 3196 series for a six-game 6248 total.

No changes were made in the tournament standings Thursday for the second day in a row.

Defiance Star Leads Voting In Mid-Ohio

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — Mid-Ohio League basketball champion Ashland placed three men on the loop's all-star first and second teams. But Defiance's Ray Etzler was the big vote getter.

The 6-foot-2 junior led the balloting by the league coaches.

First Team

Etzler; Wilbur Ritzhaupt, junior, 6-5, Ashland; Larry Augler, junior, 6-6, Ashland; Ron Holtrey, senior, 6-4, Ohio Northern, and Willie Tuggle, sophomore, 5-11, Findlay, and Lonnie Norris, senior, 6-2, Ohio Northern tied for the fifth spot.

Second Team

Boze Johnson, junior, 5-8, Ashland; Gary Walthall, sophomore, 6-7, Cedarville; Gary Crawford, senior, 6-2, Defiance; Larry Clark, senior, 5-7, Wilmington; Rex Taylor, sophomore, 5-10, Wilmington.

Honorable Mention

Wayne Dickason, junior, 6 - 5, Bluffton; Dave Jeremiah, junior, 6-2, Cedarville, and Dave Shockey, junior, 6-3, Findlay.

Tigers' Boros Is Well-Read

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)— Steve Boros, of the Detroit Tigers, hopes to become a professor of literature, a rare ambition for a major league baseball player.

The young third baseman of the Tigers attends Michigan State University during the off season. He is a senior and needs 18 more hours to obtain his degree. He is majoring in contemporary literature.

Boros, 25, is single and has lots of time on his hands before and after a game. He spends a great deal of it reading. He goes in for books by such authors as Melville, Hemingway, Thoreau and Faulkner; plays by Shakespeare and poetry by Robert Frost and H. D. Lawrence.

"People are surprised when they find out," said Boros, "but they shouldn't be. A ball player is more fortunate than the average person in that he has more free time. After all, he spends no more than four to five hours at the ball park. The rest of the time is his own."

Boros firmly believes that reading shouldn't be done for entertainment alone.

"The proper kind of reading stimulates the mind," he says. "I have no desire to dictate reading tastes to others, but just as some people read comics and detective stories for entertainment, I read the great authors for ideas and knowledge. That's my entertainment. I love it."

Hardly a day goes by when Boros isn't carrying two or three books under his arm. He reads in hotel rooms, on planes and on trains.

When he was in the minor leagues, Boros played for some managers who opposed his affinity for heavy reading, claiming it's bad for the eyes. Boros doesn't think so. Until his advancement to the Tigers last year, Steve's batting average improved each year so it is difficult to argue with him. He was headed for rookie of the year honors with the Tigers last season, but a broken left collarbone ended such dreams. Still, he had a banner year.

It is only natural for an intellectual-minded ball player to be a target for friendly ribbing by his teammates.

"The guys are pretty nice about it," Boros said. "They know I'm serious and the kidding is good-natured. Once last year, I happened to make a good play at third base. Paul Foytack, who was pitching for us, yelled out, "Atta boy, Steve. Just for that I'll buy you a book."

Opinion Due In Month On ABL Antitrust Suit

BALTIMORE (AP)—It will be a month or more before Chief Judge Roszel C. Thomsen of U.S. District Court files an opinion in the American Football League's $10 million antitrust suit against the National Football League.

After attorneys for both sides completed presentation of evidence Thursday, Thomsen set April 25-26 for final arguments.

The AFL suit accuses the NFL of attempting to squeeze the new league out of business by expanding into Dallas and Minneapolis-St. Paul at the same time the AFL planned to field teams there.

Southern Cal Has Lead In NCAA Swim

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Paced by Olympic champion Murray Rose's repeat victory in the 1,500-memter freestyle marathon, Southern California's Trojans held a 10-point lead today going into the second round of the 40th NCAA swims.

But the edge wasn't expected to last, since favored Ohio State and second-rated Michigan were still to bring their big splashers into play in the three-day meet.

The Trojans had a 1-3-5 finish in Thursday night's 1,500-meter race. They added four points on John House's third-place in the 200-yard individual medley for a 17-point two-event total.

Ohio State was second with 7, all scored by sophomore Marty Mull of Canton, who set a record of 2:02.3 in nosing out Jack Kelso of Denver, the defending king, in the medley. Kelso's old mark of 2:02.9 was erased.

Cincinnati and Denver were tied for third with 5 each, Michigan had 4, Harvard 3, Oklahoma 2 and Michigan State 1 — with seven events tonight due to change the picture.

Mull and Kelso staged a mighty duel in the medley and were never more than five feet apart over the 200-yard route. Mull led after the breast-stroke leg, was even after the backstroke, fell behind in the butterfly, and then roared through the freestyle finish to touch a 10th of a second ahead of Kelso as both cracked the old mark.

Bell's Latest Showing Poor Against LA

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Gary Bell, a disappointing pitcher the past two seasons, is giving the Cleveland Indians new cause to worry.

The 25 - year - old right-hander was blasted by the Los Angeles Angels, who defeated the Indians 7-4 Thursday. Bell lasted 31-3 innings and gave up seven runs on six hits. He also walked eight batters and struck out none.

Bell, who had 9-10 and 12-16 records the last two seasons when he has been bothered by a sore arm, seemed to be throwing too much slow stuff. His curve ball also appeared to be hanging. All that, on top of poor control, made for a poor performance.

The Tribe still hasn't won two games in a row this spring and has the worst record on the Cactus League exhibition circuit — 7 won and 12 lost.

2 Pennsylvania Grid Stars Head For WVU

MORGANTOWN (AP) — A pair of Pennsylvania high school football standouts have accepted grants-in-aid to attend West Virginia University, Coach Gene Corum announced today.

They are tackle Pete DeSantis of Butler and halfback Wayne Cole of Ellwood City. DeSantis, 6-3 and 240 pounds, was named to Pennsylvania's "Big 33" all-star squad and the all-Midwestern Conference team. Cole, a 185-pound speedster, averaged 6.4 yards per carry and also made the all-Midwestern team.

Corum said 15 high school players now have signed grants to attend WVU.

Blasingame Doing His Share In Reds' Lineup

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—When the Cincinnati Reds lambasted the Philadelphia Phils 15-8 Thursday, second baseman Don Blasingame was right in their doing his share.

Jerry Lynch and Gordon Coleman led the Reds' attack with homers. Blasingame's contribution was more modest—two singles and two runs batted in. But he's been producing singles steadily since the exhibition season opened.

Blasingame's .316 batting average is one of the best on the team. Manager Fred Hutchinson has been platooning second base between the "Blazer" and Cookie Rojas, a talented rookie, but there is little doubt Blasingame will be the regular second baseman once the season starts.

Hutchinson has said as much, even though the often-pessimistic Cincinnati manager apparently doesn't expect Blasingame to keep hitting at his present pace. Last season the "Blazer" hit only .222 but stayed on the roster because of the good job he was doing at second base.

Local Interests To Buy Wheeling Downs Track

WHEELING (AP) — Wheeling Downs race track, once the property of former gambler William G. (Big Bill) Lias, will be sold to local interests within three weeks, it was disclosed here last night.

The announcement was made by James P. Clowes of Wheeling, secretary-treasurer of the Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway Inc. Clowes said his organization will acquire the track on Wheeling Island and its facilities from Wheeling Racing Association Inc. for a price "in excess of $1 million."

"Negotiations are particularly formalized and it appears that the sale will be completed within a three-week period," Clowes said.

Clowes' organization has been leasing the half-mile facility for harness racing from the Hazel Park Racing Association of Detroit.

The track was once owned by Lias, but the Federal Government took it over seven years ago to satisfy part of a multi-million - dollar income tax judgment against him. In 1957, the track was acquired by the Wheeling Racing Association, voting trustees for the Hazel Park organization, in a sale ordered by the U.S. District Court here.

"It is our hope that the downs can be returned to wholly locally owned operation since it represents a big industry for this area," Clowes said. He added that harness racing will continue under the new management and that a statement outlining the future operation of the track will be made when the sale is completed.

Yates To Captain Bearcat Squad

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's NCAA basketball champions have picked as next year's floor captain Tony Yates, an arch type of their coaches' emphasis on defensive tactics.

Yates, of Cincinnati, and senior Paul Hogue picked up most of the awards at the annual dinner for the team Thursday night.

Coach Ed Jucker, whose two years as Cincinnati's head coach have brought the NCAA championship at each season's end, saluted Yates as "one of the greatest defensive players."

Yates took the award for standout defensive player, Hogue, 6-foot-9 star scorer and rebounder for the Bearcats, was chosen most valuable player for the season and took a trophy as retiring team captain.

Tom Sizer of Middletown, chosen Cincinnati's most improved player, had a note of praise for Ohio State's All-America, Jerry Lucas, Sizer's old teammate on the Middletown High School state champion team.

He said, "Jerry Lucas is a dear friend of mine, a tremendous basketball player and I respect him 100 per cent."

In addition to other trophies and hardware, the team was given an award by the Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor Walton Bachrach passed out to team members trophies in the form of a number "1" a foot high to show their NCAA basketball victory.

Cincinnati beat Ohio State 71-59 last Saturday at Louisville for the title. Last year, Cincinnati won 70-65 in overtime, taking the championship from Ohio State.

Pvt. Barber Holds Key To Orioles' Chances

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The key to the Baltimore Orioles' pennant chances in the 1962 baseball campaign could rest in the hand of Steve Barber—to Uncle Sam just a private, but to American League hitters "the pitcher they least like to hit against."

The unqualified praise for Barber, 23, a left-hander who was the Orioles' top winner last year with 18 victories, comes from the observations of Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees. Barber has made every effort to make it stick this spring.

On furlough, Barber took the mound for the second time Thursday and allowed St. Louis only two scratch infield singles in a six-inning stint, striking out two while walking none in the Orioles' 7-2 exhibition victory at Miami.

It was the second outstanding performance for Barber, now in only his third season in the big leagues. He checked Detroit on a bad-hop single in a three-inning outing a week ago and has allowed just one earned run in nine innings.

Barber will be sprung from his Army post to pitch for the Orioles on weekends during the regular season.

In other Florida games, Cincinnati walloped Philadelphia 15-6 at Clearwater, Minnesota beat Detroit 7-4 at Lakeland, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Yankees 5-4 in 10 innings at Vero Beach, Milwaukee defeated the New York Mets 6-2 at St. Petersburg, Chicago's White Sox walloped Pittsburg 11-5 at Sarasota and Kansas City bopped Washington 6-1 at West Palm Beach.

Boston whipped San Francisco 4-2 at Scottsdale, Ariz.; the Chicato Cubs nipped Houston 7-5 at Mesa, Ariz., and the Los Angeles Angels knocked off Cleveland 7-4 at Palm Springs, Calif., with favorite fan former President Dwight D. Eisenhower looking on.

Three-run homers by Gordon Coleman and Jerry Lynch powered the Reds to their win over the Phils, who got a three-run circuit shot from Roy Sievers.

The Dodgers won it in the 10th when Lee Walls doubled home Wally Moon with the deciding run after the Yankees had lost an early lead built on Mickey Mantle's two-run homer and John Blanchard's two RBI. The Braves snapped a 1-1 tie in the sixth to clip the Mets as rookie Mack Jones knocked in Eddie Mathews with a triple.

The Chicago White Sox pounded the Pirates' Bob Friend for seven hits and eight runs in the first inning for all the runs they needed. Dale Long hit his seventh homer for the Senators, but that was all they got against the A's as Jerry Walker, Dan Pfister and Dave Wickersham combined to fashion a seven-hitter.

The Red Sox beat the Giants with Frank Malzone accounting for three RBI with a homer and two singles. Outfielder George Altman stroked three singles and added a two-run homer, his sixth this spring, that brought in the Cubs' winning runs in the sixth inning against the Colts.

Detroit Ends Lakers Sweep

DETROIT (AP)—Three benchwarmers provided the Detroit Pistons with a reprieve in their National Basketball Association Western Division final playoff series with the Los Angeles Lakers.

Johnny Egan, Bob Ferry and Willie Jones brought the Pistons to life Thursday night and they finally nipped the Lakers 118-117.

But the Lakers still enjoy a 3-1 lead in the best-of-7 series and will have the home court advantage for the fifth game Saturday night.

Egan, Ferry and Jones—each enjoying a hot streak that kept the Pistons in front from the first quarter on—totaled 57 points.

The Eastern Division finals, with the Boston Celtics holding a 2-1 lead over the Philadelphia Warriors, also will resume Saturday. The televised afternoon game will be at Philadelphia.

Grand National Course Soft For Saturday's Race

LIVERPOOL, England (AP)—Sleet and rain have churned the Aintree circuit into a perilously soft course that could take a heavy toll of the runners in Saturday's Grand National, toughest steeplechase race in the country.

Thirty-three horses are scheduled to charge off in the race (starting at 9:45 a.m. EST) over a 4-mile, 856-yard distance.

But unless the ground hardens again before then a small percentage of these are expected to complete the grueling course—long and over tough barriers.

Favorite after Thursday night's call-over was Nicolaus Silver — last year's winner—at 13-2, with Frenchman's Cove at 7-1, Marryman at 17-2 and Springbok at 14-1 closest behind.

Former Dodger Catcher Plunges To Death At 72

NEW YORK (AP) — Funeral services were being arranged today for Otto Miller, twice a World Series catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who plunged to his death Thursday from the window of a hospital.

The body of Miller, 72, was found on the sidewalk beneath the fourth floor window of the Brooklyn Ear and Eye Hospital, where he had undergone eye surgery Tuesday.

Police said a screen had been removed from the window.

Miller, born in Minden, Neb., caught for the Dodgers from 1910-1923 and was the regular catcher for the club in the World Series of 1916 and 1920. He became a coach after his retirement, leaving when Casey Stengel was dismissed as manager in 1936.

Two sons and his widow survive.

Carter's Bowling Draws Big Crowd

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The Don Carter Gloves bowlers of St. Louis, leaders in the classic team division of the American Bowling Congress tournament, are like the baseball Yankees. They draw the big crowds.

Attendance figures covering the first 40 days of the 69-day event, released today, showed the St. Louisans, who dominated their sport for seven years as the Budweisers, drew successive crowds of 3,916 and 4,231 for their two appearances this week.

They have been the best attraction at Veteran's Memorial Auditorium. The team, featuring Don Carter and Dick Weber, took first place with 3052 and 3196 series for a six-game 6248 total.

No changes were made in the tournament standings Thursday for the second day in a row.

Defiance Star Leads Voting In Mid-Ohio

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — Mid-Ohio League basketball champion Ashland placed three men on the loop's all-star first and second teams. But Defiance's Ray Etzler was the big vote getter.

The 6-foot-2 junior led the balloting by the league coaches.

Here are the all-league line-ups:

First Team

Etzler; Wilbur Ritzhaupt, junior, 6-5, Ashland; Larry Augler, junior, 6-6, Ashland; Ron Holtrey, senior, 6-4, Ohio Northern, and Willie Tuggle, sophomore, 5-11, Findlay, and Lonnie Norris, senior, 6-2, Ohio Northern tied for the fifth spot.

Second Team

Boze Johnson, junior, 5-8, Ashland; Gary Walthall, sophomore, 6-7, Cedarville; Gary Crawford, senior, 6-2, Defiance; Larry Clark, senior, 5-7, Wilmington; Rex Taylor, sophomore, 5-10, Wilmington.

Honorable Mention

Wayne Dickason, junior, 6 - 5, Bluffton; Dave Jeremiah, junior, 6-2, Cedarville, and Dave Shockey, junior, 6-3, Findlay.

Tigers' Boros Is Well-Read

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)— Steve Boros, of the Detroit Tigers, hopes to become a professor of literature, a rare ambition for a major league baseball player.

The young third baseman of the Tigers attends Michigan State University during the off season. He is a senior and needs 18 more hours to obtain his degree. He is majoring in contemporary literature.

Boros, 25, is single and has lots of time on his hands before and after a game. He spends a great deal of it reading. He goes in for books by such authors as Melville, Hemingway, Thoreau and Faulkner; plays by Shakespeare and poetry by Robert Frost and H. D. Lawrence.

"People are surprised when they find out," said Boros, "but they shouldn't be. A ball player is more fortunate than the average person in that he has more free time. After all, he spends no more than four to five hours at the ball park. The rest of the time is his own."

Boros firmly believes that reading shouldn't be done for entertainment alone.

"The proper kind of reading stimulates the mind," he says. "I have no desire to dictate reading tastes to others, but just as some people read comics and detective stories for entertainment, I read the great authors for ideas and knowledge. That's my entertainment. I love it."

Hardly a day goes by when Boros isn't carrying two or three books under his arm. He reads in hotel rooms, on planes and on trains.

When he was in the minor leagues, Boros played for some managers who opposed his affinity for heavy reading, claiming it's bad for the eyes. Boros doesn't think so. Until his advancement to the Tigers last year, Steve's batting average improved each year so it is difficult to argue with him. He was headed for rookie of the year honors with the Tigers last season, but a broken left collarbone ended such dreams. Still, he had a banner year.

It is only natural for an intellectual-minded ball player to be a target for friendly ribbing by his teammates.

"The guys are pretty nice about it," Boros said. "They know I'm serious and the kidding is good-natured. Once last year, I happened to make a good play at third base. Paul Foytack, who was pitching for us, yelled out, "Atta boy, Steve. Just for that I'll buy you a book."

Opinion Due In Month On ABL Antitrust Suit

BALTIMORE (AP)—It will be a month or more before Chief Judge Roszel C. Thomsen of U.S. District Court files an opinion in the American Football League's $10 million antitrust suit against the National Football League.

After attorneys for both sides completed presentation of evidence Thursday, Thomsen set April 25-26 for final arguments.

The AFL suit accuses the NFL of attempting to squeeze the new league out of business by expanding into Dallas and Minneapolis-St. Paul at the same time the AFL planned to field teams there.

Southern Cal Has Lead In NCAA Swim

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Faced by Olympic champion Murray Rose's repeat victory in the 1,500-memter freestyle marathon, Southern California's Trojans held a 10-point lead today going into the second round of the 40th NCAA swims.

But the edge wasn't expected to last, since favored Ohio State and second-rated Michigan were still to bring their big splashers into play in the three-day meet.

The Trojans had a 1-3-5 finish in Thursday night's 1,500-meter race. They added four points on John House's third-place in the 200-yard individual medley for a 17-point two-event total.

Ohio State was second with 7, all scored by sophomore Marty Mull of Canton, who set a record of 2:02.3 in nosing out Jack Kelso of Denver, the defending king, in the medley. Kelso's old mark of 2:02.9 was erased.

Cincinnati and Denver were tied for third with 5 each, Michigan had 4, Harvard 3, Oklahoma 2 and Michigan State 1 — with seven events tonight due to change the picture.

Mull and Kelso staged a mighty duel in the medley and were never more than five feet apart over the 200-yard route. Mull led after the breast-stroke leg, was even after the backstroke, fell behind in the butterfly, and then roared through the freestyle finish to touch a 10th of a second ahead of Kelso as both cracked the old mark.

Bell's Latest Showing Poor Against LA

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Gary Bell, a disappointing pitcher the past two seasons, is giving the Cleveland Indians new cause to worry.

The 25 - year - old right-hander was blasted by the Los Angeles Angels, who defeated the Indians 7-4 Thursday. Bell lasted 31-3 innings and gave up seven runs on six hits. He also walked eight batters and struck out none.

Bell, who had 9-10 and 12-16 records the last two seasons when he has been bothered by a sore arm, seemed to be throwing too much slow stuff. His curve ball also appeared to be hanging. All that, on top of poor control, made for a poor performance.

The Tribe still hasn't won two games in a row this spring and has the worst record on the Cactus League exhibition circuit — 7 won and 12 lost.

2 Pennsylvania Grid Stars Head For WVU

MORGANTOWN (AP) — A pair of Pennsylvania high school football standouts have accepted grants-in-aid to attend West Virginia University, Coach Gene Corum announced today.

They are tackle Pete DeSantis of Butler and halfback Wayne Cole of Ellwood City. DeSantis, 6-3 and 240 pounds, was named to Pennsylvania's "Big 33" all-star squad and the all-Midwestern Conference team. Cole, a 185-pound speedster, averaged 6.4 yards per carry and also made the all-Midwestern team.

Corum said 15 high school players now have signed grants to attend WVU.

Blasingame Doing His Share In Reds' Lineup

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—When the Cincinnati Reds lambasted the Philadelphia Phils 15-6 Thursday, second baseman Don Blasingame was right in their doing his share.

Jerry Lynch and Gordon Coleman led the Reds' attack with homers. Blasingame's contribution was more modest—two singles and two runs batted in. But he's been producing singles steadily since the exhibition season opened.

Blasingame's .316 batting average is one of the best on the team. Manager Fred Hutchinson has been platooning second base between the "Blazer" and Cookie Rojas, a talented rookie, but there is little doubt Blasingame will be the regular second baseman once the season starts.

Hutchinson has said as much, even though the often-pessimistic Cincinnati manager apparently doesn't expect Blasingame to keep hitting at his present pace. Last season the "Blazer" hit only .222 but stayed on the roster because of the good job he was doing at second base.

Local Interests To Buy Wheeling Downs Track

WHEELING (AP) — Wheeling Downs race track, once the property of former gambler William G. (Big Bill) Lias, will be sold to local interests within three weeks, it was disclosed here last night.

The announcement was made by James P. Clowes of Wheeling, secretary-treasurer of the Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway Inc. Clowes said his organization will acquire the track on Wheeling Island and its facilities from Wheeling Racing Association Inc. for a price "in excess of $1 million."

"Negotiations are particularly formalized and it appears that the sale will be completed within a three-week period," Clowes said.

Clowes' organization has been leasing the half-mile facility for harness racing from the Hazel Park Racing Association of Detroit.

The track was once owned by Lias, but the Federal Government took it over seven years ago to satisfy part of a multi-million - dollar income tax judgment against him. In 1957, the track was acquired by the Wheeling Racing Association, voting trustees for the Hazel Park organization, in a sale ordered by the U.S. District Court here.

"It is our hope that the downs can be returned to wholly locally owned operation since it represents a big industry for this area," Clowes said. He added that harness racing will continue under the new management and that a statement outlining the future operation of the track will be made when the sale is completed.

16 Weeks In West Virginia

32 State Police Recruits Await Training Period

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The 32 men ordered to report to the State Police Academy at nearby Institute this weekend to begin recruit training will face the most intensive 16 weeks of instruction in their young lives.

Before their July 20 graduation —if they survive—will come 687 scheduled hours of classes in 109 subjects. The over-all course will be two weeks longer than any previously conducted.

The recruits are scheduled to take their oaths from State Supreme Court Judge Chauncey Browning Monday.

"Then they'll be head over heels in work before they know it," Capt. T. A. Welty promised.

Welty, the Department of Public Safety's director of training, didn't hesitate to refer to the instruction program as "one of the best in the country." Other states have said so, Welty added.

The training formerly ran for 12 weeks, but the last school about two years ago covered 14. The extension this year has resulted from the instruction of new courses and expansion and updating of others.

"We've added, for example, eight hours of training in radiological monitoring," Welty said. "That instruction will deal with possible industrial and related emergencies, as well as fallout from any enemy attack."

A fire-fighting course will include new information with respect to battling flames that might involve highly volatile chemicals.

Instruction in criminal law and investigation has been lengthened to 58 hours.

Other course revisions and additions will reflect the department's growing concern with respect to traffic problems and the death toll on state highways.

Sgt. R. E. Stanley and Cpl. J. R. Buckalew of the Accident Prevention Bureau recently completed New York University and University of Maryland courses in traffic management, traffic law enforcement and accident investigation.

"We've already revised various investigation techniques with respect to highway mishaps, and records compiled of such accidents," Welty said. "The recruit course will cover those in detail, as the latest methods developed."

The newest techniques in criminal investigation will be taught by 1st Sgt. W. F. Bowley on the basis of instruction received at the National Police Academy.

Nine hours will be devoted to driver education. A two - hour course in etiquette has been added. Public speaking instruction will cover 20 hours.

Seventy-one hours of drill are scheduled. Fifty-six hours will be devoted to calisthenics.

A "cast" of about 30 department instructors will be supplemented by an approximately equal number from agencies ranging from the brewers' foundation to various educational, state, federal and other law enforcement groups.

The "guests" will include retired Capt. Charles W. Ray, now affiliated with a peace officer program sponsored by Marshall University and the State Education Department. He is a national authority on criminal law and evidence.

"Because we operate with relatively limited numbers," Welty said, "we must develop state policemen with the broadest possible training in as many fields and areas as possible."

Rugged as the course might appear at the academy, "we've learned to tailor it generally to the abilities of those who are able to meet the State Police standards and capabilities," Welty added.

The new class, which also will include one trooper who has been in uniform for some time but never has completed the school, will be one of the largest in recent years. The normal size is around 25.

"We know for certain that 31 of the 32 new men we've accepted will report." Welty said. "We hope that at least 29 make the grade. We'll be below our budget strength of 280 uniformed personnel by at least that number in July."

Mix ground leftover cooked meat with mashed potatoes and a slightly beaten egg; season well and form into patties. Heat and brown the patties in shallow fat.

They Walked With Christ

NICODEMUS

"Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night . . ."

—John III:1,2

Nicodemus was the prototype of today's lukewarm believer.

His Soul recognized and acknowledged Jesus, but his mind urged caution. It told him: you are a man of influence and position in your community, but this Man is a vagabond. You are learned in the laws of the synagogue, but this Man speaks of a kingdom beyond the law and beyond life. If you are seen among His followers, will you not be compromised in the eyes of your associates?

So Nicodemus went to Jesus by night. He wanted to be a secret disciple, never called upon to defend publicly the faith he professed privately.

"Rabbi," he said, "we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him."

Jesus replied that "except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

These words puzzled the aging Nicodemus. He asked Jesus, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

Nicodemus, the man of discretion and worldly wisdom, did not understand the meaning of spiritual rebirth.

Later, when the chief priests and Pharisees gathered in council to plot Jesus' death, Nicodemus had only enough courage to suggest that, according to the law, no man should be judged without having an opportunity to defend himself.

But he quickly retreated into silence when the other members of the assembly turned on him. He was afraid to declare himself openly on the side of Jesus. He lacked the zeal and courage to use his influence to demand, rather than merely to suggest, justice.

As Papini observes: "When the man of his admiration was martyred and killed and His enemies were satisfied, and there was no more danger of being compromised, then he comes with balsams to pour into those wounds which were inflicted partly by his cowardice."

Had Friend Take Exam For Him

Edward Kennedy Was Asked To Leave Harvard

BOSTON (AP) — Edward M. Kennedy, youngest brother of the President and an aspirant to the U.S. Senate, disclosed today he was asked to leave Harvard University in 1951 for having a friend take a freshman examination for him.

"What I did was wrong," he told the Boston Globe in an interview. "I have regretted it ever since. The unhappiness I caused my family and friends, even though 11 years ago, has been a bitter experience for me, but it has also been a very valuable lesson."

Kennedy later returned to Harvard and was graduated in good standing in 1956.

The story of young Kennedy's withdrawal from Harvard has been rumbling around in Massachusetts political circles for some time.

Kennedy, saying he wants to set the record straight, told this story of the incident:

"I entered Harvard in 1950 at the age of 18. During the second semester of my freshman year I made a mistake. I was having difficulty in one course, a foreign language.

"I became so apprehensive about it that I arranged for a fellow freshman friend of mine to take the examination for me in that course.

"The dean learned of this and my friend and I were asked to withdraw with the understanding that we might reapply for admission after a period of absence, provided that during that time we could demonstrate a record of constructive and responsible citizenship."

After leaving Harvard, Kennedy joined the Army as a private and served two years in Europe as an infantryman.

"Upon my return to the United States," Kennedy continued, "I made application to Harvard and was accepted for readmission. My friend, who was also readmitted, and I later represented Harvard in intercollegiate athletics.

"I worked hard, passed all my courses — some with honors — and was graduated in good standing in 1956."

Kennedy said he applied for admission to University of Virginia law school after graduation from Harvard.

"The authorities at that institution," he said, "were fully aware of all the facts surrounding the Harvard incident. They have an honor system at the law school of the University of Virginia. I was accepted at that institution and was graduated in good standing three years later."

Harvard University Dean John U. Munro declined comment on Kennedy's story. He said it was a closed affair so far as Harvard is concerned.

Young Kennedy has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate. He seeks the seat vacated by his brother who resigned in 1960 to become President.

Opposing Kennedy for the nomination is Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., nephew of speaker of the House John W. McCormack.

Small School On Lake First Air TV Member

KELLEYS ISLAND, Ohio (AP) —A small school on this Lake Erie island is the first charter member of the Midwest Program on Airborne Television Instruction (MPATI).

The school, which has 25 pupils in its 12 grades, is one of 2,000 schools in six states that have been participating in the program on a voluntary basis since last September. Now MPATI, Inc., financed mainly by a Ford Foundation grant, wants the schools to become permanent members and share in the cost of the program.

The schools receive broadcasts of taped programs transmitted from an airplane flying over North-Central Indiana.

An MPATI official presented the Kelleys Island school with a plaque and a television set Thursday in recognition of the school becoming the first charter member.

Senior Citizens Greet 3 As New Members

Three new members were welcomed at a meeting of the East Liverpool Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon at the VFW Building. Sixty were present.

Members began work on flowers as a craft project.

Guy Garwood read several articles on aid to the aged.

Mrs. Helen Kent was named social chairman for April, May and June.

Marlow Russell, president, conducted business and Mrs. Grace McHenry had roll call.

Next meeting is Thursday afternoon.

Radiation Levels Seen Far Below Worrying Point

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Radiation levels in Ohio are far below the worrying point, the director of the state's Food and Sanitation Division says.

Richard Martin said monthly readings by the federal government at Ohio's monitoring centers in Cleveland and Cincinnati show radiation levels in air, water, milk and various foods are among the lowest since nuclear testing began in 1957.

"Levels in February did not even reach the lowest scale on the government's guideline of human exposure," Martin explained.

"Strontium 90, which could be dangerous if the range of daily intake measures between 200 and 2,000 micromicrocuries per day for a period of one year, measured less than 10 at the Ohio centers.

"Iodine 131, which in large doses could affect the thyroid gland, causing cancer, now measures less than 10 micromicrocuries per day.

"Its most dangerous intake would total 100 to 1,000 micromicrocuries per day for a year," Martin said.

A micromicrocurie is one-millionth of a curie. A curie is a measurement of the amount of radiation emitted by a gram of radium.

Republic Steel Cites Advance In Firm's Production Rates

CLEVELAND (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. says significant improvement has been made in production rates—in most cases triple for the same units of a few years ago—because of installation of oxygen lances on open hearth furnaces.

In the annual report mailed to shareholders Thursday, President Thomas F. Patton said an open hearth furnace at the Cleveland plant established a monthly production record of 62,862 tons, or an average of 87 tons an hour.

A blast furnace in Cleveland and one at the South Chicago plant ranked among the four highest in the steel industry in terms of average daily production of pig iron over a one-month span, Patton said.

Patton, the head of the nation's third largest steel producer, said the big inventory accumulated by steel users during the first half of 1962 would be followed by liquidation and strong steel demand in the second half. It would not affect the total production for the year, Patton said. He predicted that would be about 106 million tons, or eight million more than in 1961.

He added: "This is based on the assumption that steel users during the second half of the year will use up about two thirds of the steel inventory accumulated during the first half. If they should decide to retain more of this inventory, total 1962 steel output could push close to the 110 million-ton level."

Patton said Republic's capital expenditures for 1961 totaled more than $89 million. He reported completion of several major coke plant improvements, a new strip mill in Warren, a new bar mill for production of alloy steel bars in Canton and other major improvements at the company's plants in Massillon, Cleveland and Gadsden, Ala.

Don't overheat creamed vegetables such as asparagus, snap beans, peas and carrots to prevent possible curdling.

16 Weeks In West Virginia

32 State Police Recruits Await Training Period

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The 32 men ordered to report to the State Police Academy at nearby Institute this weekend to begin recruit training will face the most intensive 16 weeks of instruction in their young lives.

Before their July 20 graduation —if they survive—will come 687 scheduled hours of classes in 109 subjects. The over-all course will be two weeks longer than any previously conducted.

The recruits are scheduled to take their oaths from State Supreme Court Judge Chauncey Browning Monday.

"Then they'll be head over heels in work before they know it," Capt. T. A. Welty promised.

Welty, the Department of Public Safety's director of training, didn't hesitate to refer to the instruction program as "one of the best in the country." Other states have said so, Welty added.

The training formerly ran for 12 weeks, but the last school about two years ago covered 14. The extension this year has resulted from the instruction of new courses and expansion and updating of others.

"We've added, for example, eight hours of training in radiological monitoring," Welty said. "That instruction will deal with possible industrial and related emergencies, as well as fallout from any enemy attack."

A fire-fighting course will include new information with respect to battling flames that might involve highly volatile chemicals. Instruction in criminal law and investigation has been lengthened to 58 hours.

Other course revisions and additions will reflect the department's growing concern with respect to traffic problems and the death toll on state highways.

Sgt. R. E. Stanley and Cpl. J. R. Buckalew of the Accident Prevention Bureau recently completed New York University and University of Maryland courses in traffic management, traffic law enforcement and accident investigation.

"We've already revised various investigation techniques with respect to highway mishaps, and records compiled of such accidents," Welty said. "The recruit course will cover those in detail, as the latest methods developed."

The newest techniques in criminal investigation will be taught by 1st Sgt. W. F. Bowley on the basis of instruction received at the National Police Academy.

Nine hours will be devoted to driver education. A two - hour course in etiquette has been added. Public speaking instruction will cover 20 hours.

Seventy-one hours of drill are scheduled. Fifty-six hours will be devoted to calisthenics.

A "cast" of about 30 department instructors will be supplemented by an approximately equal number from agencies ranging from the brewers' foundation to various educational, state, federal and other law enforcement groups.

The "guests" will include retired Capt. Charles W. Ray, now affiliated with a peace officer program sponsored by Marshall University and the State Education Department. He is a national authority on criminal law and evidence.

"Because we operate with relatively limited numbers," Welty said, "we must develop state policemen with the broadest possible training in as many fields and areas as possible."

Rugged as the course might appear at the academy, "we've learned to tailor it generally to the abilities of those who are able to meet the State Police standards and capabilities," Welty added.

The new class, which also will include one trooper who has been in uniform for some time but never has completed the school, will be one of the largest in recent years. The normal size is around 25.

"We know for certain that 31 of the 32 new men we've accepted will report," Welty said. "We hope that at least 29 make the grade. We'll be below our budget strength of 280 uniformed personnel by at least that number in July."

Mix ground leftover cooked meat with mashed potatoes and a slightly beaten egg; season well and form into patties. Heat and brown the patties in shallow fat.

They Walked With Christ

NICODEMUS

"Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night . . ."

—John III:1,2

Nicodemus was the prototype of today's lukewarm believer.

His Soul recognized and acknowledged Jesus, but his mind urged caution. It told him: you are a man of influence and position in your community, but this Man is a vagabond. You are learned in the laws of the synagogue, but this Man speaks of a kingdom beyond the law and beyond life. If you are seen among His followers, will you not be compromised in the eyes of your associates?

So Nicodemus went to Jesus by night. He wanted to be a secret disciple, never called upon to defend publicly the faith he professed privately.

"Rabbi," he said, "we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him."

Jesus replied that "except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

These words puzzled the aging Nicodemus. He asked Jesus, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

Nicodemus, the man of discretion and worldly wisdom, did not understand the meaning of spiritual rebirth.

Later, when the chief priests and Pharisees gathered in council to plot Jesus' death, Nicodemus had only enough courage to suggest that, according to the law, no man should be judged without having an opportunity to defend himself.

But he quickly retreated into silence when the other members of the assembly turned on him. He was afraid to declare himself openly on the side of Jesus. He lacked the zeal and courage to use his influence to demand, rather than merely to suggest, justice.

As Papini observes: "When the man of his admiration was martyred and killed and His enemies were satisfied, and there was no more danger of being compromised, then he comes with balsams to pour into those wounds which were inflicted partly by his cowardice."

Had Friend Take Exam For Him

Edward Kennedy Was Asked To Leave Harvard

BOSTON (AP) — Edward M. Kennedy, youngest brother of the President and an aspirant to the U.S. Senate, disclosed today he was asked to leave Harvard University in 1951 for having a friend take a freshman examination for him.

"What I did was wrong," he told the Boston Globe in an interview. "I have regretted it ever since. The unhappiness I caused my family and friends, even though 11 years ago, has been a bitter experience for me, but it has also been a very valuable lesson."

Kennedy later returned to Harvard and was graduated in good standing in 1956.

The story of young Kennedy's withdrawal from Harvard has been rumbling around in Massachusetts political circles for some time.

Kennedy, saying he wants to set the record straight, told this story of the incident:

"I entered Harvard in 1950 at the age of 18. During the second semester of my freshman year I made a mistake. I was having difficulty in one course, a foreign language.

"I became so apprehensive about it that I arranged for a fellow freshman friend of mine to take the examination for me in that course.

"The dean learned of this and my friend and I were asked to withdraw with the understanding that we might reapply for admission after a period of absence, provided that during that time we could demonstrate a record of constructive and responsible citizenship."

After leaving Harvard, Kennedy joined the Army as a private and served two years in Europe as an infantryman.

"Upon my return to the United States," Kennedy continued, "I made application to Harvard and was accepted for readmission. My friend, who was also readmitted, and I later represented Harvard in intercollegiate athletics.

"I worked hard, passed all my courses — some with honors — and was graduated in good standing in 1956."

Kennedy said he applied for admission to University of Virginia law school after graduation from Harvard.

"The authorities at that institution," he said, "were fully aware of all the facts surrounding the Harvard incident. They have an honor system at the law school of the University of Virginia. I was accepted at that institution and was graduated in good standing three years later."

Harvard University Dean John U. Munro declined comment on Kennedy's story. He said it was a closed affair so far as Harvard is concerned.

Young Kennedy has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate. He seeks the seat vacated by his brother who resigned in 1960 to become President.

Opposing Kennedy for the nomination is Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward J. McCormack Jr., nephew of speaker of the House John W. McCormack.

Radiation Levels Seen Far Below Worrying Point

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Radiation levels in Ohio are far below the worrying point, the director of the state's Food and Sanitation Division says.

Republic Steel Cites Advance In Firm's Production Rates

CLEVELAND (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. says significant improvement has been made in production rates—in most cases triple for the same units of a few years ago—because of installation of oxygen lances on open hearth furnaces.

In the annual report mailed to shareholders Thursday, President Thomas F. Patton said an open hearth furnace at the Cleveland plant established a monthly production record of 62,862 tons, or an average of 87 tons an hour.

A blast furnace in Cleveland and one at the South Chicago plant ranked among the four highest in the steel industry in terms of average daily production of pig iron over a one-month span, Patton said.

Patton, the head of the nation's third largest steel producer, said the big inventory accumulated by steel users during the first half of 1962 would be followed by liquidation and strong steel demand in the second half. It would not affect the total production for the year, Patton said. He predicted that would be about 106 million tons, or eight million more than in 1961.

He added: "This is based on the assumption that steel users during the second half of the year will use up about two thirds of the steel inventory accumulated during the first half. If they should decide to retain more of this inventory, total 1962 steel output could push close to the 110 million-ton level."

Patton said Republic's capital expenditures for 1961 totaled more than $89 million. Psychologists Devise New Ink Blot Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A new ink blot test for use by psychologists has been devised and it has one outstanding feature: There is only one answer you can give for each blot.

The first of a set of 45 cards used in the test looks like a bat. If you don't think so, you may be mentally disturbed. On the other hand, you may be just plain ornery—or perhaps creative.

For the whole series, more than 30 answers wrong indicate emotional disturbance.

The test is designed to replace the famed Rorschach method, where only 10 cards are used and several responses may be given to each.

The new test is more reliable than the Rorschach, said Prof. Samuel C. Fulkerson, director of clinical training at the University of Louisville. It was developed over a 10-year period by Dr. Wayne H. Holtzman, psychologist at the University of Texas and a former associate of Fulkerson.

The occasion for discussion and demonstration of the new test—only three months old and not yet in general use—was today's meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association.

As in the Rorschach, the Holtzman test measures personality traits and the ability of a person to perceive things realistically. It can help point out cases of mental illness, although it would never be used as the sole basis of diagnosis.

"You can't judge a person's sanity through his response to any one ink blot, but you can tell by the results of the total test," Fulkerson said.

Koontz Named Sheriff In Licking County

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—John F. Koontz Sr., 59, affiliated with the Licking County sheriff's office since 1947, has been named sheriff of the county, succeeding the late William McElroy.

Koontz was appointed to the position Thursday night by a majority vote of the 120-member Republican Central Committee. He and 12 deputies were to be sworn into office today by Common Pleas Court Judge Charles Holtzberry.

McElroy, 59, collapsed and died of a heart attack in the jail office last Friday. He had been sheriff of Licking County for more than 20 years and was a former executive secretary of the Buckeye Sheriff's Association.

DiSalle And McElroy Slated In TV Debate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, Democratic rivals for the gubernatorial nomination, are scheduled for a radio and a television debate.

The radio debate, scheduled for 5 p.m. Sunday, April 8, will originate with WMNI in Columbus. A spokesman for the station reports it will be carried by 22 other stations in the state.

The joint television appearance has been arranged for Sunday, April 29, by KYW-TV in Cleveland.

Hookstown And City Autoists Post Bonds

A Hookstown area driver and a city motorist posted $15.50 bonds Thursday night for hearings Monday in Chester on traffic charges.

John D. Morrell, 314 Summit Ln., was cited for operating a vehicle with defective lights and Donald E. Woodling, 26, of Hookstown R. D. was cited for driving the wrong way on 2nd St. Both were charged by Patrolman Clarence Lennens.

Franklin D. Hanlon, 29, of Shadyside Ave. forfeited a $15.50 bond when he failed to appear before Mayor Ray Collins on a charge of operating a vehicle with defective lights. He was cited Sunday by Lennens.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

Robert Hopkins Troup, March 30, 1960. Robert still dwells in my heart as my beloved and only husband, and lives in the hearts of his family, friends and piano pupils. Revelation 21:4, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." "They walk in white, God's princes, Where e'er their paths may lead, In the glorious light of heaven, And on sweet manna feed." (Glenna Twiss). — Mrs. Jennie N. Troup and family, Florida.

Psychologists Devise New Ink Blot Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A new ink blot test for use by psychologists has been devised and it has one outstanding feature: There is only one answer you can give for each blot.

The first of a set of 45 cards used in the test looks like a bat. If you don't think so, you may be mentally disturbed. On the other hand, you may be just plain ornery—or perhaps creative.

For the whole series, more than 30 answers wrong indicate emotional disturbance.

The test is designed to replace the famed Rorschach method, where only 10 cards are used and several responses may be given to each.

The new test is more reliable than the Rorschach, said Prof. Samuel C. Fulkerson, director of clinical training at the University of Louisville. It was developed over a 10-year period by Dr. Wayne H. Holtzman, psychologist at the University of Texas and a former associate of Fulkerson.

The occasion for discussion and demonstration of the new test—only three months old and not yet in general use—was today's meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association.

As in the Rorschach, the Holtzman test measures personality traits and the ability of a person to perceive things realistically. It can help point out cases of mental illness, although it would never be used as the sole basis of diagnosis.

"You can't judge a person's sanity through his response to any one ink blot, but you can tell by the results of the total test," Fulkerson said.

Koontz Named Sheriff In Licking County

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—John F. Koontz Sr., 59, affiliated with the Licking County sheriff's office since 1947, has been named sheriff of the county, succeeding the late William McElroy.

Koontz was appointed to the position Thursday night by a majority vote of the 120-member Republican Central Committee. He and 12 deputies were to be sworn into office today by Common Pleas Court Judge Charles Holtzberry.

McElroy, 59, collapsed and died of a heart attack in the jail office last Friday. He had been sheriff of Licking County for more than 20 years and was a former executive secretary of the Buckeye Sheriff's Association.

DiSalle And McElroy Slated In TV Debate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, Democratic rivals for the gubernatorial nomination, are scheduled for a radio and a television debate.

The radio debate, scheduled for 5 p.m. Sunday, April 8, will originate with WMNI in Columbus. A spokesman for the station reports it will be carried by 22 other stations in the state.

The joint television appearance has been arranged for Sunday, April 29, by KYW-TV in Cleveland.

Hookstown And City Autoists Post Bonds

A Hookstown area driver and a city motorist posted $15.50 bonds Thursday night for hearings Monday in Chester on traffic charges.

John D. Morrell, 314 Summit Ln., was cited for operating a vehicle with defective lights and Donald E. Woodling, 26, of Hookstown R. D. was cited for driving the wrong way on 2nd St. Both were charged by Patrolman Clarence Lennens.

Franklin D. Hanlon, 29, of Shadyside Ave. forfeited a $15.50 bond when he failed to appear before Mayor Ray Collins on a charge of operating a vehicle with defective lights. He was cited Sunday by Lennens.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

Robert Hopkins Troup, March 30, 1960. Robert still dwells in my heart as my beloved and only husband, and lives in the hearts of his family, friends and piano pupils. Revelation 21:4, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." "They walk in white, God's princes, Where e'er their paths may lead, In the glorious light of heaven, And on sweet manna feed." (Glenna Twiss). — Mrs. Jennie N. Troup and family, Florida.

QUESTION: Who were the Green Mountain Boys?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: This was a band of raiders led by Ethan Allen. In pre-Revolutionary times Vermont was a territory held by New Hampshire. New York challenged New Hampshire's claim. The Green Mountain Boys were organized to terrorize New York settlers and to induce New York to give up its claim on the territory. Before the issue was settled, the Revolutionary War began and the Green Mountain Boys turned to fighting the British. The most famous of their exploits during the war was the capture of Fort Ticonderoga. Allen and his men advanced upon the fort during the night when all were sleeping and demanded the fort's surrender "in the name of the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress." The unexpectedness of the attack gave it success. The Green Mountain Boys and their leader were later taken prisoner near Montreal, Canada for a short time. After the war, the problem of the ownership of Vermont was solved by making Vermont a sovereign state.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: While Congress was debating the issue of making Vermont a sovereign state, Ethan Allen was accused of treason. See what you can find out about the details of that charge and about the result.

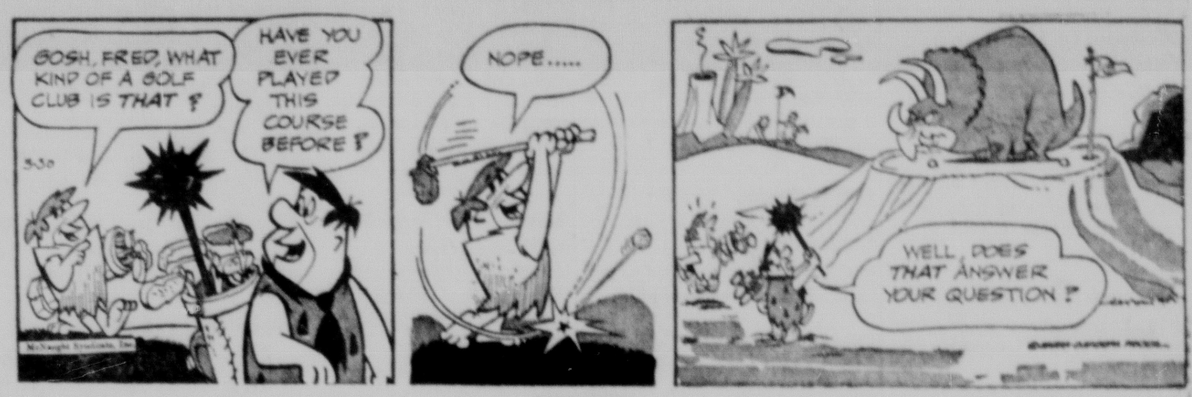

★ ★ ★

Kathy Pothier of Hamilton, Ontario, wins $10 for this question. Send your question on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Rain And Rise Of Humidity To End Fires

Rainfall and rising humidity today brought hopes to area firemen that this week's outbreak of grass fires is at an end.

Some 250 acres were burned off Thursday when dry conditions and wind boosted fire hazards and resulted in at least eight district blazes.

About 52 acres were burned north of Millport early yesterday afternoon, with Franklin Township and Salineville firemen battling the flames for three hours.

Liverpool Township East firemen were summoned to a grass fire at Fisher Park.

Two acres of grass were burned off at the Kaul Clay Co. plant grounds near Toronto, and 40 acres of woods were burned near Empire yesterday morning and last night. Charles Heffner and Empire firemen fought the blaze.

Thirty-five acres were charred by a fire in Highland Creek Township near Toronto last night.

Salineville firemen also quelled a grass fire on Jefferson St. near the home of Mrs. Margaret McNichol yesterday. Firemen were summoned to a blaze four miles south of the village. But were then told the fire was under control.

Mrs. Maurice Lawrence, observer at the fire tower at West Point said the fire index yesterday was 81, indicative of dryness and wind which constitute a severe fire threat.

The fire index earlier this morning was 25 (anything over 7 is considered dangerous) but rainfall sent the index down to safe levels.

Industry volunteer firemen and others fought a brush fire Thursday for six hours on the Folmer Farm on the Barclay Hill Rd. which burned an estimated 50 acres and destroyed a barn.

Police Chief Guy St. Espirt said numerous Industry firemen were at the scene and about eight from the Brighton Township volunteer fire department were called later.

Besides the barn, some farm tools were destroyed. Another building caught fire but firemen were able to save it. Three houses were threatened for a time.

The fire reportedly started when a woman on Barclay Hill burned some cardboard and the wind blew some of it into a field of grass. The wind fanned the flames.

Firemen were out from about 2:16 to 8 p. m. There was no estimate of the damage.

Midland volunteer fire company No. 1 was called out at 3:45 p.m. Thursday to fight a brush fire in the west end of Midland.

The dog pound and a house owned by the borough were reported in danger and the fire spread into the borough of Ohioville. Police Chief Bernard Zlatovich and Ohioville firemen were notified along with Midland Heights firemen, Midland police said.

Midland Heights volunteer fire company No. 2 was called out at 4:10 p. m. The downtown truck returned to its station at 5:45 p. m., after being out two hours.

At one time, the fire spread near the Wayne Bolland home at Midland View at Midland Heights.

At Lisbon, village firemen said there was no damage in a grass fire Thursday afternoon at the rear of 850 N. Market St.

Lotze Testimony Due To Be Ended Monday

LISBON — Testimony is to be completed Monday in the Common Pleas Court hearing on an appeal by Richard Lotze, former East Palestine police chief, seeking reinstatement to the post from which he was dismissed.

Lotze was on the stand Thursday afternoon when the hearing before Judge Raymond Buzzard recessed until Monday. Closing arguments are also scheduled Monday, but the judge indicated he will not rule immediately on the case.

Lotze has appealed his dismissal by Mayor Robert Harding in June 1961 on grounds of misconduct in office.

Kenneth Kinsey Wins Promotion In City Job

Kenneth B. Kinsey of Pennsylvania Ave., formerly a meter inspector, won the top grade in a promotional examination held Thursday night at City Hall by the Municipal Civil Service Commission for the post of meter repairman in the water works department.

Kinsey's name will be certified to the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the department, the commission said. He will fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Harry Waggle on Dec. 31. Kinsey has held the post on a provisional basis since Waggle's retirement.

Meanwhile, the commission said it has set a test May 7 to make up a new eligibility list for police department appointments. The list is needed to fill the post vacated by the recent resignation of Patrolman E. R. Furgason.

Charge Dismissed

SALINEVILLE — A charge of vandalism filed by Elwood Garwood of Lisbon R.D. 1 against Mabel Tsesemilles of R.D. was dismissed Thursday night by Mayor Fitch on grounds the incident occurred in Carroll County and was not in his jurisdiction. Garwood claimed she had pulled and broken a radio antenna on his car.
